

MONDAY
PLEASANT VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarke and daughter Myrtle, with her lady friend Miss Constantine, motored from West Roxbury, Mass., to their island home, Mr. Clarke's relatives at eastern, and Mrs. Clarke's at western part of the island, after having motored over a great part of the province. This is Mr. Clarke's first visit since leaving home forty three years ago, and has noticed many improvements on the roads, farms, scenery, and beautiful homes with signs of prosperity and contentment in every settlement. They leave next Thursday on return to their home after spending a very pleasant three weeks holiday with relatives and friends.

On Saturday, August 7th Mrs. Winslow Bradshaw of Central Bedouque, passed to her eternal reward. The deceased before her marriage was Miss Maude Annie Rowe daughter of Mr. T. Rowe of Liverpool, England, and afterwards of Charlotte, P. E. I. Mrs. Bradshaw was born in Liverpool, England.

For several months, in fact nearly six months, Mrs. Bradshaw had been suffering terribly, from an incurable malady. At various times, hopes were entertained for her recovery, but a few weeks ago, it was plain to see that she was no longer to be spared, and that such hopes were futile.

Mrs. Bradshaw was a faithful member of the Anglican Church, but since her residence in Bedouque Baptist Church. The Rev. Deacon White of Summerside, officiated, and administered the Communion, some days before her passing while the resident Baptist Minister, Dr. J. J. Sibley, was in constant attendance.

The end came at the close of a week of intense pain, and agonizing throes which she had entered into rest. The funeral took place on Sunday August 8th, from the Central Bedouque Baptist Church. The Bedouque Glee Club rendered the hymns, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Nearer My God to Thee." Despite the inclement weather a large crowd gathered, showing the fact that sympathy was widespread throughout the community. Dr. Sibley spoke from the words "Who are these arrayed in white robes?"

The deceased left to mourn her other husband, Winslow Bradshaw of Central Bedouque, her daughters Dorothy, Grace, and Evelyn, and two sons, Claude and Everett. Her brothers were with her at the time of her death, Capt. Walter Rowe, of Halifax, and Mr. Charles Rowe of Donaldson, P. E. I. A sister Mrs. C. L. Walker, of Boston and a brother, Mr. William Rowe of Boston, complete the list of her family.

There were very many lovely floral tributes. Friends from all parts of the Community sent flowers being abundant testimonial to the respect in which she was held.

Charles Rand, Rector of the Parish of Craupaud, and of which St. Thomas Church, Long Point is a portion. The service of dedication was followed by the celebration of the Holy Communion. The Rev. Mr. Rand preached a splendid sermon taking as his text a portion of the fifth verse of the second chapter of the Gospel of St. John "Whoever he saith unto me, 'Thou art my brother, my friend, my fellow citizen, and I shall be with him, and he shall be with me." There was a good congregation present at the service.

EXPECTANT MOTHERS
Read Mrs. Menard's Letter. Her Experience May Help
Chatham, Ontario.—"I want to tell you how much good your medicine has done me. Before my baby came I felt so nervous and ran down that I could hardly do my work. My head ached continually and I was so dizzy I could scarcely stand. I had another baby by just one year and a half old and I gave me a lot of trouble. I had read so much about it in the little books, I found it was just what I needed. I had been doing my washing and she had been doing it, as she said it again. It sure did help me and I had taken just two bottles when my baby came. He is a fine big boy now nearly five months old. I am taking your medicine again and I am able to do my work all the while. I always recommend your medicine to expectant mothers, and I believe it will help of those things. Mrs. Menard, 54 Center St., Chatham, Ontario."

The learned preacher opened with his text "My Eyes Shall be Open and My Ears Attentive to the Man who will Pray in this Place." He prefaced his sermon by congratulating the people of Kinkora upon their beautiful church which was free of debt (and a small surplus) on the day of its dedication. Father John also congratulated his former parishioners upon their success in temperance affairs and said that Kinkora was now recognized as one of the most progressive farming communities in the province. A fight royal reception was given to Messrs. Messervey and Myers by the electors of York, at the meeting held last night in the hall. Both Conservative candidates were in fine form, and delivered addresses, conveying all the latest issues of the day, that time after time literally brought down the house. Mr. Myers, in his rebuttal, nailed every argument that was put forward by the Liberal candidates, Messrs. Jenkins and Steward, and showed up the pro-Liberal policy in its true light.

A good argument for the Conservative cause was the speech made at last night's meeting by Mr. Peter Brodie, who has some years ago a Liberal member of the Provincial Legislature. Mr. Brodie recalled that as a member, he had introduced a resolution pertaining to adequate protection for butter, pork, and eggs, and that this resolution had been annulled by the counter resolution proposed by Walter M. Lea. Mr. Brodie said that nothing was more necessary to the prosperity of Canadian farmers, than a tariff that would protect the Canadian farm products to the detriment of American products. Mr. Brodie paid a personal tribute to Mr. Myers, and extolled his ability as Provincial Minister of Agriculture. As Agricultural Minister, Mr. Myers was always working in the interests of the farmer, and anything in reason that the farmers asked for, he did not do too much to obtain. The applause given at this meeting of the Conservative speakers, and the quiet reception tendered by Liberal candidates must have been somewhat disheartening to them.

Monique horse races yesterday afternoon were attended by an all-time record crowd of people. Not for a long time has there been any thing approaching yesterday's numbers. For years the rain "hoodoo" has kept many away but that "Jinx" is broken now as yesterday was their light summer weather. The Women's Institute decidedly led by a good cause—the clearing up of a debt on the school gave all who came from near and far seemed to thoroughly high and caused a lot of dust to fly and made a bit uncomfortable particularly in the afternoon. The three races were good contests and two of them splitting up and furnishing finishes that were very close.

Early Saturday morning, August 7th, a sad gloom was cast over the vicinity of Wilmet Valley by the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Ruby Jean Burrows, daughter of Mr. John A. Burrows, at the early age of twenty-nine years. The death had been in her usual health until a few days before her death. She was of a mild and gentle disposition, and beloved by all who knew her.

Miss Ruby's death was a great loss to her family, and her many friends leave to mourn their loss. Her father, Mr. John A. Burrows, and her mother, Mrs. L. M. Burrows, are both well. Her father is a member of the Kennington Presbyterian church. The funeral was held at the home of her father, Mr. John A. Burrows, on Sunday, August 8th, at 11 o'clock. The Rev. J. B. McLeod, of Charlottetown, officiated. Burial was in the Midgell Cemetery.

Stewart, secretary of the Women's Liberal Club. Miss May Sterna accompanied on the piano. Mr. Geo. S. Inman, K. C., chairman of the Liberal Association of Queen's County presided, and introduced the speakers, the ablest of whom, from the platform standpoint, was undoubtedly Hon. Mr. Dunning whose speech was marked by vigor and considerable eloquence.

Old Dutch assures you safe cleaning because it is a natural detergent that contains no lye, acids or hard grit to mar the finest surfaces; it assures you healthful cleanliness because the soft, flat, flaky particles erase all visible and invisible impurities. It assures you economical cleaning because a little goes a long way. For all house cleaning there's nothing like OLD DUTCH for Healthful Cleanliness

ROTARY—At the Rotary luncheon yesterday the speaker was the late Dr. H. L. Stewart, Professor of Philosophy in Dalhousie University, Halifax. Rotarians are always the subject of a splendid address "Moving Pictures of the Various Stages of a Rotary Club." The stages he enumerated are: 1. Period of fervent enthusiasm. 2. Period of robust enthusiasm. 3. Period of robust enthusiasm. He said that it was natural for the subject presented on this subject and presented on this subject in his usual administrative manner and presented on this subject in his usual administrative manner. He devoted the greater part of his address to the reasons why Rotary Clubs are not dying and why on the contrary they are vigorous and flourishing. One set clear, concrete program. He indicated the Halifax Club, which has been carrying on boys' work, helping crippled children and idealizing themselves with other activities. Past District Governor G. S. Inman presided. The guests present were Rotarian H. M. Yarrick of Halifax (who made a few remarks) and Mr. Hibbert Howatt of Charlottetown.

GOOD CROPS—Notwithstanding such fine weather, it is surprising to find in travelling through the country, so many fields of standing hay, some of excellent quality and farmers hard at work in hauled hay that has been cut and dried in fields of grain are beginning to turn in color, there is every prospect of a bountiful crop in this community. FAREWELL PARTY—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. C. W. Robertson, of Dunstaffnage on Saturday August 14th when the Young Peoples Club met there for the purpose of bidding farewell to one of its valued members, Miss Ruth Dennis, who is soon to take her departure for U. S. WEDDING BELLS—St. Michael's church, Iona, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning, August 3rd, when Miss Sara Laura Griffin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Griffin, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Joseph P. Morrissey, Roxbury, Mass. The bride wore a charmingly fitted white crepe de chene, with hat to match, and looked very winsome. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Griffin, who wore a gown of royal blue satin, while the groom was supported by Mr. Frank Morrissey, Newtown. After the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The party then motored to Charlottetown for dinner, returning in the evening to the bride's home where upwards of one hundred and twenty five guests gathered to confer felicitations to the newly wedded couple. A dancing pavilion had been provided outside, and there the night was passed most pleasantly. Supper was served in the spacious dwelling for the entertainment and comfort of the guests. The many valuable presents received testify to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's presence to the bride was a beautiful white gown, and to the bride's groom's man a set of cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey will reside in Dorchester, Mass. Her brother Frank predeceased her about sixteen months ago. She was a faithful member of the Kennington Presbyterian church. The bride was powder blue georgette of the day. Hon. E. M. McDonald
