

In Memoriam

MRS. PHILIP STEELE

Suddenly at Lower Montserrat, E. I., Sept. 6, 1945, Mrs. Philip Steele, at the age of 79 years. The funeral was held from her home on Saturday, Sept. 23, to St. James Church, Georgetown, May her soul rest in peace.

FRED CAMPBELL

At Desable, Aug. 27th, 1945, there passed to his rest, Fred Campbell, in his sixty-eighth year. Though in failing health for some time, his end was unexpected, and to the community, it was a shock.

The late Mr. Campbell was twice married. He was first married to Euphemia Belle Macdonald, who preceded him in death. His second wife was Mrs. Mabel O'Brien, who survives. He was a Christian and a true friend, honest and industrious, always showing himself in word and in deed, as one who ran his race for the glory of God.

HENNESSEY - CHISHOLM

KENTVILLE, Oct. 22—A charming home wedding of widespread interest to many throughout the province was solemnized on Friday evening, Oct. 19th, when Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D.
