ANYTHING BUT LOVE.—The Guardian's new story starts shortly. Mystery to grip you from the opening paragraph—romance to excite you in every chapter—suspense to possess you until the last line—that's what you'll find in Janet Doran's new serial.

AMONG THE OUTGOING freight this week is a shipment of 700 cases of canned goods, shipped by The Royal Packing Company to the T. Eaton Company in Montreal. It comprises Pork & Beans, Stringless Wax Beans and Berries.

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING C. W. L. tonight at 8 o'clock in Business Girls Hall, Richmond St. Miss M. A. Kelly of the Catholic Writers Club, New York, will address the meeting. Business girls cordially invited. L-33-11-3-11.

REMEMBER TO ADVERTISERS.—Advertisers are reminded copy for new advertisements, or corrections, must reach the Guardian Office by 11 A. M. the day previous to insertion. Recently there has been a tendency to delay copy, enforcing us to carry advertisements over to advertisers' inconvenience and disappointment. Please make a note—"Ads must be in Guardian Office by 11 A. M.!" L-11.

VICTIM LEAVES HOSPITAL.—Struck by a motor-car near the railway depot Friday after arriving from her home in Prince Edward Island en route to the United States, Miss Lynn Wilson was reported Saturday afternoon to be sufficiently recovered to leave the City Hospital where she had been taken for observation. The woman bore a bruise on her head as a result of the collision.—Moncton Transcript.

NEW SERIAL STORY—Anything But Love, by Janet Doran. Between loveless luxury and painless love many girls have had to choose. But Alma Whittaker's dilemma was not so simple as that. She had to decide between one man who offered her both wealth and love and another who offered neither. For her even to hesitate, you may say, was foolhardy. But read the story.—Janet Doran's newest—and most fascinating—serial novel. It starts shortly in the Guardian.

THE WINNERS in drawing in connection with Halloween Tea for Charlottetown Hospital are: Hooked Rug, Sacred Heart Home, Wool Blanket, Dorothy Peters, Luncheon Cloth and Serviettes, Frank Eden, Fruit Cake, Miss Macdonnell, Quilt, Mrs. Augustine Wisner, Watervale, Bedspread, Mary J. Donahoe.

WELCOME VISITOR.—Mrs. Howard McLeod and little daughter of Somerville, Mass., who have been enjoying a few weeks visit at her former home in P. E. I., also with relatives in Trenton, visited in Stellarton yesterday with friends. Before going to Somerville, Mrs. McLeod resided in town and her friends were delighted to have her in their midst again. Saturday morning they leave for their home in Somerville having greatly enjoyed their visit.—New Glasgow News.

ISLANDER BANQUETS STAFF.—Charles L. Trainor was the host at a banquet held on Wednesday night at the Hotel Saskatchewan when the guests were Regina and Moose Jaw members of the Prudential Life Insurance staff. Mr. Trainor, who has been the Regina assistant superintendent of the company, left on Friday for Sault Ste. Marie where he will have the position of superintendent. C. J. Marshall was chairman and J. A. Froke, Superintendent, made the presentation of a club bag to Mr. Trainor and proposed a toast to which the latter replied. Contributing to the program of speeches, reading and music were: Miss Lillian St. Julien, Mr. Marshall, J. G. Yeaman, John Fearne, M. G. Johnston, G. H. Barbour and T.

IT'S THE EXTRA STAMINA THAT MAKES THE FOOTBALL STAR

IT'S THAT EXTRA SOMETHING THAT COUNTS!

and in underwear it's Stanfield's EXTRA VALUE COMFORT LONG LIFE STYLE WARMTH

FIFTY YEARS OF EXPERIENCE have taught Stanfield's what Canadian men want in winter underwear.

From twenty fabrics, every man can choose the weight and the design which will give him the right degree of protection. But every garment is equally comfortable—made from the world's finest wool—unshrinkable, of course—and so perfectly tailored that it cannot bulge or bind, cannot scratch or irritate.

For fabrics of medium weight, warm but not bulky, ask for Stanfield's No. A C, popular from Coast to Coast. Made in button and no-button styles with short or long sleeves. Made also for boys.
