RAILROAD FOREMAN BEATEN TO DEATH

HINSDALE, N. H., Feb. 8.—James Stewart Hamilton, a railroad construction foreman of Rochester, N.Y., was beaten to death by unknown parties some time last night. The body bearing many bruises was found in the woods near his boarding place.

From a Man Who Knows

From the Magdalen Islands, away down among the fogs of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, comes a letter from a man who knows that Dr. Chase's Ointment is not only a relief but also a positive cure for protruding piles.

Too many make the mistake of stopping this treatment when relief is obtained, when by persistence they could be entirely cured.

Mr. Joseph Meuse, Grand Entry, Magdalen Islands, writes: "After using Dr. Chase's Ointment as a treatment for piles I must say that it did not only relieve me but has effected a cure. I had protruding piles for a number of years. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me and I have had no return of the ailment. You may publish this statement, so that it may be the means of helping other sufferers."

Surgical operations, with all the pain and risk, are unnecessary, for Dr. Chase's Ointment is a proven cure for every form of piles.

PARIS FASHIONS

The Henri II. is also stylish with an upstanding, curling feather either in front or back. Women have now grown so accustomed to the plume or aigrette that rests flat that they do not easily take to the upstanding kind. Both ideas will be carried out for the Spring. Of one thing you may be assured, that the weeping willow plume will not be modish. The plume that Paris is now launching is one that shows the spirals short and half curled. I have seen a black straw hat of Henri III. shape with black plume lying all about the crown and brim met.

The trimming on this hat represented three plumes, the two running around as mentioned above and the third falling off the side. The hat, as a whole, was old-fashioned looking and did not show the money in it, but for many months past hats have not been any too conspicious in the toilette. The plume was rich, and when examined was exquisite, but a cursory glance did not show it. By the time Spring is really here, no doubt, we will all be accustomed to this new, quiet little hat, and will probably find the immense, long plumed creations of past years vulgar and bold. So much for training.

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

...*IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

...*MARIE.—Among the short caurse students returning east Saturday were Alfred Webster and C. R. Webster, Marie, who speak very highly of the instructions received while attending the short course. The friends of R. G. Jay are sorry to hear of the painful accident he met with while chopping wood in the woods, but are glad to know that he is able to be around aggin. Leith Webster is teaching Church Road School for the balance of the season. The young people of Marie are taking advantage of the skating in St Peter's Bay Rink and frequent it quite often showing the young people of St Peter's, what they can do.

...*SERIOUS FIRE.—The dwelling house of Chas. VanIderstine of St. Peter's Bay was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The fire started in some paper on the flue where the pipe entered. It was blowing so hard that by the time they alarmed the neighbors the fire had got such a start that all that could be saved was the organ, sewing machine and a stove. They lost all the furniture, clothing, $100 in cash and 200 bushels of potatoes in the cellar. The building was nearly new and as there was no insurance it is a pretty heavy loss.

...*NEWPORT.—The school is progressing favorably under the auspices of Miss Frorence Murphy.— Capt. Peter Steele, who was in charge of the schr. Baltic last fall, is now going to take charge of the schr. J. W. as soon as navigation opens. The many friends of the young captain wish him every success.—On Thursday evening, January 31st, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of John Fitzpatrick. The young people amused themselves in dancing and singing.— The many friends of Angus McCormack are pleased to see him around again after a severe attack of la grippe.—Evrett Campbell arrived home recently. Mr. Campbell looks fine after an absence of six years in the United States..

...WEDDING BELLS.—One of the most important social events of Eastern King's took place at East Point Tuesday, the 28th inst., when Loretta, second daughter of James J. Beaton of that place, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John A. McDonald, North Lake. Rev. Father Gillis, P. P., St. Columba's, performed the ceremony. The bride was charmingly dressed in blue broadcloth with hat to match and was attended by her sister Mary, who wore a costume of blue broadcloth and black picture hat. The groom was assisted by his cousin Stephen J. McDonald. After the marriage ceremony was performed the happy couple drove to the home of the groom's parents where luncheon was served. From here they proceeded to the home of the bride where a sumptuous dinner was laid out waiting their arrival. In the evening about seventy-five invited guests assembled and after the wedding reel was danced proceeded to "trip the light fantastic" until the "wee sma' hours." The bride was the recipient of a vast number of useful and costly presents which goes to show the high esteem in which she is held by the people of the community.

Anaemic Mothers Here is Relief

You Can Enrich Your Worn-out Blood and Quickly Renew Your Health With Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Sufferer of Twenty Years States Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a Real Cure.

"I can't remember any time during the past 20 years when my head wasn't aching. If I bent over, dark specks would come before my eyes, and it seemed as if all the blood in my body wanted to rush to my head." Thus opens the letter of Mrs Enoch S. Spry, of Putnam P. O., and continuing her interesting statement she says: "Work or exertion made my heart beat terrible, and going up stairs caused such shortness of breath that it fairly frightened me. I tell you how I feel to-day and you can understand what a great cure Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made. I feel strong enough now to work like a man, as for going up stairs on the run, it doesn't bother me at all. I eat and sleep as any well person ought, and as for dizziness which used to frighten me so much, it has entirely disappeared. Dr Hamilton's Pills are a wonderful woman's medicine. They helped me in other ways, too, and I know every woman that uses them will have comfort and good health. Refuse anything offered you instead of Dr Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, 25c. per box at druggists and storekeepers or the Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

HOW TO GET MORE LIGHT.

We cannot have more if we will not use what we have. "Failure to follow the light as fast as we are sure it is the light, blocks further light.' Have we moved out vigorously into the pathway that was recently lighted up for us? If we have not, should we wonder that we have been in some cloudiness and uncertainty?

HERMIT OF WOODS DANCED IN CAFE.

While groups of five o'clock tea parties were refreshing themselves in a Montreal cafe, and the orchestra was playing softly, a tall, muscular man, who had been sitting quietly taking tea alone, leaped from his seat, and with wild gestures began leaping about the room to the imminent danger of the tables.

"He's crazy!" cried the startled customers to each other, as they gazed at the man. Women became hysterical, and men started for the telephone to call the police.

The orchestra, which had been playing "The Banks of Bonnie Doon," stopped suddenly. No sooner had they ceased playing than the man concluded his weird dance and sank into his chair breathless but contented, and those nearest to him heard him whisper to himself: "Aye, but that was gr-r-and, mon!"

The one-time famous "Jock" MacDonald of Inverness, was again in the limelight. Twenty years ago "Jock" was turnkey in the Inverness jail, and one of the most talked of men in the North of Scotland.

Left alone in charge of a party of Norwegian smugglers he single-handed overcame them when they attempted to escape.

It was not all smooth sailing for "Jock." His coy Highland lassie was fickle and Jock was jilted. So he came to Canada and plunged into the woods, building himself a "bachelor's palace" on the outskirts of the little village of Tacheville, on the Kaministiquia river. For two decades "Jock" was the "eccenttic" of the Fort William country. Working at odd jobs—now in a logging camp, now fishing, now acting as guide to hunting parties in the "north country." Jock made his living in seclusion and quiet.

Then the fever for a change came upon him and he resolved to make for his old home. Then came a letter from his aged mother stating that she was on her way to Canada and wanted him to meet her in Montreal.

Never since he left home had this lonely wanderer heard the strains of instrumental music, and when the old familiar air of "Bonnie Doon" fell upon his ears he was beside himself with joy.

For Delicate Children

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomsfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. E.A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

CANADIAN LOANS A DRAG IN LONDON

LONDON, Feb. 7.—New offerings of securities are finding a poor market here, Canada especially is feeling acutely the reluctance of investors. The dominion is finding it difficult to raise sufficient capital to provide for the large expenditures of the coming year. So far all her new issues have had but a poor reception, the Edmonton-Dunvegan Railway and also the Toronto 4 per cent. loan being placed at a discount, while Canadian Pacific's new stock is inert, acting as a drag on the old.

That Canada will have to curtail her building program this season seems to be the general expectation in London financial circles. All classes of colonial loans are weak. They have passed from the 4 to the 4½ per cent. type.

The latest example of the higher value of investment money is furnished by the Winnipeg $3,750,000 loan, which was brought out at 4½ per cent. at par.

EXPERT COACHING IN ATHLETICS.

Proper coaching in athletics is half the battle; it teaches one how to use his bodily powers most effectively, with the least waste of strength. Next to having personal discipline by experts is the sound instruction given in The Youth's Companion. A department of the paper is devoted to pointing out the best practice in baseball, football and the other great sports, explaining the science of pitching a ball, how best to train for sprinting, cross-country running, etc. The contributions to this department are made by the best authorities. It is an example of the thoroughness and accuracy which distinguishes The Companion. The stories are of the most varied kind—those for boys and girls proving equally interesting to their elders. The Youth's Companion occupies a unique place in the field of periodical literature. It is preeminently a family paper—a home paper, touching every interest of home life. And yet it costs only $2.25 a year—fifty-two crowded weekly issues for less than four cents a week.

Every new subscriber during 1913 will receive free The Companion Window Transparency and Calendar for 1913, in rich, translucent colors. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

MEN MORE FASTIDIOUS THAN WOMEN.

Have you ever asked yourself this question? I have come to the conclusion that in many things they are, and more particularly about food and table appointments.

Perhaps this is because women are habituated to the seamy side of cookery, to the sight of uncooked articles.

Men only see the results of all these processes, some of them disagreeable enough, whereas even the most fastidious mistress sometimes, however, reluctantly, comes upon the basement operators in the midst of a far from aesthetic task.

The gilded youth of today is a most terribly fastidious person. His chief cult is himself, and anything that jars upon his sensitive nerves and his "culture" seems a heinous offense.

I was made to think about these things the other day when a man speaking about a girl whose acquaintance he had lately made agreed that she was very pretty, very attractive, etc., "but," he added, "I don't like looking at her. Her hair is never tidy; pieces of it stream down at the back, and there is something about the back of her waist that is disorderly." I give you his own masculine expressions. Neatness appeals immensely to men. Soiled gloves, crushed handkerchiefs, untidy footgear, have done more to disillusion the masculine creature than the culprits who permit themselves these disorders can ever imagine.

PARIS FASHION HINTS.

Straw hats are being sent to the Riviera, but there is nothing new as to shape. A few are small and round, but the majority are a tiny bit larger and long. Black is the tone preferred, and the straw is very fine. The Henri II. hat is best, and with the present mode of posing low on the head it meets the requirements nicely. Sometimes the brim is velvet and the crown of satin, but the latest are those of a straw brim, a satin crown, and, as garnish, a curled wing that falls over the back.

RECOGNITION.

When I am dead,
And you are old,
You'll sit as we are sitting now,
Close to the fire, hearing the wind blow cold,
And you will stroke a golden head;
And suddenly remember how
I fondled yours, become at last aware
How dear to me was every single hair.

When I am dead,
And you are old,
You'll clasp in yours a little hand—
A little hand sweet as a flower to hold.
The pretty fingers you will spread,
And kissing them will understand
How kissing yours, I found them to contain
More than the world could give of bliss and gain.
