

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 16, 1889.

Mr. Parnell's Policy.

In the course of his last speech in the House of Commons, Mr. Parnell said that he believed that it would soon be seen by the people of England

That it is possible to arrange such a system as will permit Ireland to have the power of dealing with all those matters which concern herself, and herself alone, without the slightest shadow of danger or risk to the interests of the Empire.

These are very important words, coming from Mr. Parnell. They will, no doubt, produce a manifest effect upon public opinion in England.

St. John and the Atlantic Steam Service.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD is reported to have said in reply to the representatives of the St. John delegation that the Government had decided not to subsidize any line of steamers except those that would use Canadian ports both in summer as well as winter.

The position taken by the Government in respect to this matter is eminently judicious, and at the same time as favorable to St. John as the people of St. John can expect.

Putting Salt on Canada's Tail.

The New York Herald of the 15th says: "The Senate yesterday, appointed, after some discussion, a special committee to sprinkle salt on the tail of the Canadian goose."

Meeting of Presbytery.

THE Presbytery of P. E. I. met in Princetown on the 12th inst. There were present, Revs. J. M. McLeod, A. F. Carr, M. A., Wm. P. Archibald, M. A., B. D., James Carruthers, George McMillan, B. A., Geo. Fisher, J. R. Coffin, Thomas Corbett, John M. McLeod, M. A., Wm. M. Tufts, M. A., and Henry Dickie, M. A., ministers; and Messrs. T. C. James, Henry A. Stewart and Dr. McKay, elders.

Rev. Mr. Carr reported that he had, according to appointment, preached in Montrose, Elmsdale and Tignish, notified the congregation of the call to their pastor from Dalhousie, N. B., and cited them to appear at this meeting for their interests.

Messrs. David Gordon and Malcolm McLeod were received as commissioners from Mr. Fisher's congregation, and Rev. George McMillan and J. M. McLeod were received as commissioners for the Presbytery of Miramichi and the congregation of Dalhousie. The papers connected with the call having been read and the commissioners heard, the call was placed in Mr. Fisher's hands and accepted by him.

On motion, Presbytery acquiesced in Mr. Fisher's decision, and agreed that his pastoral connection with his present charge shall terminate on and after 24th inst., after which date he is hereby transferred to the Presbytery of Miramichi for induction into the congregation of Dalhousie.

Rev. Mr. Carr was appointed to preach in Montrose, Elmsdale and Tignish on 31st inst., declare the congregation vacant, and act as interim moderator of the Session.

Rev. Mr. Tufts was appointed convener of the committee on Systematic Benevolence instead of Mr. Fisher, resigned.

The augmentation committee reported that Mount Stewart and West St. Peter's, St. Peter's and Brackley Point Road had each attained the minimum stipend for their pastor, viz: $750 and a manse; and that Georgetown is moving in the same direction.

$280; for Covehead, $150, and for Georgetown, $200.

Rev. Mr. Tufts was appointed to preach at West Cape, on 24th inst., and Rev. Mr. Corbett on 7th April; Rev. Mr. Stewart to preach at Cardigan on 24th and 31st inst., and Rev. Mr. Scott to supply West Cape during the month of May.

J. M. McLEOD, Presbytery Clerk.

A GREAT GATHERING IN ST. JAMES' HALL—PARNELL'S SPEECH.

At a mass meeting held in St. James' Hall, London, on the 13th—Hon. John Morley presiding—Parnell was unable to speak for several minutes, owing to volleys of cheers and the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

These are very important words, coming from Mr. Parnell. They will, no doubt, produce a manifest effect upon public opinion in England.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY. FRIDAY, March 15.

Mr. Speaker in the chair. Hon. Mr. Ferguson submitted a report of the Special Committee appointed to receive tenders for printing the Journals of the House, recommending that the tender of Geo. W. Gardiner, being the lowest, be accepted, which was agreed to.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson submitted a report of the Special Committee appointed to receive tenders for printing the Debates, recommending that the tender of Geo. W. Gardiner, being the lowest, be accepted, which was agreed to.

Mr. Underhay, from the Special Committee appointed to prepare an address in answer to the Speech, presented the following, which was received and read:—

DRAFT ADDRESS. To His Honor the Honorable Andrew Archibald Macdonald, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR,— We, Her Majesty's loyal subjects, the House of Assembly of the Province of Prince Edward Island, desire to convey to Your Honor an expression of our thanks for the Speech with which you opened the present session of the General Assembly.

We feel that we have great reason for thankfulness to Divine Providence that Your Honor can, with sincerity and truth, congratulate us on the substantial prosperity of the Province.

We fully agree with Your Honor that we have great reason to be thankful that notwithstanding the gloomy apprehensions at one time generally entertained on account of the unusually wet and cold season, there was sufficient crop matured to leave an abundance for the use of the Province—after the usual exportation.

Realizing the importance of encouraging agriculture and other home industries, we assure Your Honor that any measure calculated to make our agricultural and industrial exhibitions more satisfactory and useful to all parts of the Province will receive our most earnest consideration.

We regret to learn that so soon after the very large outlay in proportion to the resources of the Province for the accommodation of that most unfortunate portion of our community, the insane, it is found necessary to call upon the people of this Province to make further provision for their accommodation; but fully realize our obligation to do all in our power to promote the comfort and lighten the burdens of the most afflicted portion of our fellow-countrymen.

It is gratifying to learn from Your Honor that the work of consolidating the statutes is progressing favorably—feeling that its completion must be anxiously awaited by every one having anything to do with administering the laws of this Province.

The several bills promised to be submitted will receive our careful consideration. We thank Your Honor for the promise to submit to us the accounts of the past year, and in deliberating upon the amounts asked for the service of the current year, we will do so with the full conviction that the amounts granted for the various departments of the public service will be expended to the best advantage in the interests of the Province.

On motion of Mr. Underhay, it was ordered that the draft address be committed to a committee of the whole house to-morrow.

Mr. Farquharson, in the absence of Mr. Yeo, asked if copies of the Draft Address will be furnished him, members.

Hon. Mr. Sullivan said some copies of the Draft Address would be prepared.

House adjourned until ten o'clock, to-morrow, in the forenoon.

M. R. H. S. By merry rhymes, in olden times. They told of things gone by, How men of yore, with patience bore Their ills without a sigh.

Poor Job, with toils from pains and boils, He no relief could have, As science old did not unfold The Magic Healer Salve.

Thrice happy we, who live to see The Magic star arise: For easing pain, the fact is plain, That Healer takes the prize.

A mother wise, doth now advise, Its virtue test and try This very day, without delay, A box of Salve to buy.

Sores new or old, from heat or cold, Like Magic they assail: While Healer pure will work a cure With Salve that does not fail.

If chaps or cracks, or cuts or licks, Or burns, your skin doth peel, By using right, in day or night, The Magic Salve will heal.
