

Personal—Gossip.

Hon. W. B. Vail is reported to be very ill, and it is said may be unable to attend to his parliamentary duties for some time.

A pleasant feature of the swearing in of the members, was that Sir Charles Tupper and his son were sworn in together, both holding the Bible at the same time. This is the first instance of the kind known of in a Canadian Parliament.

People who write or sew all day, or rather those who take but little exercise, may warm their cold feet without going to the fire. All that is necessary is to stand erect, and very gradually to lift one's self up upon the tips of the toes, so as to put all the tendons of the foot at full strain. This is not to hop or jump up and down but simply to rise—the slower the better—upon tiptoe, and to remain standing on the points of the toes as long as possible, then gradually coming to the natural position. Repeat this several times, and, by the amount of work the tips of the toes are made to do, in sustaining the body's weight a sufficient and lively circulation is set up. Even the half-frozen car-driver can carry this plan out. It is one rule of the "Swedish movement" system; and, as motion warmth is much better than fire-warmth, persons who suffer with cold feet at night can try this plan just before retiring to rest.

The Prime Minister has written a very remarkable letter to Professor Giambattista Ginolini, who has sent him a copy of his work on "Dante, Explained by Himself." In this letter Mr. Gladstone explains how great is his own debt to Dante in the following emphatic words:—"You have been good enough to call that supreme poet 'a solemn master' for me. These are not empty words. The reading of Dante is not merely a pleasure, a tour de force, or a lesson; it is a vigorous discipline for the heart, the intellect, the whole man. In the school of Dante I have learned a great part of that mental provision (however insignificant it may be) which has served me to make the journey of human life up to the term of nearly seventy-three years. And I should like to extend your excellent phrase and to say that he who labors for Dante labors to serve Italy, Christianity, the world." No doubt Dante served all three—Italy, by giving her (pagan as her genius was) something of his own severely Christian type of mind; Christianity, by bringing out the sublime imaginative aspects of that too dogmatically inculcated creed, and the world, by teaching it a new reverence at once for Italy and for the Christian intellect. Mr. Gladstone's own "severe and honest air," has often been remarked, but probably few knew till this week whence he had derived that air of burdened but passionate purpose which breathes all through Dante.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.
