

Could We But Know.

Could we but know
The land that ends our dark, uncertain travel, Where lie those hills and meadows low—Ah! if beyond the spirit's inmost cowl Aught of that country could we surely know—Who would not go?

Might we but hear
The hovering angels' high imagined chorus, Or catch, betimes, with wakeful eye and clear, One radiant vista of the realm before us,
With one rapid moment given to see and hear, Ah! who would fear?

Were we quite sure
To find the peerless friend who left us lonely, Or there, by some celestial stream as pure, To gaze in eyes that here were love lit only—This weary, mortal coil, were we quite sure, Who would endure?

Old Russian Sayings.

A father's blessing cannot possibly be drowned in water nor consumed by fire.

Roguary is the last of trades.
Every fox praises his own tail.
A debt is adorned by payment.

A good beginning is half the work.
When fish are rare, even a crab is a fish.

Every little frog is great in his own bog.

An old friend is better than two new ones.

Trust in God and do not stumble yourself.

Money is not God, but it shows great mercy.

Go after two wolves, and you will not catch even one.

The deeper you hile anything the sooner you will find it.

Be praised not for your ancestors, but for your virtues.

but rather the tears of the poor.

Novel Cure for Consumption.

Alexandre Dumas published once, in a daily Paris paper, a novel in which the heroine, prosperous and happy, is assailed by consumption. All the slow and gradual symptoms were not naturally and touchingly described, and the greatest interest was felt for the heroine. One day the Marquis de Dalome called on him. "Dumas," said he,
"have you composed the end of the story now being published in the—"
"Of course." "Does the heroine die at the end?" "Of course; dies of consumption. After such symptoms as I have described, how could she live?" "You must make her live. You must change the catastrophe." "I cannot."
"Yes, you must; for on your heroine's life depends my daughter's." "Your daughter's?" "Yes she has all the various symptoms of consumption which you have described, and watches mournfully for every number of your novel, reading her own fate in your heroine's. Now, if you make your heroine live, my daughter, whose imagination has been deeply impressed, will live too." "Come, a life to save is a temptation."
"Not to be resisted." Dumas changed his last chapter. His heroine recovered and was happy. About five years afterwards Dumas met the Marquis at a party. "Ah, Dumas," he exclaimed, "let me introduce you to my daughter; she owes her life to you. There she is."
"That fine handsome woman, who looks like Jeanne d'Arc?" "Yes, she is married, and has had four children."
"And my novel four editions," said Dumas; "so we are quits."

All that tract, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being on Lot or Town-ship number twenty-nine, bounded and described as follows, that is to say:—having a breadth of six chains fronting on Crappit Road or River and running back by parallel lines from the shore at right angles thereto for the distance of one hundred (100) chains, being bounded on the North-west by lands in possession of Robert Myers, formerly Thomas Myers, on the North-east by lands lately in possession of Alexander McQuarrie, now John S. McQuarrie, and on the Southeast by lands in possession of John S.
McQuarrie, and on the South-west by land in possession of John S. McQuarrie, containing sixty acres of land, be the same a little more or less, as the same is described in a certain deed dated the thirtieth day of November, 1879, made between Joseph Pope, then Commissioner of Public Lands, of the one part, and Neil McQuarrie of the other part.

ELECTRIC GLOSS.

FOR cleaning Solid Silver, Nickel, Brass, Copper and Plate Glass. Quick! Sure!
Permanent! No dirt, no trouble, no labor.
Being entirely free from grit and acids, it cannot injure the most finely polished surface. It is the only preparation ever produced that will polish brass or copper without the use of acid. Nothing approaches it for removing grease and finger marks from Brass, Copper, Glass, etc.; while for cleaning Nickel or Stoves it is especially useful.
Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.
MICA WASH.—This wash is the only thing of the kind ever invented. A stove may be as handsome as a jewel and shine like ebony; but smoked mica lights will spoil it all. Day by day mica becomes scouder and higher in price, and an article that will clean and preserve it is valuable to all concerned.
Try this wash once, and you will always use it. Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.

The above household necessities are manufactured by The Electric Gloss Co., Philadelphia, U. S. A., and sold by every respectable Druggist, Stove Dealer, Hardware Merchant and General Dealer in Canada. The Canadian

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness.
It is no worthless remedy, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pain." Gout cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.
