

THE TATTLER.

Mrs. John B. Henderson, wife of the senator from Missouri, is a strong advocate of woman's suffrage.

Mrs. Mallory, the 80-year-old mother of the senator from Florida, first heard of the election of her son while visiting her daughter in New Orleans.

Mrs. Anna Randall Diehl is president of the oldest Shakespearean club in the United States. It is composed of very progressive women of Brooklyn.

Vivien May Sartoris, who is about 17, has a fine figure, an oval face with rose tinted cheeks, hazel eyes, well defined eyebrows like her mother's, and dark brown hair with glints of gold through it.

Bonness Burdett-Coutts, who till her marriage at the age of 67 was the woman most talked of in England next to the queen, owing to her charities, has just celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday and is in excellent health.

Miss Grace Temple, the clever young decorator who did Mrs. Cleveland's house, is a Boston girl, living at Washington. She studied at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, and then taught two years in the art school of Cleveland.

Mrs. J. H. French has bequeathed a large sum to Beloit college on condition that vivisection shall never be practiced in any department. If the condition is violated, the money is to go to the American Humane Education society.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer, president of the P. W. L., has just been elected a member of the Academy of Immortals of East Aurora. Elbert Hubbard is president of this organization and Mrs. Jennie June Croly is one of the members. It publishes a magazine called The Philistine.

According to Phny, Lolita Paulina, the wife of Caligula, wore on her hand, arms, neck, head and waist pearls and diamonds to the value of $1,680,000. Faustina had a ring worth $200,000. Domitia possessed one worth $800,000, and Cassonia had a bracelet worth $400,000.

Mrs. McKinley, according to one of her schoolmates at Brooke Hall, did not care for music or art when she was young Miss Nation. Fancy work was her favorite pastime, and many hours when the other girls were romping on the seminary grounds she was busy with crochet or needle.

Mrs. Clara Fisher Maeder, the once famous actress, has published her memoirs. She is 86 years of age and first went on the stage when 6 years old. For 72 years she acted continuously, and at the age of 78 retired. She was at one time considered the best Shakespearean actress of her day.

Insanity In Summer

BROUGHT ON BY NERVOUS AND MENTAL TROUBLES

Paine's Celery Compound. The Great Tower of Safety.

Nervous diseases when aggravated by mental disturbances produce more cases of insanity in the hot weather than at any other season of the year.

Nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness and chronic constipation induce depression of spirits, extreme weakness, morbid fears, despondency and languor; from these dread insanity comes slowly and surely.

Nervous sufferers have a dread of hot weather. Finding themselves deeper in the pit of misery than they were in the spring and early summer they are in utter despair. Thousands whose cases have not been met by treatment they are now under a loudly calling for help.

There is hope and rescue for you, reader, if you are one of the sufferers. You are in need of Paine's Celery Compound, that great builder of the nervous system. Its vitalizing action commences with the first bottle you use. You soon begin to realize that you are daily drinking health. The volume of blood immediately increases in the arteries, and the body is fully fed and nourished. Your appetite becomes keen and natural, the tired nerves and brain are strengthened, and you feel impulses of health that cheer the soul.

The power of Paine's Celery Compound over nervous-summer diseases is admitted by tens of thousands who have used the marvellous medicine. This remarkable medicine will most assuredly meet your case and give you new life; it will lay the foundation for future happiness and long years. Weak, wretched and infirm reader, we counsel you to make use of this life-restorer at once, and enjoy the true blessings of health.

A Surprised Preacher.

When a clergyman in the course of his sermon asks a question, he doesn't expect any one to answer it. Should one of the congregation reply, the preacher would be as much astonished as was the minister of whom the New York Tribune tells this anecdote:

At a watch night service at St. Paul's church, Brixton, England, the vicar, the Rev. Carnegie Brown, was preaching a sermon on the Prodigal Son, in the course of which he said:

"Last year some people came to watch night service from a neighboring public house and some of them were drunk. Is there any one here like that tonight?"

"Yes," said a respectable looking man seated in the aisle, "I'm here, and I'm drunk."

The effect on the congregation was electrical. The preacher was startled for a moment, but after saying, "Poor fellow, poor fellow!" proceeded with his discourse.

"I tell you I'm drunk," said the intemper.

"Hold your tongue," said the vicar. "I am speaking now and must not be interrupted."

Knights of St. Lazarus.

At a very early period in the history of the Christian church a special order of knighthood was instituted, having for its object the care and supervision of all those afflicted with leprosy of every nationality, and, as its headquarters had originally been located in the vicinity of Jerusalem, the order was generally designated Knights of St. Lazarus, or of St. Lazarus and St. Mary of Jerusalem.

A Stayer.

"Aren't you getting gray about the temples?" he yawned after sitting there till after midnight.

"I presume so," she smiled wearily, "though there was not a silver thread in my hair when you called."—Detroit Free Press.

The great wall of China is 1,500 miles long and traverses high mountains, deep valleys and, by means of arches, wide rivers. The foundations and corners are of granite, but the principal part is of blue bricks. The last official account of the population of China gives a total of upward of 400,000,000.

The waste land of the United Kingdom, including mountains, heath and common, is estimated at 40 per cent.

An old sea captain of Long Island has proposed the unique scheme of equipping mortar batteries at life saving stations from which to throw bombs filled with petroleum to calm the waters raging around a wreck. Through the resulting smooth water and surf the rescue work would be comparatively easy.

A LETTER FROM

England's Most Eminent Artist.

of London, Ont., Dec. 17th, 1896.

Messrs. Heintzman & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I would like to tell you how much I appreciate, from an ARTIST' point of view, the very excellent Grand piano supplied to me for my concert in London, and the magnificent Grand that you furnished me for my concert in MASSEY HALL, Toronto. The tone is sonorous, the singing quality and sustaining quality just what we vocalists appreciate, and I feel that any one in quest of a really FIRST CLASS PIANO, cannot do better than secure a HEINTZMAN & CO'S PIANOFORT.

I am, dear sirs, faithfully yours,

R. WATKIN MILLS.

BINDERS, MOWERS AND RAKES

MAXWELL BINDER is recognized to be the best implement on the market. It is true only right hand cut, and also the simplest and surest knotting machine, never breaking twine.

MOWER.—The lightest cutting and strongest machine in heavy or light hay. Has all the best improvements—foot lifting spring, raising finger bar clear of all obstructions, stumps, roots, etc.

RAKES.—Tiger and Stied. These Rakes are fitted with the new steel wheel, having 26 teeth and solid steel axle. Also, angle steel bar to hold teeth. The teeth are set to rake, not to harrow the ground. They are the most perfect Rake made to-day. Inspection of those machines invited, or write us for prices.

Just a Minute

You may be busy; so are we, and have been all the Spring. So busy that we did not have time to advertise and tell you all the fine things we have for this season and the low prices we are selling for, but the people find us out, for it takes over forty people to keep the orders we get made up, so it keeps us moving to keep everything going right. But for those who do not know, we might say that we keep all the old reliable cloths such as Bellwarp Coating and Serges, Tyke and Blenheim Serges, Fashionable Trouserings to no end. Come and see us and see our stock and the fine clothes we make.
