Birthday Greetings
(By The Canadian Press)
To W. A. Hewitt, prominent amateur hockey official born in Toronto 80 years ago tomorrow. He is registrar-treasurer of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and secretary of the Ontario Hockey Association. A former sports editor of the Toronto Daily Star, he is also an official of Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto. In his youth "Billy" Hewitt was especially interested in hockey and baseball.

NEW SALES TAX HAS WIDE SCOPE

(By The Canadian Press)

EDMONTON, May 13 — Alberta's new sales tax is going to catch people both coming and going. Neither baby clothes nor coffins will be exempt from the levy.

A possibility that coffins could be listed for exemption as "commodities purchased by a cemetery company or society" was denied by Provincial Treasurer Charles Cockroft. These people, he said, deal only in real estate.

NORTHERN LIBRARY HAS 200 MEMBERS
(By The Canadian Press)
PEACE RIVER, Alta. May 13 — The Peace River public library in its first winter of operation attracted 200 subscribers and issues an average of 300 books a week during the winter months.

The library, believed to be the northernmost in Canada, is sponsored by the Alberta provincial chapter I. O. D. E. A librarian has been appointed and most of the 1700 volumes on the shelves have been donated by libraries, institutions and individuals across the Dominion. In addition ten boxes of books from the library have been distributed at outlying points in the northland.

Chartered Accountants Office Opened

Messrs. Lloyd, Egan & Co., chartered accountants of Halifax, N.S., announce today in another part of this issue the opening of an office at 140 Richmond St. This large Halifax firm enjoys an enviable reputation in its home city, and offers to Charlottetown, for the first time, the services of a resident firm of chartered accountants.

The resident manager is to be Mr. D. F. Archibald, B. Com. Mr. Archibald, in addition to his regular duties, has been professor of accounting at Dalhousie University for the past two years, and is capable of offering a complete service to Charlottetown. In addition, he will have access to the Halifax office of the firm, and can have a large staff in Charlottetown on a day's notice.
