IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LORNE COLES The death of Mrs. Lorne Coles occurred at her home on North River Road on January 23, 1958. She was in her fifty-eighth year. Although she had been aware of the seriousness of her illness for several months, she remained calm in spirit and endured suffering with true Christian fortitude.

She was a daughter of the late Ambrose Sentner and Fannie (Leard) Sentner and was born in Loyalist, P.E.I. At an early age she moved with her parents to Brookfield where she attended the district school. After graduating from the Charlottetown Business College she worked for a number of years as a stenographer. In 1923 she married Lorne Coles and they resided in Milton until 1945 when they moved to Charlottetown. Her marriage was a most happy one and her husband's death in May, 1956 was a great shock to her.

Near relatives left to mourn her passing include a sister, Janie, Mrs. Murdoch MacSween of Brookfield; a niece, Mrs. Parker MacPhee of Hampshire; two nephews, Horace MacSween of Toronto and Ian MacSween of Brookfield; also a stepmother, Mrs. Constance Sentner of Brookfield.

The funeral service was held on Sunday, January 26 in Zion Presbyterian Church where she had been a faithful and devoted member. The service was conducted by her pastor, the Reverend W. Harold Brown who was assisted by the Reverend A. E. Piercy, of St. John's Anglican Church, Milton. Reverend Mr. Brown spoke feelingly of the strength of her Christian faith and the gentleness of her personality. The choir led in the singing of "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "In The Sweet Bye and Bye." Mrs. Harold Stead and Mr. Wendell Phillips rendered a duet, "God Will Take Care of You."

The large attendance at the service and the many beautiful floral tributes were indicative of the fact that Aletha Coles had a wide circle of friends.

The pall bearers were: J. A. Carruthers, J. C. Cooke, A. Walthen Gaudet, Cyrus MacNeill, Elmer MacRae and Randolph Manning.

Interment was in the Milton Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The relatives of the late Mrs. Lorne Coles wish to thank those who cared for her during her illness and those who sent flowers and messages of sympathy when her death occurred.
