

CAMEO THEATRE

KENSINGTON

Wednesday-Thursday 7:15-9:15. See Kathryn Tracy and Katharine Hepburn as "PAT AND MIKE" in the riotous story of a promoter and a lady athlete. A good story with romance, fun and drama—with sports on the side.

Tignish Shore Hold School Closing

Closing exercises of Tignish Shore School were held on June 29 with Mr. Ben J. Pitre presiding. An excellent program was carried out by a class of 40 pupils. The schoolroom was filled with parents and visitors.

Grading certificates were presented by Mr. E. J. Arsenault, Secretary of Trustees. The prizes were presented by the chairman of Trustees.

Mr. Gilbert Gaudet of Woodstock was the guest speaker. He addressed the parents and children in both French and English. The teacher in reviewing the years work congratulated his pupils and encouraged them to continue their education in the future.

Mr. A. J. Pitre thanked the teacher and pupils for the very fine program which had been so well carried out.

Turner-Donald Wedding

—Mulberry Lodge, Summerside, P. E. I., was the scene of a pretty wedding on June 24, at 12 o'clock noon, when Rev. John M. Sheen united in marriage Jean Adelaide, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Donald, Alma, and Frederick Keir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Turner, Winsloe. The wedding music was played by Mrs. John M. Sheen.

For her wedding the bride chose a street-length dress of pink nylon lace over taffeta with matching flower hat and accessories. She carried a nosegay of pink and white mixed flowers.

The bride's attendant was her sister Isabel, who wore a street-length dress of turquoise lace over taffeta. Her nosegay was of yellow and pink snapdragons. The groomsmen were Mr. Heath MacLean of Winsloe.

Tignish Shore

—Hon. James Sinclair, Minister of Fisheries, accompanied by Hon. Mr. MacNaught, paid an official visit to Tignish Shore on June 18. He addressed the fishermen briefly concerning a rehabilitation plan.

—BI

Among the recent visitors at Tignish Shore School were Rev. J. A. MacDonald, Rev. Denis Gallant, Miss Marie Bowness, Director of Red Cross, Rev. Sister St. Raymond, C. G. M. and Rev. St. Peter Marie, C. G. M., of Holy Angels Convent.

Mr. Henry Pitre, who has been vacationing at his home with his aged mother, Mrs. Joseph Pitre.

Mr. Ralph DesRoches, a former resident of the district, was a recent visitor at the Shore.

GOOD FISHERIES

OSLO, Norway (CP)—The spring

fisheries off northern Norway made up for the failure of last winter's Lofoten cod fishing industry. Up to mid-June the cod and haddock fisheries showed a catch of about 49,000 tons, or 8,500 more than the same time last year. The winter

Lofoten cod fisheries totalled 50,000 tons, nearly 36,000 tons less than the previous winter.
