FREEMAN'S CASE.
One Particularly Interesting to Women as it Deals with their Troubles.

LEAMINGTON, Jan. 7.—It has been a cause of wonder to many people why we will neglect the first symptoms, and continue to suffer from ill health, and from debility, when the means of relief can so readily be obtained. Before a cure can be directed the work of the kidneys must be restored, the blood cleansed of poisonous matter, and the ligaments and muscles strengthened and invigorated. The history of the case of Miss Nettie Freeman, of this village, whose life was saved by Dr. J. C. Freeman's Kidney Pills, has had one beneficial effect in that it has raised scores of other women in this locality from the false security they were maintaining, and has resulted in the sale of Dr. Freeman's Kidney Pills in enormous quantities, and the resultant good commune-tarierthwith.

Mayor Stong in his annual message states that the net fiscal debt of New York city is $14,976,830, an increase of $8,316,413 during 1894.

With Invalids.
Yes! with invalids the appetite is enfeebled and needs coaxing, that is just the reason they require so rapidly and so Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.

There is no clearfulness in the world that equals that of an amateur in responding to an encore—Globe.

Kidney Facts.
In Jan., 1892 my son was taken with Kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate of grew worse and by 31st had fallen from 135 lbs to 95 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Freeman's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In 4 months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of this medicine. Jno. S. Hastings, 23 St Paul St., Montreal.

Dr. Canan Doyle tells his London friends that he cleared the sum of $10,000 by his recent lecture tour in America. In this connection he likewise tells them that this is a great and glorious country.

That tickling cough is instantly relieved by using Hawker's Laxative of Tolu and wild cherry.

Little Willie—Was going fishing Sunday last. My papa went with him.
"Did you, Sunny?—That's the right kind of a papa to have. Did he tell you the reason why?"
"Well—Yes, sir. He said there wasn't laugh enough for two."

No one need pity you if you die of consumption, without having tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary diseases.
Every bottle warranted. No only taste like others. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00, at druggists.

"Have you forgotten something?" quoth Cissy Loftus to the New York interviewer, who was about to take his departure.
"Oh, yes," said he, "what are your impressions of America, anyway?" That studied up feeling in the head is in steadily relieved by using Hawker's catarrh cure.

"I thought you told me that Miss Brown had spent a great deal of money on her hair."
"Well, so I did."
"But she can't sing."
"Well, I didn't say that she could, did I?"—Truth.

Priestley's Dress Goods
A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained a general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add to an unequalled durability, a beautiful draping quality. Women of taste understand what that means in the success of a costume.

See that the goods you buy are stamped "every five yards with 'Priestley's name.'" No others are of their manufacture

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

recommend it as superior to any prescription I know to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 Co. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have access to it at the dispensary, we are glad to supply it, and we are free to confess that the merit of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

NATURAL HISTORY TALKS.
A Queer Little Animal With Very Queer Little Eyes.
There is a queer little animal called the chameleon which has so many odd things about him that it would take a long story to tell them all. First there are his eyes.
They are very large and round and stick out like big beads from the side of his head. And he has the ability to turn them in all sorts of different ways, so as to see all about him. He can turn one up and the other down, or one forward and the other back, and so see the smallest insect in any direction. It cannot escape those wonderful eyes when the chameleon is looking about for a dinner.
The skin of the chameleon is loose and he can swell it out into queer shapes, and he has some peculiar property of this skin whereby he can change it from one color to another, generally becoming the color of the tree or ground upon which he is walking. Then his feet are of such peculiar shape that he can easily hold on to the branches of the trees upon which he is walking. And in this business of climbing and walking trees he is much assisted by his tail, which is long and prehensile like a monkey's, enabling him to hold on while climbing from branch to branch.
The chameleon has also a queer tongue.
It is nearly as long as his body, thin and sticky. Whenever he perceives a good fly or bug he darts out this long, fangy tongue and captures his dinner without turning from the spot where he stands.
This strange little animal lives in Africa.
For many years it was known as the lim, but on account of his odd traits and queer habits very curious stories were told about him in the olden times. And the little fellow himself was regarded with an abstruse awe, just because nobody understood him.

The Queen's Bath in Madagascar.
Since the great African island has lately caused a great deal of talk it will not be uninteresting to give some account of the strange economy practiced at the Madagascar's national festival every year, as related by nearly all the travelers who have visited the land of the Hovas. The "Faudroun" or royal bath, was first instituted by King Radama, and is held annually by royal proclamation, from the 23rd of November to the 19th of January. During this time no business is allowed to proceed. The people of the kingdom meet the Queen in the Silver Palace on the first day of the festival, and a red cock is then sacrificed by the head priest or sacrificer of the Court. Its neck is wrung, and its blood, being caught in a banana leaf, is carried to the Sovereign, who touches with it forehead, neck, stomach, armpit, finger nails and toe nails. The rest of the assembly follow the example.

Next the people assemble again for the royal bath in the great palace. This the Queen takes in one of the sacred corners of the hall, in a silver bath, being screened from the "lambo," held by her attendants.
Amid the firing of cannon and the joyous shouts of her humble subjects, Her Majesty then passes along the balcony and from a horn in her hand sprinkles the crowd with the water she has just been using for her ablutions, exclaiming at the same time, "Mesta, ah!" (I am purified).
This sprinkling is said to typify an abundant rain during the coming year.
Next the economy would be to incur the royal displeasure, so that the French Consul-General Minister himself, M. de Myre de Vilers, who is now on his way to Madagascar, had to submit himself, in 1887, to this strange ordeal.
Every wife, alas, must be with her husband at the time, or it is considered that his good name is forever ruined. The next year it then appeared to have been, and for several weeks there is a great deal of visiting and feasting.—Tit-Bits.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895
HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately and extensively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.
The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Centennial and the China-Japanese War and the amount of light it was able to throw upon the instant attention was directed to this little known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources.
Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and contributor, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustration.
During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial column, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features.
This Boy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department of the WEEKLY—There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—"The Red Cockade," a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled "The Son of His Father," by Blander Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.
