Canzoneri Stands To Lose Title If He Fails To Meet Ambers; Jacobs In Wrong

(By Eddie Brietz, Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, July 28—(AP)—It appeared tonight that the world's lightweight crown will be begging for a wearer within a week.
The New York State athletic commission threatened today to declare vacant the title now held by Tony Canzoneri, if Tony failed to fill a scheduled championship date with Lou Ambers Aug. 6. A request by Canzoneri for a third postponement of the much-kicked about fight was flatly denied by the commission.
Sammy Goldman, Canzoneri's manager, declared later he positively would not let Tony go into the ring next week.

"We'll not take any action until Aug. 6, of course," Chairman John J. Phelan said. "We've ordered the fight for Aug. 6 and if it isn't held we can declare the title vacant and let Ambers fight it out with somebody else."
Canzoneri told the commission he needs more time to get in shape.
The commission came up with a real bombshell when it revoked the license of Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling and one of the best known fight managers in North America.
Chairman Phelan said it was "for the best interests of boxing," then explained Jacobs has repeatedly refused to file with the commission a copy of his contract with Schmeling.

IMPORT SUFFERS INJURY

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
SYDNEY, N. S., July 28—A week after he came from North Carolina to play for Sydney in the Cillibery Baseball League, Felix Stirewalt broke his leg today while aiding into third base. He was helping Sydney defeat the second-place Sydney Mines Ramblers 2-1 when the accident occurred.
Another import from North Carolina, "Lefty" Wilson, made his first appearance on the mound for Sydney today and held the Ramblers to four hits while striking out 15 batters.
Dominion Hawks lengthened their lead to three and one-half games on their home diamond by defeating the last-place New Waterford Dodgers, 2-1.

Perry Defeats Crawford In Straight Sets After Quist Had Evened Up Series

(Canadian Press Cable by Guardian's Special Wire)
WIMBLEDON, England, July 28—Great Britain successfully defended her Davis Cup tennis title today with a three-matches-to-two conquest of Australia in the challenge round. The invincible Fred Perry disposed of Jack Crawford in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 after Adrian Quist had kept the Aussies in the hunt by defeating Britain's No. 2 player, Henry W. "Bunny" Austin 6-4, 3-6, 7-5, 6-3, in the final two matches.

Britain thus extended her supremacy in Davis Cup competition to four years in a row, the best consecutive showing she has made since 1903-06.
Australia fought a gallant uphill battle with two men carrying the entire burden of play in her effort to wrest the cup from the defenders. Crawford lost to Austin and Quist was defeated by Perry in the opening singles matches.
But the same antipodean pair came back to take the doubles from the British pair, Charles Tuckey and Pat Hughes yesterday and the victory of Quist, the Aussie champion, over the stylist Austin in today's first match tied the count at two-all.

It was Perry who stood between the Australians and their first chance at the title since 1924.
Perry played at the top of his form to defeat Crawford in the deciding match. The Australian did his utmost to cope with the British sweeping drives and his mastery of the entire court. It was a losing fight.
A crowd of 17,000 waited until nearly two hours after scheduled starting time for rain to permit play.

At the close of the competition, Princess Helena Victoria presented the cup to the British team. Dwight W. Davis, donor of the famous trophy, also took part in the presentation ceremony.
Quist said after his victory over Austin that Clifford Sproule, the non-playing captain of the Australians, had pulled him through with encouragement from the sidelines after frequent footfalls in the second set had temporarily thrown him off his game.
Austin's tribute to his conqueror was: "He was too good for me today."
Perry broke through Crawford's service in the opening game of each of the three sets. He frequently stormed the net to blast Crawford's returns home. The Australian carried many games to a deuce.

Austin made a promising start in his match with Quist, taking the first three games. But he dropped six out of the next seven, allowing Quist to win 6-4. To take advantage of Quist's footfalls for a victory in the second set but then his customary length and accuracy both disappeared and the Australian champion took two sets in a row for victory.
Perry was in his most brilliant form and gained an easy victory over Crawford. The Briton varied his pace, direction and length judiciously and frequently had the Australian beaten with fine backhand volleys.
In the first set Perry took Crawford's service in the first game. He held his own after four deuces and led 2-0. Smashing brilliantly he took the fourth game to lead 3-1. Crawford struggled gallantly against heavy odds, deceiving many games. He won the fifth game then dropped the next three to give Perry the set.

A lucky ball which hit the net and bounced across enabled the Briton to break through Crawford again in the first game of the second set. He led 2-0, then 3-1. Crawford won behind his own service in the fifth game. Then Perry moved ahead to 5-3 and broke the Aussie's service in the ninth game for the set.
In the final set Perry again took Crawford's service in the first and third games and led 5-1. The former Australian champion rallied to make it 5-3. Perry broke through Crawford again in the ninth and final game. He set was marked by a series of long rallies.

Superiors
Defeat 8th Battery
Superiors fought their way into second place in the standings of the City Softball League last night when they defeated the 8th Battery squad 18-17 in a thrilling encounter.
At times very loosely played the game nevertheless was not decided until the ninth when the Battery saw a great comeback attempt go for naught after they had come within an ace of tying the count.
The tying run was on base with two out but Superiors came through to retire the side on a very close play at first base.
Superiors garnered eighteen hits during the tilt compared to the losers 17, but their blows were better bunched and they piled up a commanding lead in the first six innings that proved too much for the Army team to overcome.

First Night Tennis On Thursday

Prince Edward Island's first night tennis matches will be played Thursday at Holy Redeemer courts, where a new lighting system making possible after-dark play has been installed.
A grand bingo party, exhibition tennis matches, and speeches by prominent Charlottetown men will mark the official opening of the electrically illuminated courts.
Early this summer officials of Holy Redeemer Tennis and Volleyball Club decided to give its members an opportunity of enjoying tennis and volleyball under powerful and properly-focused lights. Despite the many obstacles which confronted them, they finally succeeded, and on Thursday night at 8:30, they will open their courts to the public of this Province.
Realization of this venture marks another step forward taken by the young people of Holy Redeemer Parish.
The new lighting effects, together with improvements on the courts, makes these grounds second to none in the Maritime Provinces.
For complete details of the varied program prepared for Thursday night, attention is directed to the display ad which appears on this page.

9 Entries For Boxing Tourney

Nine entries had been received yesterday for Charlottetown's "Island hopes" boxing tournament which is to be held August 7 to select an opponent for provincial heavyweight champion George Leslie.
The "hopes", all tipping the scales at more than 170 pounds are: Delphy Kelly of Bear River; Charlie Gardiner, Launching; Morley McDonald, Dunstaffnage; unnamed St. Peter's pugilist; John Trainor, Kirkora; Jimmy Gormley, Peakes Station; Eddie Longmire, New Zealand; Bill McInnis, Souris; Bob Steele, Norris Point.
The biggest tournament entrant is Morley McDonald who is 185 six feet, two inches tall and weighs 185 pounds.

Max Baer Saves Father's Life

OAKLAND, Calif., July 28—Max Baer, former heavyweight boxing champion, was credited today with aiding in saving the life of his father, Jacob Baer, by giving him the blood for a transfusion after the elder Baer suffered a nasal hemorrhage.
Treatment failed to check the bleeding and the boxer's mother submitted to three transfusions. The elder Baer still was weak from loss of blood when Max and his brother, Buddy, returned home Sunday from a barnstorming tour.
Sources here disclosed Max provided the blood for a fourth transfusion and the father showed marked improvement.

ONLY UPSET COMES IN DOUBLES PLAY

Prince Edward Island closed tennis tournament moved forward today despite unsettled weather. First round of the mixed doubles was played and first round of the men's doubles which had started yesterday was completed. Ladies' doubles play progressed in the second round, while the second stage of the men's singles was played.
Favorites continued victorious in practically all divisions. Only upset produced in the day's play was in the men's doubles where the strong combination of G. Irlam and A. Matheson was defeated by M. Owen and S. Dickson.
A feature of the second day's matches was the return to the courts of Stuart Dickson, Charlottetown champion for three years in a row. In action for the first time this year, the clever Charlottetown tennis player was victorious in three matches. He won two in the men's singles division, one of them by default, and in the men's doubles with M. Owen, survived a hard battle against the favored Irlam-Matheson team.
In mixed and ladies' doubles matches, defending provincial champion tournament champion, Miss Eleanor Bourke, came through. Teamed with Charlottetown champion M. Morris in the doubles, Miss Bourke had no trouble in second round play.

Yankees Pound Tiger Hurlers For 16-6 Victory; Cleveland & Boston Win

NEW YORK, July 28—Yankees' "murderer's row," paced by Lou Gehrig's 31st homer, went on its biggest rampage in nearly three weeks today at Detroit and walloped the Tigers 16-6.
Gehrig's homer, two doubles and a single; four singles by Tony Lazzeri; three each for Joe DiMaggio, Myril Hoag and Red Rolfe, and George Selkirk's four-bagger were outstanding in the 20 assorted hits the Yanks collected off Tommy Bridges, Vic Sorrell and Clarence Phillips to hold their nine-game American League lead.
A freak homer by Goose Goslin, on what should have been an ordinary outfield fly, featured the "Tigers' attack as they clubbed Monte Pearson off the mound only to fall foul of Jimmy Murphy.
DiMaggio and Hoag, running after Goslin's fly to right centre in the sixth, collided. Both were knocked out, the ball rolling away. Goslin circled the bases. DiMaggio remained in the game, but Hoag went to the showers with a minor neck hurt.
At Cleveland, Earl Averill rapped out his 18th and 19th home runs of the season and Odell Hale got no. 10 as the Indians took a 6-3 victory from Washington Senators.
In the third inning Averill sent his first homer over the right field screen. Hale hit one into the left field bleachers in the fifth and Averill immediately added another over the right field screen. The bases were vacant each time.

Hal Trosky ran his hitting streak to 23 consecutive games, and Roy Weatherly ran his to 20.
John Marcum, Bill Werber and John Kroner were three important cogs in the Boston Red Sox 5-2 victory over Browns at St. Louis.
Marcum held the Browns to six hits, one of them pinch hitter Pepper's home run. Werber and Kroner drove in all the Boston runs, Kroner with a base cleaning double in the third and Werber with a home run with Kroner on base in the sixth.
The victory evened the series at one game each.
At Chicago, White Sox ended their four-game losing streak to day by pounding Carl Doyle and Stewart Plythe for 20 hits and a 16-6 victory over Philadelphia Athletics.
Bill Dietrich, bespectacled right-hander who gave 10 hits in making his first start as a Chicagoan himself led the attack on his ex-players with four singles. Luke Appling and Mike Kreevich each got three singles.
The Sox got 16 hits and a 15-2 lead off Doyle before Connie Mack finally excused him in the fifth.
