MRS. MCINTYRE'S FUNERAL MONDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Ann McIntyre, announced to take place today, has been postponed until Monday, awaiting the arrival of her daughter from Montreal. The funeral will take place Monday morning at 8:45 from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James Garnham, 58 Victoria Ave., to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, thence to the R. C. Cemetery.

The Provincial President and the Provincial Commissioner took part in the church parade, Mr. Murray going to Trinity United and Mr. Morris to St. Dunstan's Basilica.

His Honour Lt. Gov. DeBlois, accompanied by members of his staff in uniform, took the salute at a point near the public library.

It was good to see Mr. Murdoch Ross and Mr. Colin Moore, members of Zion group committee, on parade with the boys.

An inspiring sermon on "The Feast of the Ascension" was preached at the Basilica by Rev. Father Dalton.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

Section 9 of the City By-law relating to dogs prohibits dogs being on or about the streets of the City unless in the immediate company, or under the control of owners or competent persons, and provides that all dogs at large shall be taken by the police and only delivered to the owners upon payment of $2.00 forfeit in addition to possible fine for infraction. It provides further that dogs habitually at large or difficult to take may be destroyed.

Owing to general complaints of nuisance and depredations the police have been instructed to enforce rigidly the foregoing provisions commencing on June first. Dog owners should take warning and should enquire at the police station if their dogs are missing. Dated at Charlottetown May 29th, 1936.

Play Competition Preliminaries Are Completed

Marshfield—Dunstaffnage and Charlottetown Young Peoples unions competed in East Fitzroy Hall last night in the final preliminary presentation of the One Act Play Competition.

Charlottetown, presenting "The Bishop's Candlesticks" under the direction of Miss Margery Hicks, was adjudged the winner and thus becomes entitled to enter the finals in Heartz Hall, Charlottetown, on Tuesday next. A. J. Haslam, Charlottetown barrister, in presenting the judges' decision for Mrs. F. Holl Trainor and himself, stressed the difficulty in judging plays when they are of nearly equal merit and constructively criticized each performance.

Four one-act plays have now emerged from the preliminaries and will be seen in competition June second; they are: "Dundas" "The Whirlwind," York's "The Jeweled Hand," Cornwall's "Husband Wanted," and Charlottetown's "The Bishop's Candlesticks."
