

Vic Wertz Named As A.L. 'Comeback Of The Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—Vic Wertz, whose recovery from a sometimes crippling disease gave renewed hope to similarly-afflicted thousands, made the American League comeback-of-the-year in 1956.

Of 105 of the 178 members of the Baseball Writers Association of America participating in the annual Associated Press Poll.

The Cleveland first baseman regained his position as one of the game's outstanding sluggers last season by walloping 32 home runs and driving in 106 runs.

BATTED .264

Wertz, although he batted only .264 last season picked up the power slack caused by the lumps of Al Rosen, Al Smith and Bobby Avila.

After only two weeks in a hospital, however, Wertz returned to his home in Detroit. His recovery was quick and in March he reported to Cleveland's spring training quarters in reasonably good shape.

'I'M LUCKY'

"I'm lucky I had the non-paralytic type of polio," he said. "I just hope I have a good year to show others they can fight their way back."

"People can beat this thing if they catch it in time. The most important thing is to check with their doctors right away if they get the symptoms."

Wertz is 31-year-old and a native of York, Pa.

He has a lifetime batting average of .278 with 190 home runs and 832 runs batted in. He started his career against the Giants, batting .500 while collecting eight hits in 16 times at bat.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Lloyd Palmer, who is well known to many friends here, writes us from MacDonald College, Quebec, asking for registration forms which he will complete for his filly out of Paper Girl. This reminds us that all parties having colts or fillies to register should do so at once as the $5.00 fee for other than weanlings expires December 31st.

company as the boys are coming and going from the track at all hours and keep me posted as to what is going on. They have had some good racing here despite the cold weather and some fast final miles have been stepped. The final race will be on November 10th. The racing situation has certainly changed here the last couple of years. Now they have a real good class of horses and every race you win you really have to go for your life. It is surprising how the crowds hold on even if the weather is cold. Thanks, Blair, all your friends will be glad to read the good news that you are getting along so nicely.

STILL RACING

They are still racing in Cape Breton and our latest report from there is dated Oct. 31st. On that night the pacer Linda Counsel won races 2 and 6, both in 2:14. She was driven by her new owner Horace Lovell of River Ryan. Her former owner was George O'Donnell of Bay State Farm, Mass. Direct 5:2. Linda Counsel is a 10-year-old mare owned by Chief Counsel. She took a record of 2:08 2-5 in 1953 and in 1955 she won $1,192.50, making her total earnings $12,195. With allowances she was eligible to the 2:16 class this year.

Other winners that night were: Races 1 and 4: Roy Seniah (W. Lewis) 1-6, Alfreda Hal 3-1. Time, 2:23 1-5. 2:24. Roy Seniah is owned by George O'Donnell, Bay State Farm, Foxboro, Mass. Alfreda Hal is owned by Allen Lewis, Gloucester, Mass. Races 3 and 7: Shining Hour (W. Lewis) 1-5, Scotty Boy 2-3. True Linn 3-2. Time, 2:13 4-5, 2:14 1-5. Races 5 and 8: Colonel Hantford (J. Reid) 1-3. Hi-Lo's Kilt (D. MacDonald) 3-1. Lusty Hanover 2-4. Inkus-Truax 4-2. Time 2:18 4-5, 2:18 3-5. Colonel Hantford is owned by T. Reid, North Sydney, Hi-Lo's Kilt by Duncan MacDonald, Sydney.

The Empire Breeders Sale was held in the New York State Fair grounds at Syracuse, N.Y., on October 18th. Auctioneer David Chambers of Unadilla handled the gavel. A total of 143 trotters and pacers ranging in years from weanlings to 12-year-olds were disposed of here. Royal Pastime 202 4-5, a 9-year-old trotter by Royal Napoleon, dam, Surpass, winner of two firsts, three seconds and seven thirds in 1955 and $23,842.50. His total earnings were $111,786.75 and he sold for $2,050.

And here's another, Clancy Hanover 3, 2:08 2-5, a 4-year-old trotter by Dean Hanover, dam, Miss Clancy. He was five times first, four times second and six times third in 1955 with winnings of $3,844.25. He sold for $1,425, and another, Eddie D. Dale 4, 2:07 2-5, a 5-year-old trotter by Eddie D., dam, Roy Abbey. He had three firsts, two seconds and two thirds in his credit in 1955 with money winnings of $1,725 and total money won, $3,136.30. He sold for $600. The above were a few of the high priced ones. Top price of the sale was $2,000 for Rudabud, but there were a lot of colts and fillies that sold from $120 up. Probably, the nearness of the big sale at Harrisburg had something to do with holding prices down.

CAUSE OF FIRE

The cause of the fire which swept through Tattersalls' sales barn at Lexington, Kentucky, two weeks ago causing damages of over $70,000 has been found out. Two brothers, one six and one eight, admitted starting the blaze. Fire Chief Earle MacDonald stated that following long questioning by himself and members of the fire department the boys admitted they had used an oil drum to enter through an open window and then went to the loft where tons of hay were stored. They started a fire which they thought they could put out but it soon got out of hand and the building went up in flames. The loss of the barn is causing a great deal of inconvenience because of Tattersalls' annual sale, which will now be held at Keenland race course Lexington Kentucky December 4th 5th and 6th.

FAST TIME

Fast time continues a feature of the racing at Saint John Speedway. Last Saturday night the 6-year-old chestnut pacer Ben Brooke C. 2:11 1-5, record taken at Saint John this season, won the sixth and fastest dash in 2:11 4-5, an excellent performance at this season of the year. He was driven by Art Davidson and is owned by the D and R Stable, Saint John. Summaries are: Race 1, Federal Dawn (L. Queen) 1, Merlyn B. (E. Fillmore) 2, Time, 2:19. Winning owner, P. Bridges, Gagetown, Dash 2, Thea (L. Lang) 1, Hurry Duke Agard (H. Macintosh) 2, Time, 2:13 1-4. Winning owner, M. Downey, Saint John, Dash 3, Scott Frisco (L. Queen) 1, Oliver Chief (A. Davidson) 2, Time, 2:18 2-5. Winning owner, L. Queen, Coldbrook Dashes 4 and 7: June Lee Direct (E. Langille) 1-2, Senator Quay (L. Queen) 4-1, Earl Forbes of Hi-Lo (Lang) 2-4, Time, 2:14. 2:14 1-5. June Lee Direct is owned by E. Langille and Senator Quay by W. Douglas, Saint John, Dashes 5 and 6: Daniel Hal Scott (W. Carr) 1-7, Vanguard (M. Coughlan) 6-1, Josedale Double Hal (J. Lang) 2-3, Roy Scott (Kirk-atrick) 3-2, Time, 2:12 3-5, 2:12 1-5. Dash 6 - Ben Brooke C. (A. Davidson) 1, Top Royal (C. Wood) 2, Time, 2:11 4-5.

B. C. Squad Leaves Hoping Games Will Not Be Affected

VANCOUVER (CP)—The little British Guiana Olympic team left here Tuesday for Melbourne with a prayer that world events will not jeopardize the Games' success.

Dr. Phil Edwards, former Canadian Olympic star who manages the four-man British Guiana team, expressed the concern of many Australia-bound athletes and officials about the international situation.

"What can we do but hope and pray things will turn out all right," he asked. "Of course it is depressing, but we try not to think about it."

Dr. Edwards, who represented Canada in the 800 and 1,500 metres at three Olympics and never finished lower than sixth, was referring to the withdrawal of four countries from this year's Games and the threatened withdrawal of

Rare Treat Winner At Garden Park

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Rare Treat, four-year-old filly owned by George D. Widener, survived a four-mile race to win the $61,000 Vineyard handicap at Garden State Park Tuesday by a nose over Calumet Farm's Amoret.

Rare Treat, allowed to go off at 18-1 by the election day crowd of 38,484, moved into contention in the stretch and under the forceful handling of jockey Ray Mikkonen outlasted Amoret, ridden by the United States' leading jockey, Willie Hartack.

Hartack lodged a claim of foul against Mikkonen and Rare Treat, but the stewards ruled that C. T. Cheney's Manotick came out on Rare Treat, forcing the latter into Amoret. Rare Treat paid its backers the tidy sum of $38.40, $15.40 and $8.80 across the board.

Amoret, running as an entry with Miz Clementine, a second choice at 21-1, returned $4.20 and $1.20 while Manotick, finishing third, paid $6.40 for show. The winner was timed in 1:49.5 for the mile and an eighth closing day feature.

Two others because of world conditions.

VARIED PROTESTS Communist China pulled out Tuesday in protest against Russia's attack on Hungary. Switzerland and Norway are considering pulling out for the same reason.

Teams of a number of countries are passing through Vancouver en route by air to the antiopodes. The Canadian team leaves in two contingents of 65 members each—including athletes and officials—Saturday and next Tuesday.

Canada's team is working out twice a day for two hours at the University of British Columbia. The swimmers, who have been training in Victoria, will come to Vancouver Friday to join the team.

Coach Fred Poole of Toronto said the team is "very fit, especially the ones I have had working out at Toronto.

'56 Series Looms As Toughest For Eskimos Under Pop Ivy

The 40-year-old head coach came north from Oklahoma three years ago, took Eskimos to first place in the western conference, victory over Winnipeg Blue Bombers in the western playoffs.

Edmonton Eskimos have faced under coach Frank Pop Ivy, however, figures that's all a matter for conjecture, although he'll agree the series won't be easy.

"You never know about something like that," he said Tuesday as he prepared his club for the first game of the best-of-three final, opening Saturday afternoon at Regina.

Beliveau Takes Over Lead In N.H.L. Scoring Race

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens were the only National Hockey League team to make a clean sweep of points up for grab last week and along with the upsurging Canadiens went big Jean Beliveau to the top of the scoring parade.

The Montrealers, 1955-56 champions who got away to a shaky start this season, won all three games they played last week. The six points collected move them from fifth place in the NHL standing to a tie for third with Boston Bruins.

Beliveau scored two goals and four assists, and his six individual points boosted his total to 14, two more than Ted Lindsay of Detroit Red Wings.

The Wings had an even split in two games—their one loss to league leaders with 14 points. Montreal—and remained as Toronto Leafs also split two, losing in the final in good health. Ivy said only halfback Don Simon, suffering with a shoulder dislocation, will miss Saturday's opener. Otherwise, the club is in as good physical condition as it has been all season.

Holland, Spain, Red China Withdraw From Olympics

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—Olympic Committee. The Dutch decision was made known by Dr. J. Linthorst Homan, president of the Netherlands Olympic Committee in The Hague.

Instead of travelling to Melbourne, where the Games are scheduled to start on Nov. 22, the Dutch donated 100,000 guilders ($25,000) to Hungarian relief.

News of Red China's quitting came from the Peiping radio, heard in Hong Kong. Neither Mayer nor Melbourne officials had word from the Chinese, who said they were not coming to Games because Nationalist China had accepted a bid.

The Reds insisted there should be one team from their country as is the case in Germany.

FIVE DROP OUT

Originally, 74 nations accepted invitations to compete at Melbourne. Now five have dropped out in the last month. Egypt, lost before it was invaded by Israel, Britain and France, withdrew because it saw no prospects of winning medals.

After the invasion of Egypt, Iraq dropped out because of the unsettled conditions in the Middle East. Then the trio of withdrawals came Tuesday.

A Spanish Sports Federation of Real said in Madrid after Mayer's announcement that it was not fitting for Spanish athletes to engage in sports of Olympic character "while the liberty of peoples is being trampled on."

GEOFFRION OUTGUESSES ROLLINS

Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal was beaten six times by the Canadiens while his teammates were blanked by goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal.

Flying Curlers Travelling To Monte Carlo And St. Moritz

The Maritimes Flying curlers will be off again on January 16th for their annual flight to other parts of the world. Previously the curlers have been journeying to points in Canada and the United States but this year their trip will take them to Great Britain and to points as far away as Monte Carlo and St. Moritz, Switzerland.

The following is a summary of the curlers' schedule: Leave Moncton Jan. 16th and arrive in Preswick, Scotland, Jan. 17th.

Entertained at Glasgow by Curlers on the 17th and 18th. From the 19th to the 21st the curlers will be in Edinburgh and then it is a train trip to London where they will spend the 22nd and 23rd.

Arriving in Paris on the 24th some of the curlers will spend a day at St. Moritz while others pay a visit to Monte Carlo.

The curlers will arrive back in London on February 1st for a full week and on Feb. 8th will leave for Canada.

This evening on Moncton radio and T.V. the trip director J. Finley MacLeod, secretary of the P.E.I. Curling Association, and Dr. E.S. Giddings will be heard in a discussion of the trip at 6:15.

MINOR HOCKEY

Only activity in minor hockey today is a practice for the Queen Square School bantams this evening from 6 until 7.

Fred Driscoll's powerful Tigers are unbeaten in four games this year and have racked up a perfect record. They haven't been tied nor has anyone crossed their goal line. Game time today is 4 p.m.

Wertz, though he batted only .264 last season picked up the power slack caused by the lumps of Al Rosen, Al Smith and Bobby Avila.

Says Parkdale Addition Could Unbalance League

Some weeks ago the Prince Edward Island Hockey League passed a rule that no two of the players coming out the Atlantic Coast League could play on any one team was provision, tending to preserve the balance of a league whose teams last year were exceptionally well-balanced in power, and as a result played to big crowds all season. Even the Summerside Aces who failed to make the play-offs were a long way from being league doormats. They put close exciting games except on one or two occasions when they were minus a key player or two.

Jury or traded punches with that infamous Spanish pug, Kid Inflexa, Hennessey could take his place and keep the team at full strength while other teams might be weakened in important games when key players were unable to play. If B.Y.C. St. Dunstons Montague and the Aces agree to a proposition so strictly for the crows as this, then surely Barnum was right.

It seemed too bad that there were not five Atlantic Coast hockey players, one for each team. This would raise the brand of hockey and keep everything on an even keel. But there were only three. Then Buck Whitlock decided to cross the straits for hockey employment, and there were only Lorne Hennessey and Orin Carver left. Putting "only" before these two hockey players names is certainly no reflection on their hockey ability. They are certainly loaded with puck-pushing talent. Carver decided to line up with the Island champions which was a little like putting a horseshoe in Marciano's glove before he fought with Archie Moore, but it was all perfectly on the up and up, and quite natural that Orin should decide to join his brothers. There was still the hope that Hennessey would join one of the other teams and even up things a little.

We can't imagine why a league after making a rule aimed at keeping competition even should change it to make the strongest team in the league stronger than ever. Here is an explanation that has been going the rounds. Parkdale would like to be strengthened so that they will be better able to take on Maritime Clubs in the play-offs after they have won the Island Hockey League. This line of logic is a little far fetched, but it may be only those who before reading a detective story like to turn to the last chapter to find out who actually did stick the silver dagger into Lady Angela.

Then an agitation was started to change the existing rule so that Hennessey might join last year's champions also. This, if carried out, would look to be a flagrant piece of injustice. Even if Parkdale agreed to play the big boys on alternate nights, they would still be materially strengthened at the expense of the other clubs. If Carver suffered an injury, it would be a disaster for the Aces and their fans.

A lot of interest is being shown in this Pre-Christmas league. Albany and Freetown are in, Alton and New Amman are both knocking at the door. Perhaps it would be better under the circumstances of the R.C.A.F. and Junior Aces stayed out of the picture to make it a strictly rural league. No doubt a lot of these boys would be able to catch on with the other teams.

Coaches Debate The Pass vs. Split-T

Doug Walker, coach of the Montreal Alouettes, who lost the Grey Cup twice to Edmonton Eskimos, sticks to the forward pass as his offensive weapon. Frank Ivy of the Eskies sticks to the Split-T—and why not? Read their reasons in the sports feature—'Split-T vs The Pass' in this week's NEW Star Weekly. The paper that interests all the family.
