Quits When Ahead

Johnny Keane's resignation from the St. Louis Cardinals before the champagne on his lips was dry adds something new to a series which was unique in many ways. Keane is probably one of those fellows who likes to quit when he's ahead. It may be a wise move. It wouldn't surprise us if the Cardinals were struggling along in the wilderness of the National League next year as the Los Angeles Dodgers were this year. If he catches on with the Yankees, he'll probably be back in the World Series next fall.

Earlier Than Usual

EARLIER THAN USUAL

Charlie Hozan is getting his Civic Stadium ready for hockey earlier than usual this fall. He's ready to get ice in there in the very near future. There is nothing definite as to whether it will be an island league or a them best.

Song Of Victory

Following our rule of having a song for every Summerside Maritime championship team, we insert one here for Enman Drug, who won the Tri-Province crown in the senior "B" softball bracket. We think it will go fairly well to the tune of "Roll Out The Barrell."

Clarence Gillis sure can thrill us
When he grabs a texas leaguer,
And though batters may be eager,
Facing Lou White — hits are meager,
Jimmy Lahey — see the way he
Throws that pill from third to first base.
Toy-Toy Gallant's bat hits balls
a country mile.
Pete Devanna mows 'em down
like grain,
And Jim Jenkins runs like a freight train.
And catcher Earl Laperriere

Makes all base runners have a care.

CHORUS

Three cheers for Enman's
Maritime champs, senior "B".
Let's drink to Enman's
Six wins gave them victory.
Charlottetown and Moncton.
And last to fall was Glace Bay;
Give another cheer for Enman's,
May they long hold sway.

When they offered Spider Crawford
A fast ball he knocked it silly,
Down at second Coke's a dilly,
And Gunnie Gay, a tiger, lily,
Doug MacDonald—is no pygmy.
Does a fine job for a big "D",
And John McLaren can powder that old ball.
Tommy Stewart pitches in reserve,
And can throw a real deceptive curve.

With Reg MacGee and Ed Smith, too, with
This adds up to a bang-up crew.

Cliff Jackson, the football player of the year in Canada last season didn't look it in Saturday's game against the Ti-Cats. Jackson's completion percentage on forward passes was pretty small, and in most cases it was his inaccurate throwing that snarled up the plays, not fumbling by the receivers. The Ottawa coach said after the game his team was "outclassed". And that seems to be the word for it, even more than the 34-16 score would indicate.

Prince County circuit this year. When we heard that Charlottetown will be entering two teams, we rather favored the Island loop, but it is up to the sponsor, the management, and the players to decide which suits

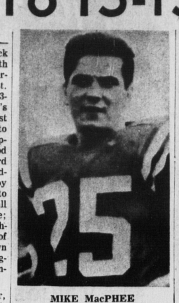
St. Dunstan's And Axemen Fight To 13-13 Stalemate

By CHARLEY McMILLAN

WOLFVILLE (Special) — Rallying behind quarterback Lorrie Schwartz in the fourth quarter, Acadia Axemen overcame a 13-0 deficit to tie St. Dunstan's University Saints 13-13 here Saturday. St. Dunstan's completely dominated the first half of the game, and even into the second half, but Acadia capitalized on their only two good chances to score. An 18 yard pass-run play by Keith Cadwell, a nine yard and run by Schwartz, and a quick pass to Tim Gilbert brought the ball down to the Saints' 12 yard line; and on the next play, Schwartz, a 19 year old native of Montreal, found a touchdown target in Jules Oliver, bringing the score to 13-6. The convert attempt failed.



MIKE MacPHEE

he pitched out to Ron Harrison around end, who carried to the fifteen. On the next play, falling back into the pocket for a pass, he found the route to the goal line unobstructed and promptly scampered over the line for the touchdown. Schwartz's second convert attempt tied the game at 13-13.

Three minutes remained in the game when the Saints received the last kickoff. On five downs they carried to Acadia's thirty, but the clock was running out fast. On the last play of the game, with the game tied, punter Dave Morton tried to boot into Acadia's end zone, but the ball landed on the goal line, and Harrison made five yards on the return.

St. Dunstan's led 7-0 at the half. The rushing statistics give an indication of how SDU dominated the play. Led by the 69 yard performance of Mike MacPhee, SDU gained exactly ten times that of Acadia, 120-12. St. Dunstan's threatened early in the game on a double reverse play that highlighted a 31 yard gain by Cyril MacDonald, but the play was cancelled out because of a penalty. They didn't come close again until mid-way through the second quarter, but even then, they almost failed. What happened was this: Vince Mulligan started the play when he recovered an Acadia fumble on a punt return. SDU carried down to the four yard line, but failed to make it across. After holding the Axemen for their three downs, Bruce Kinsella ran the punt to the four yard line and Mike MacPhee put the ball over on the second down. Jim Griffith made the convert good to give St. Dunstan's a 7-0 lead.

The Saints came out in the second half determined to increase their lead, and they did just that within five minutes. Almost that is. Big powerful Mike MacPhee, the outstanding player of the game, eluded five Acadia tacklers and ran 72 yards for a touchdown. But the play was nullified because of a clipping penalty.

This reversal appeared to take some of the steam out of the Saints, but they roared back for another touchdown in the fourth, and again MacPhee carried the ball, this time from the nine yard line. However, the kickoff on the convert try was blocked.

This touchdown gave St. Dunstan's a 13-0 lead, which seemed to be a sufficient margin considering the way the SDU backfield was rushing. Acadia did come back under Lorrie Schwardzt's leadership, much to the delight of the huge Acadia crowd.

Despite the great comeback of Acadia, it was the tremendous display by Mike MacPhee that highlighted the game. By the end of the game, he had carried 23 times gaining a total of 208 yards, 7 more than his last two games combined and more than double that of the whole Acadia team. But this total did not include 85 additional yards gained which were taken back because of penalties.

St. Dunstan's had 307 yards on the ground, 187 of which were picked up in the second half. However, penalties were the deciding factor in the game. SDU lost 100 yards on seven penalties, six for fifteen yards. One of these cost the Saints a touchdown, and another a chance to penetrate into Acadia territory.

BOSTON (CP) — Montreal Canadiens came from behind on goals by rookies Yvan Cournoyer and Claude Larose Sunday night to defeat Boston 3-1 in a National Hockey League game before 13,909 fans.

Cournoyer tied the game at 6:10 of the second period when his screened 18-footer fooled Ed Johnston and Larose sent Montreal ahead at 17:53 of the same period when he stole the puck and fired it into the far corner.

Howe gave the Wings, winnin their first game in three starts, a 2-0 lead with goals at 8:49 and 15:11 of the first period.

Colts Beat Packers; Win Fifth Straight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Colts blocked Paul Hornung's field goal attempt with less than two minutes remaining, then rallied for a last-minute touchdown that downed the Green Bay Packers 24-21 Sunday in a National Football League thriller.

The victory, Baltimore's fifth straight after an opening-game loss, kept the Colts atop the league's Western Division while dealing Green Bay's title hopes a severe jolt. The Packers now have split six starts.

The slumping Chicago Bears and New York Giants, last year's NFL champions and runners-up, respectively, were all but knocked out of the race when they each lost for the fourth time. The Detroit Lions shut out the Bears 10-0 and the Philadelphia Eagles held off the Giants 23-17.

Two touchdowns in the final half-minute of play carried St. Louis past Washington 38-24, enabling the Cardinals to hold a share of the Eastern Division lead. Frank Ryan connected Cleveland Browns, who came from behind on Bernie Parrish's 54-yard intereception runback for a 30-16 victory over Dallas, are tied for the top spot in the East at 4-1-1.

In Sunday's other games, the Los Angeles Rams bombed San Francisco 42-14 and the Minnesota Vikings trimmed Pittsburgh 30-10.

MISSED FOUR GOALS

Green Bay's Hornung, hampered by a pinched shoulder nerve that held him to four running plays, missed four field goal tries besides the blocked kick that Jerry Logan returned from his 30-yard line to the Packers' 34, setting up the winning touchdown.

Lenney Moore capped the climactic drive with a five-yard run after a pass interference call moved the ball from the 24 to the five. Moore also scored earlier on a 21-yard gallop.

Elijah Pitts had given the Packers a 21-17 edge in the fourth quarter by running back a punt 65 yards for a touchdown.

Milt Plum, who replaced injured Detroit quarterback Earl Morrall in the first quarter, hit Jim Gibbons on a 12-yard scoring pass and the Lions' hard charging defensive unit made it stand up. Wade Walker added a 43-yard field goal just before halftime. Morrall suffered a fractured right shoulder when snowed under by a Chicago pass rush and may be lost for the season.

Veteran Ollie Matson romped 54 yards for one touchdown and bulled four yards for another, pacing the Eagles' second season victory over the bogged-down Giants. Sam Baker booted field goals of 46, 45 and 10 yards. Matson's four-yard burst, following a gumble recovery came with the game only 35 seconds old.

In the American Football League San Diego bomber Denver 42-14.
