

Drunk Driving Charge Dismissed

A charge of driving while intoxicated against a resident of Georgetown was dismissed in Magistrate's Court Monday morning when defence Counsel Lester O'Donnell brought it to the attention of the court that the charge was mislaid.

Mr. O'Donnell pointed out that there was no evidence that the accused was driving at the time of his arrest from the back seat of a 1950 Chevrolet car. It was noted that a witness had seen the accused driving a late model Plymouth on the night of October 31st in Charlottetown six years prior to his arrest at Marshfield.

Mr. O'Donnell pointed out that the date on the charge should have read November 1st rather than October 31st.

Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet presided.
