Impressive Holy Week Services

During Holy Week three impressive and challenging services were held in Alberton United Church. All were based on the theme of Christ's consecration and sacrifice and presented a strong appeal for redemption and deeper consecration on the part of His followers.

On Monday and Wednesday the services were conducted by Rev. A. R. Wallis, the topics being "Lamb of God" and "To Beek And To Save".

The Good Friday service was conducted by members of the W. M. S. Auxiliary. Following the opening worship led by the president, Mrs. A. C. Green, a pageant "All For Christ" was presented.

The part of the evangelist was taken by Mrs. C. H. Weeks while those of six disciples were taken by Mrs. Wesley Hardy, Mrs. Alvin Wilkie, Mrs. Cyril Leard, Mrs. George Ramsay, Mrs. Winston Currie and Mrs. William Aubrey.

In turn, the disciples brought to the foot of the cross symbols of their education, wealth, time, housework, family and the power of prayer, to be consecrated to the service of Christ.

Special Easter Services In Summerside Churches

Special Easter services were held in all the Summerside churches yesterday with large congregations in attendance in all cases.

In the Presbyterian Church at the morning and evening services Rev. J. Donald MacKay based his sermons on the theme "Christ Is Risen".

A number of new members were welcomed into the church and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated. The organist, Mrs. Cleve Whelan, was in charge of the music and the anthems sung were "Green Pastures" by Wilfred Sanderson and "I Am He That Liveth" by Caleb Simper.

At the Church of Christ the music was under the direction of Miss Evelyn MacLure and was in keeping with the Easter Sabbath as was the sermons of the minister, Rev. W. O. Weal.

At St. Paul's Church the regular Sunday Masses were celebrated at 8:00, 9:30 and the High Mass at 11:00 o'clock at which the choir was under the direction of the organist, Mr. Gabriel Chaisson.

At Trinity United Church in the morning, the minister, Rev. C. D. Matheson, chose as the theme of his sermon, "He Is Risen" and in the evening "Cleophas Of Emmaus".

The music was under the direction of the organist, Miss Mary Geldart, and the morning anthem was "An Easter Song Of Praise" by Riemann.

The evening anthems were "Arise From The Dead", by Caleb Simper, during which the solo was taken by Mr. Hugh Patterson, and "This Joyful Easter Day" (Dutch carol).

At the Baptist Church during the morning service, Rev. Mr. Harper chose for the theme of his sermon "Roman Of The Infinite". The organist at the morning service was Mr. Peach. In the evening a pageant was given by the members of the Laura Bain Missionary Group, "The Challenge Of The Cross".

The pageant the minister gave an Easter meditation, "The Young People's Choir sang during the evening service and Mrs. Harper was the organist. -S.
