ADDRESS TO HIS EXCELLENCY.

On Saturday last, the 15th instant, at 12 o'clock, noon, a Committee of gentlemen waited upon His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, in the Legislative Library, and presented him with the following

ADDRESS :

To His Excellency GEORGE DUNDAS, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Island Prince Edward, Chancellor, Vice Admiral and Ordinary of the same, &c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY :—

According to the ordinary rules regulating the appointment of Colonial Governors, the period is rapidly approaching when your Excellency's stay amongst us as Her Majesty's Representative, must terminate. We therefore beg respectfully to convey to your Excellency an expression of our esteem for your personal character, coupled with deep regret at the anticipated severance of the official tie which has, during the last six years, united your Excellency with our interests,—a period unexampled in the history of this Colony for uninterrupted progress and general prosperity.

It may be thought selfish, and perhaps unreasonable, on our part, to hope for any arrangement which might interfere with your Excellency's promotion or return to your native land; yet we would rejoice to see amongst us, as the Representative of our beloved Queen, for a more lengthened period, a gentleman who, during his residence in this Colony, has become endeared to the community by the urbanity of his deportment, the impartiality of his administration, and the lively interest he has ever evinced in all that affected the welfare of the people among whom his lot has been cast.

Should our Most Gracious Sovereign commit to your Excellency the Government of this Colony for another period of six years, we beg to assure you that your re-appointment would be received by us with feelings of the most cordial satisfaction.

With fervent prayers for the continued welfare and happiness of your Excellency and your amiable Lady, we beg to subscribe ourselves,

Your Excellency's
most obdt. humble servants,
J. C. POPE, Pres. Executive Council,
R. HODGSON, Chief Justice,
SAMUEL NELSON, J. P.,
T. H. HAVILAND, Mayor,
EDWARD PALMER, Attorney General,
DANIEL BRENNAN,
GEORGE BEER, M. L. C.,
D. FITZGERALD, Chaplain L. C.,
M. RICHEY, D. D.,
JOHN LONGWORTH, M. P. P., M. E. C., and several thousand others.

REPLY :

GENTLEMEN,—No answer that I can return to your Address will sufficiently express the feeling with which I have received it. From my heart I thank you, and through you, all who have signed it, for the warm sentiments which it contains, and for the kind language in which it is couched.

During a residence amongst you,—prolonged already beyond the usual term of office,—I have watched with the deepest interest the increasing prosperity of this beautiful Island, and the development of its resources.

Within a few days it is my intention to proceed to England on a short leave of absence; should I be spared to resume my official position amongst you, be assured that my constant endeavors will continue to be directed to the promotion of the interests of this Island and its people.

When the period arrives at which my connection with the Colony must cease, I trust that I may feel that I am leaving it with the prospect of a prosperous and happy future before it.

In Mrs. Dundas' name, as well as my own, I thank you for your prayers for our continued welfare and happiness.

GEORGE DUNDAS.

Government House, July 14, 1865.
