4-H Club Girls Chosen To Represent P. E. I. At "Ex"

Thirty-eight girls headed back to their homes in various parts of Prince Edward Island Friday afternoon at the close of a 5-day course for 4-H garment and food club girls. Six of them were chosen to represent Prince Edward Island during 4-H Club Week at the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto.

Miss Theresa MacLeod, supervisor of the Women's Institute Division of the Department of Agriculture and her staff, conducted the course which covered various phases of home economics through lectures, discussion groups, handicraft sessions and recreation periods. Miss Audrey MacMillan, agricultural representative for Queen's County, conducted the recreation. Miss Doris Anderson, supervisor of home economics, Vocational School, acted as judge in the final competition which resulted in the selection of six members of the class to attend National 4-H Club Week at Toronto in November.

The girls chosen are: Polly England, West Royalty; Louise Gallant, Souris; Elizabeth Matheson, North Milton; Lois Moore, West Royalty; Anne Steele, Miscouche; and Phyllis Parker, North Wiltshire.

Glen Saunders Is Improving

The condition of Glen Saunders, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Saunders, North River Road, who is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital, is reported to be improving. The boy was struck by a car coming out of a driveway, and early reports said that he had received three cracked ribs, one of which was pressing on his left lung. The accident occurred shortly after one o'clock Thursday afternoon.
