BAD SPILL MARS CARD

Joe Hennessey Reins Five Winners At CDP

Joe Hennessey stole the show at Charlottetown Driving Park Saturday night.

The diminutive Irishman had three horses making five starts on the nine-dash program. Joe had a perfect average as he won all five of his starts.

Hennessey reined Doug Hill's Dominion Byrd to a double dash triumph in the feature open pace (early closer). The Hill-owned roan horse staged a great battle each trip with Greenbrier Farms, June Byrd, and managed the decision on each occasion. Best time was 2.09-2.

A bad spill marred the first trip of the feature, putting Hurrah, Santiago, Stalag Hanover and Armond's Buddy out of contention. Drivers were thrown and young Albert Blanchard, up behind Stalag Hanover, needed hospital treatment for a leg fracture.

Hennessey's greatest surprise came when he grabbed both dashes of the trot, outfooting favorites Poplar Flash and Stormy Song. Joe withstood a game challenge from Bill Boyle's Stormy Song, especially in the first meeting. The Song had gone to a break but trotted the last half in 1.02 to lose by a nose.

Ernie Spencer was Hennessey's other winner. Stan Mayhew's trotter took the night's single with a driving finish.

Other winners were Jack Annear's great four-year-old, True Long and Bill Boyle's Primo. Both had 1-1 summaries.

Best win pay of the night was $35.90 for Avalon Worthy in dash four. A combination ticket on the Johnston trotter was worth $51.40

The first daily double Ernie Spencer and True Long, paid $51.00, the second, Avlon Worthy and Primo $13.50. Primo and Cathy Girl combined for a quinella of $6.90, and the exactor, True Long and Boomtown was worth $6.40.

Yanks Club Red Sox 8-0; Reds Capture Twin Bill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Yankees, on a rampage, clubbed the upstart Boston Red Sox 8-0 Sunday for their third straight victory and 10th in their last 11 games.

In the National League, the Cincinnati Reds barged to within one game of the lead with a double victory over the punchless Houston Colts, 4-0 and 8-1, as the leading St. Louis Cardinals and the second-place San Francisco Giants faltered.

The Cards fell 4-3 to Los Angeles Dodgers, who moved to within 1½ games of the lead. Warren Spahn pitched and batted Milwaukee to a 10-4 decision over the Giants, who remained one-half game out.

Chicago White Sox, second-place club in the American League, split a doubleheader with Cleveland Indians and fell two games behind the leading Yankees.

WIN ON SINGLE

The White Sox won the opener 2-1 on rookie Pete Ward's two-run single in the eighth inning, but lost the second 2-0, as Barry Latman threw a five-hitter for the Indians.

Baltimore whipped Minnesota 4-1, Detroit dumped skidding Kansas City 11-2, and Washington snapped a 10-game losing streak by taking Los Angeles 4-0 behind Tom Cheney in other American League action.

Pittsburgh Pirates beat back Chicago Cubs 7-6 on Roberto Clemente's three-run homer in the seventh inning, and New York Mets moved ahead of Houston into ninth place by whipping Philadelphia Phils twice, 5-0 and 4-1.

Right-hander Jim Bouton, a bull-pen refugee, ran his record to 10-2 for the Yankees as he fired a four-hitter over the Red Sox. Boston opened a four-game series with the Yankees Friday only two games behind and finished up four games back.

NEEDS HELP

Ray Herbert won the opener for the White Sox with strong two - inning relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm, and the loss went to Jack Kralick, aiming for his seventh straight. Latman bested Chicago's basketball-playing rookie, Dave DeBusschere 2-0 in the second.

Jim Gilliam's three - run homer off Ernie Broglio carried the Dodgers to victory over the Cards. Bob Miller got the win in relief.

Spahn hit his 33rd career home run, high for National League pitchers, to tie the score against the Giants, and the Braves went on to count seven runs in the fifth. It was Spahn's 10th victory this season and the 337th of his career.

Carl Willey threw the first-game shutout for the Mets, and Tracy Stallard got the second-game victory. Jimmy Piersall hit his 100th career homer in the first game and marked the event by circling the bases running backwards. It was his first as a Met.

Fine Racing Card Set For Tonight

Another thrilling harness racing card is awaiting race patrons of Charlottetown Driving Park tonight.

It's an exciting looking program, with three double dashes and two singles comprising the menu.

Dashes five and eight have the appearances of being real sizzlers. Claude O'Brien has the rail in race five with Rankine McLaine's Jusy Gary and already the 'experts' are figuring Caude wil rein Gary home a winner.

However it's a formidable looking opposition with such notables as Princess Mark, Mighty Warrior, Mr. Duggan, Jolly Abb and Willard's Choice going after the top money.

The two other double dashes have eight starters each, as has one of the singles. The curtain raiser finds seven horses going to the gate.

Another great battle shapes up in the fourth and seventh. Perfect Hal has the rail and the other speedsters are Denise Ann, Abner C, Philip's Queen, Dot's Boy, Winston's Wish, Countess Alice and Loraine's Watchim. Trying to determine winners in these dashes is a rough assignment.

Some really juicy payoffs are expected at the mutuels tonight. Daily doubles, a quinella and an exactor, in addition to regular win, place and show betting will be available.

First dash leaves the wire at 8 o'clock.

MILAN DOWNS BRAZIL

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Milan of Italy, the European champions, downed Santos of Brazil 4-0 Saturday night in an international soccer match.

Dodgers Post Two Wins; Shade Flyers And Stars

Irv MacKinnon's Dodgers registered their second City Baseball League victory of the weekend yesterday as they edged Stars 2-1 in an abbreviated contest.

Saturday the Dodgers downed the Flyers 2-1 in a thrilling 12-inning marathon.

With the host Dodgers at bat in the bottom of the sixth yesterday afternoon and already having scored two runs in this frame to make the score read 4-2 in their favor umpire Jimmy Allen was forced to call the game on account of rain.

The score was reverted to the last full inning, the fifth, thus making the score read 2-1, as the Stars had counted one run in the top of the fifth.

Lennie Ellsworth, on the mound for the Dodgers, limited his opponents to a lone hit, a one-bagger by Wayne MacDonald in the third which eluded third-sacker Roger Goss. The single drove in losing pitcher George Powers, who had drawn a base on balls.

Ellsworth also walked three and struck out five.

Over the five innings Powers allowed two hits, singles by Bobby Rice and Jack Kane in the fourth which figured in both Dodger runs.

COSTLY THROW

With Rice and Kane riding the sacks in this frame Roger MacLeod stepped to the plate and struck out. Star catcher Barry Ellis dropped the third strike and was forced to make his play at first to get MacLeod.

First sacker Alan 'Posty' Connolly hurried his throw back to the plate in an effort to cut off Rice, who was streaking home. The throw was well off target and as a result, both Rice and Kane made it home safe for the margin of victory.

Powers sent five down via the strikeout route and walked three.

This evening at 6:15 Stars play host to Rovers.

Roger Goss's double in the 12th inning drove home Jack Kane with the run that gave Dodgers a 2-1 decision over Fyers in Saturday's fixture.

It was a bitterly fought contest and gave a fair sized crowd of spectators their best entertainment of the young season.

Don 'Pot' MacDonald and young Carl McQuaid hooked up in a fine pitching duel, with MacDonald emerging the winning moundsman. Both went the distance in the extra inning tussle.

Dodgers managed only six hits off McQuaid's offerings, two of these coming in the 12th frame.

Flyers got to MacDonald for eight safeties. They had the bases loaded in the 12th but 'Pot' got out of the jam by getting Jim Duffy on a roller to the pitcher.

Dodgers opened his scoring in the second and Flyers tied it with a singe run in the fifth. Things stayed that way until Kane trotted home with the winning run.

B. Doucette, B. Sherry and Freddie MacDonald each had two hits for the losers. Sherry and Doucette each banged out a double. Wayne MacDougall was 2 for 4 for the winners. One of his was a two bagger.
