

Local and Other Items.

For Curtains of all kinds go to Beer Bros.
POLICE COURT.—This morning a drunk was remanded and a Scott Act case postponed.
THIS EVENING.—Meeting of the Philharmonic Society for practice, at 8 o'clock (sharp) this evening.
MONCTON'S WATER SUPPLY is improving somewhat. The fish are beginning to abandon the pipes and the milkmen to rejoice.

LECTURE.—Hon. Senator Howland will lecture before Emerald branch of the Benevolent Irish Society at Emerald, on Friday, 8th prox.

Big bargains in all Linen Towels this week at Beer Bros.

MEETING.—The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, will meet to-morrow (Wednesday) at eleven o'clock, in the Philharmonic Hall, Prince Street.

TANK BURST.—The tank at Ottawa used for filling up the street sprinkling carts, froze up on Tuesday night last, and on being turned on the following morning burst.

STILL THEY COME.—The Times reports that in a garden on Steadman Street, Moncton, there is sprouting a number of marigolds from old stalks which had been cut down a few weeks ago.

Beer Bros are offering a special line of Napkins this week for $1 per dozen.

ZION CHURCH.—The congregation of Zion Church meets this evening for the purpose of choosing a pastor. The business will be commenced by the holding of a regular service at 8 o'clock, to be conducted by the Rev. A. M. Mahon, M. A.

WEDDED IN THE WEST.—The friends of J. F. Mackenzie will read with pleasure the announcement made in another column of this day's issue. THE EXAMINER offers its congratulations and wishes Mr. Mackenzie continued prosperity in the Sandwich Islands.

ANOTHER NEW BAND.—Messrs. Miller Bros., of this city, music dealers, have received an order for another set of brass band instruments, this time for the people of Tignish. The instruments are to be similar to the fine set supplied to the band at Alberton a short time ago.

CHAFFELLE'S ALMANAC.—This excellent Annual for 1890 is in press and will be issued at an early date. In addition to the most reliable news and information, it will contain the Customs Tariff, revised to date. As an advertising medium it will far exceed any former issue.

SMALL QUEENS.—One case of these favorite cigars received to-day—for sale wholesale cheap at Apothecaries Hall, (DesBrisay's corner). oct26 31 dy

KILLED ON THE I. C. R.—James Sutton, a brakeman on the I. C. R., was killed one mile east of New Mills on Saturday morning by falling between two cars and being run over by the train. Sutton was making his first trip as a brakeman, and had been in the employ of the road scarcely three hours.

SYDNEY HARBOR.—The Advance of Sydney reports that Capt. Geo. L. Burchell is away to New York looking to the purchase of a propeller boat for harbor service. A steamer such as he proposes to purchase will be capable of running considerably later in the fall and earlier in the spring than the one now in use.

WHAT IT IS WORTH.—The Halifax Herald says that the inventory of the estate of the late Daniel O'Connell, of Herring Cove, has been filed in the Probate Court. It shows the estate to be worth $18,000, consisting of government bonds, money in bank, and two mortgages from P. Power and J. O'Brien. This is the estate in which the Blackburn family, of this city, are interested.

WHO KILLED ABEL?—Apropos of the account of the killing of Abel, the land agent, as given by "G. F. O." in a recent number of THE EXAMINER, the following is told: Some few years ago a teacher was giving his class some lessons in early history. "Who killed Abel?" he asked. "Pat Pierce," promptly replied one of the boys, better posted in the local affairs of the neighborhood than in Sacred History.

A REMARKABLE SEASON.—The leaves of the trees in many parts of the country are still quite green. In fact the junipers that were so badly injured early in the summer by worms or caterpillars, are beginning to put on a new coat of green, which looks fresh and attractive as in the early days of spring. The weather continues mild—some days so much so that it can scarcely be called autumnal, though we are now close upon Hallow E'en.

HIGHLY APPRECIATED.—The Halifax Herald says: D. Graham Whidden, of Antigonish, has just received a handsomely engraved address read at the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. at Charlottetown, where he was also presented with a gold scarf pin and a handsome emblematic gold ring, in token of high esteem. The address they ordered to be engraved has been finished in good style, and makes a fine appearance in a suitable frame. This address is highly appreciated by its recipients.

NEW MAP OF CANADA.—Mr. G. W. Tackabury, of the firm of G. N. & G. W. Tackabury—well-known map publishers—is in Charlottetown taking orders for a new map of Canada. This map shows not only the main features of the whole country, extending from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island, but also the townships, post offices, savings banks and telegraph stations, lines of railway, projected lines of railway, etc. It is tastefully and clearly colored. Having examined the map, we can cheerfully recommend it to the people of this Province.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—On Sunday evening last the house of Mr. Patrick Clinton, who lives off Pownall Street, was entered by a burglar while the inmates were absent at church, and upwards of $20 was stolen therefrom. The burglar effected an entrance through a window on the second flat by climbing upon the top of a porch in the rear of the house. After getting inside he broke open a box in which the purse containing the money was kept, and made his exit through a window in the front of the house. Mr. Clinton has a strong suspicion as to who the guilty person is. If his suspicions are correct we hope he will be able to bring the crime home to him. Mr. Clinton is a poor man and can ill afford to lose so much money at this time of the year.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.
The Marine Conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.
The Marine Conference to-day adopted a resolution that a committee of nine be appointed to consider and report rules for lights carried or shown on small pilot or fishing vessels; an amendment proposed by Sievking, German, providing that no other lights which might be mistaken for the lights mentioned for steam and sail vessels be carried in all weathers from sunrise, was adopted. An amendment to section A, article 3, of the evils of the road, providing that a ship without a foremast shall carry a mast light in the fore part of the ship at a height above the hull not less than the breadth of the ship, except in ships the breadth of which exceeds forty feet, in which case the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than forty feet, was adopted.

The Ellis Contempt Case.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.
The celebrated Ellis contempt case was up for argument in the Supreme Court to-day. Weldon proceeded with a lengthy argument, but on raising the point of want of jurisdiction on the part of Judge Tuck to issue a writ of probation, the Court held that it could not be argued, as it was yet undecided in the Court below and might form the basis of a future appeal. It was then agreed that the case be over until the point raised had been decided in the Court below.

Narrow Escape.

MONCTON, Oct. 28.
An old man named Thaddy Vennan, a leading farmer at MacManus Mill, near Memramcook, attempted to cross the river at low tide a day or two ago. He laid slabs across the quicksands but slipped off and was unable to get out. The conductor of a passing train noticed his peril and gave the alarm to section men who rescued him just in the nick of time. The tide had commenced to rise, and the water was up to his chin.

The Behring Sea Trouble.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.
There is considerable interest here in an article in the November Forum, by Principal Angell, of Ann Arbor, on the Behring Sea difficulty, in which he disputes the American contention on every point, and urges an immediate arrangement with the other nations interested in the preservation of the sealing industry.

The Fast Steamship Scheme Again.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.
Hon. Mr. Abbott, who has just returned from England, says the idea that the fast steamship scheme was abandoned for lack of capital is a mistaken idea. As soon as terminal facilities and other details are arranged, the enterprise will go on.

The "D. J. Adams" Confiscated.

HALIFAX, Oct. 29.
In the Admiralty Court yesterday, Chief Justice McDonald delivered judgment in the case of the American fishing schooner David J. Adams. His Lordship confiscated the vessel to the Crown.

The Gallagher Case.

DUBLIN, Oct. 28.
The jury in the case of Gallagher, charged with being implicated in the murder of Police Inspector Martin, at Gweedore, failed to agree upon a verdict.

A Premature Report.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.
The report from Montreal that Mr. Colby has been called to the Cabinet as president of the Council, is premature.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—10 a. m.
Winds mostly northeast and east, cloudy, with a few local rains, a little lower temperature.

Personal.

Mr. H. Kavanagh, who is lying seriously ill in London, and who sat for many years in Parliament for the county of Carlow, was, says the Dundee Advertiser, physically speaking, the most extraordinary man that ever sat in the House of Commons. We have had, and still have, blind men in Parliament, and deaf men are more common than the constituents suspect. Mr. Kavanagh had all his senses, but he was without arms or legs. He had to be carried to his seat in parliament. He addressed the House always sitting, and was allowed to vote without going into the lobby. He was by no means a silent member. He spoke frequently on Irish questions, and sat on a number of select committees—a special lift having been constructed to raise him to the level of the corridor in which the committee rooms are placed.

Sir Edwin Arnold sailed from San Francisco for Japan on Friday. On the night before his departure he was entertained by the Howard Club of San Francisco, where he read this sonnet:

A FAREWELL.
America! at this thy Golden Gate,
New-travelled from thy green Atlantic coasts,
Parting—I make my reverence! It behooves
With backward steps to quit a queen in state.
Land! of all lands most fair and free and great—
Of countless kindred lips, wherefrom I heard
Sweet speech of Shakespeare—keep it conse-
crate
—For noble uses! Land of Freedom's Bird,
Fearless and proud! So let him soar, that stirred
By generous joy, all men may learn of thee
A larger life; and Europe, undeterred
By ancient wrecks, dare also to be free
Body and Soul—seeing thine Eagle gaze
Undazzled upon Freedom's Sun, full blaze!
