Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island met in Orwell, Belfast, on the 23rd ult., for the purpose of considering whether or not the congregations of Belfast and Orwell Head could be so reconstructed as to make the latter self-sustaining.

After hearing a large number of delegates from the two congregations, it was unanimously agreed to allow them, in the meantime, to remain as at present constructed.

The Presbytery then resumed consideration of the petition from Orwell Head congregation, asking for moderation in a call, and for a supplement from the augmentation fund, when, on motion, it was unanimously agreed to grant the moderation, and appointed Rev. R. McLean to moderate in said call, at such a time as may be agreed upon by him and the session.

It was further agreed to apply to the Augmentation committee for a grant of $200 to this congregation in case of the settlement of a minister during the present year, on condition that they raise $500, and give the minister the free use of the manse.

The following appointments were then made: Rev. A. S. Stewart to preach in Brookfield on 2nd Sabbath in March. Rev. M. McLeod to preach in Belfast on last Sabbath in February, at Orwell Head on 1st Sabbath in March, and alternately in these two congregations until next meeting of Presbytery.

Rev. R. McLean was appointed to preach in Orwell Head Church at 3 o'clock on 2nd Sabbath in March, and Rev. John Hutchison, M. A., to preach in St. John's Church, Belfast, on 1st Sabbath of March.

A Horrible Affair.

Word was received here last Monday, by Owen Kelly, of a brutal affair which occurred near Grand Falls, the Wednesday before (Feb. 16th), and by which his son-in-law, Jas. F. Blake, and his nephew, Henry Kelly, of Quebec, were so badly beaten that the latter died of his injuries on the following Saturday.

They were engaged in peddling dry goods and clothing and whilst in a French house on the opposite side of the river from Grand Falls Village, were attacked and beaten. A correspondent thus describes the affair:—

"They were showing some goods when a crowd of Frenchmen came in, all of whom were more or less intoxicated; one of them walked up to Blake and called him hard names, and struck him in the face and breast; Kelly ran to his assistance, but was caught by some of the others; he got up against the wall and managed to keep his feet. After the exchange of a few blows, Blake and Kelly both managed to get out doors, where some of the party followed them, and fired four shots after them; happily none of them were struck by the shots. They got away, and found the Deputy Sheriff, who went back with them and got their hats and goods. They applied to the authorities, but no one would issue a warrant for the arrest of the desperadoes in the face of the coming elections. Medical aid was looked for, but could not be obtained short of Andover."

We have not heard of any arrests having yet been made. If the particulars are correct as stated above, and we can see no reason to doubt them, the authorities in that locality must be more than negligent in their duty. When human life is involved some effort should be made to reach and punish the guilty.—Woodstock Press.

The Domestic Monthly for March, 1887.

We wonder if all our lady readers know that the charming Domestic Monthly, which is only $1.50 a year, gives $1.00 worth of Domestic Patterns to every subscriber. This is a thing worth knowing by all who make their own or their children's gowns. The March number of the Domestic Monthly is a capital number. Its contents are selected to meet a great variety of tastes, and one who cannot find amusement in some of its illustrated articles, stories, poems, etc., must be hard to please.

Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher conducts the Household Department.

The Domestic Monthly is published at 853 Broadway, New York, at $1.50 a year, postpaid, with $1.00 worth of patterns to every subscriber. For $2.00 the magazine, the patterns and two new books, "Needlework" and "Knitting and Crochet," both with designs and illustrations, are sent.

Bigamy in Self-Defence.

Justice Hawkins, a few days ago decided that bigamy is no crime when committed in self-defence. A poor woman who had married a habitual criminal when she was 17, was deserted by him after her first lady was born. He had never made any provision for her, and in the intervals when he was not in prison he used to come back to her whenever she got a situation and compel her to keep him. The poor creature thereupon married a second husband, who undertook to protect her from the first, who was always threatening her. Husband No. 1 therefore gave her into custody for bigamy. When all this was proved, Justice Hawkins became very excited and declared that he regretted exceedingly that the woman had been imprisoned one month awaiting trial. He felt that he should be wanting in humanity if he were to order her to be imprisoned for one single hour beyond that time, and the sentence was that she be imprisoned for half an hour. The announcement was received with applause. Bigamy, therefore, is henceforth to be regarded as justifiable as a means of self-protection. But would it not be better to amend the law of divorce.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, sick headache, constiveness, nervous prostration, indigestion, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cts. Try it.
