

Dr. Jardine appears to have become an advocate of escheat, and is shocked at the idea of the Government purchasing the Worrell Estate without a previous investigation into the validity of the original title.

THE BELL RINGERS.—The Alexander Family of Bell Ringers, have, during the past week, given several of their unique and highly interesting entertainments, which were numerously and respectfully attended.

UNITED STATES.

The Sumner assault has been tried. Brooks made a short speech, regretting Mr. Sumner's absence. He hoped for the benefit of interrogation concerning his (Sumner's) testimony before the House Committee.

Judge Crawford said he would forbear to comment on the testimony, and pronounce as the judgment of the Court, that Mr. Brooks pay a fine of $300.

The Boston Atlas, commenting on this decision, says—"This decision will bring great comfort to the Hon. Mr. Herbert, who was prevented from being present at the last important vote of the House, in consequence of a trifling misunderstanding with the authorities of the district."

Mr. Sumner's condition is said by Mr. Greely, in the Tribune last week, to be worse, and he is said by his medical friends to be suffering under softening of the brain.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT BALTIMORE.—A dreadful accident occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on the evening of the 7th. The train was thrown off the line in consequence of the switch being half-opened and broken.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—On the 25th ult., says the Portland Argus, a Mrs. Hurd, aged 85, who resided with her son, in Harmony, was heard to cry "murder;" and on the neighbors entering the house, the old lady was found dead with her skull fractured.

THE SLAVE TRADE.—Notwithstanding the prosecutions instituted by the United States District Attorney against slavers and slave traffickers, two vessels have left the port of New York within the past few days, fully equipped for the coast of Africa.

THE FORBES DIVORCE.—A new trial has been denied to Edwin Forbes in his divorce case, and an order for fixing the alimony of Mrs. Forbes has been issued.

THE U. S. propeller Arctic was to leave Brooklyn navy yard last week, under command of Lieut. Berryman, to complete the deep sea soundings between Newfoundland and Ireland.

REGULATIONS.—1. Subscribers of twenty shillings and upwards will be entitled to all the privileges of members of the Regatta Club. 2. Boats not owned on the Island will be allowed to compete for the club plates by the owners subscribing twenty shillings to the fund of the club and also the entrance money. 3. The boats' places at starting will be decided by lot; all sails to be lowered previously to starting. 4. No second prize will be given unless three boats start. 5. Boats on the harbour tack must invariably give way to those on the starboard; and in all cases where a doubt of the possibility of the boat on the harbour tack weathering the boat on the starboard tack shall exist, the boat on the harbour tack must give way; or if the other boat keep her course and run into her, the owners of the boat on the harbour tack shall pay all damages and forfeit its claim to the prize. 6. Any boat throwing out ballast after starting will forfeit the race. 7. Extra sail to be used before the wind to any extent. 8. To prevent collisions during the races, any entered boat found sailing in the harbor during the progress of the other sailing matches, will forfeit her chance in the race she is entered for. 9. Any sail-boat using an oar, pole or boat-hook during the race, unless for the purpose of booming out her sails, will forfeit her chance of the prize. 10. All boats intending to compete, must be at Peake's wharf by nine o'clock. 11. Printed directions for the course of the different races may be obtained from the Secretary on the morning of the Regatta. 12. All disputes to be decided by the umpires. 13.
