Top Ayrshires In R.O.P. Class

The Canadian Ayrshire Breeders' Association has recently issued a list of the cows completing the top five records in each R.O.P. class during 1953. Island bred cows are listed in four of the classes.

Kirkside Ora, owned by George P. Matheson & Son, Wheatley River, was the top producing cow in the Junior 3-year-old, 365 day class with 13,724 lbs. milk and 555 lbs. of fat. Ora also has a 2-year-old record of 12,009 lbs. milk, 522 lbs. of fat. Her sire is Fairvue Lochinvar and her dam is Kirkside Lucky Rose with a mature record of 16,050 lbs. milk, 681 lbs. fat.

Col. F. I. Andrew's Senior 2-year-old, Royalty Lady Dora, was the fifth highest producer in the 305 day or Honor Roll division with 10,797 lbs. milk, 461 lbs. fat in 305 days. This good heifer was sired by Kendoral Grand Champion who is a maternal half-brother of Kendoral Bright Boy. Bright Boy is the sire of Fairvue Bright Lass, owned by A. MacRae & Sons, and the second highest producer in the Junior 2-year-old, 305 day division with 11,316 lbs. of milk, 512 lbs. of fat 4.52%.

Several other Island Ayrshires have recently completed noteworthy records. These include: Glenholm Snowdrop, owned by R. Louis Cairns, Freetown, with 11,255 lbs. of milk, 473 lbs. fat in 305 days at the Senior 3-year-old. Bell Pounlain Dewdrop, bred by Windsor Bell and now owned by J. H. MacPhail, with 14,305 lbs. of milk, 570 lbs. fat in 305 days in the mature class. Royalty Burton Princess, owned by Col. F. I. Andrew, with 13,575 lbs. of milk, 560 lbs. fat in 312 days as a mature cow. Raeburn Kitty, owned by Barrie MacRae & Son, with 13,786 lbs. milk, 604 lbs. of fat in 305 days as a 10-year-old.

Exceptional Record

The owners and breeders of the above are to be congratulated on the excellent production exhibited. However, a Junior 2-year-old owned by John W. Lewis, Freetown, has more or less stolen the show with her record of 11,765 lbs. of milk, 572 lbs. of fat 4.86% in 305 days published in the April, 1954, list of cows completing lactations. She is Columario Geraldine and her record of 572 lbs. of butterfat is exactly twice as much as was necessary to qualify on R.O.P. This heifer is bred for production, being out of Sunny Scope Fairy, an excellent cow with a mature record of 13,386 lbs. milk, 641 lbs. fat and an incomplete lifetime production of over 136,000 lbs. of milk testing over 4%.

Plans are now well under way for the Prince Edward Island Ayrshire sale which will be held at the Provincial Exhibition Grounds on May 28th.

Twenty-four females and three bulls have been selected to date, by the selection committee under Mr. L. W. Roper. Many of the animals to be sold carry the same bloodlines as the high producing cows listed above. This sale should provide the type of animals that are needed to start a purebred herd and that will improve many established herds. The auctioneer for the sale will be Mr. Claude Craawell, of North Wiltshire.

Catalogues of the sale will soon be prepared and copies may be obtained by writing Jim Nicholson, Box 368, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Student Artists Provide Treat For Music Lovers

Tonight at 8.15 p. m. at Hertz Memorial Hall a student concert party from Mount Allison conservatory of music will present a programme of soprano solos and duets and piano solos under the sponsorship of Trinity Scouts and Cubs.

Three of the artists taking part in tonight's attractive programme appeared in this city last year when the most outstanding performance ever given by a student concert group was presented. These artists are Miss Myra McNeill, St. John, N. B., soprano, Miss Evron Kinaman, faculty accompanist and Alexander Champoux, Campbellton, N. B., pianist. A newcomer to this city, Miss Joan Phinney, Middleton, N. S., soprano, comes to us highly recommended as an outstanding young artist.

No effort will be spared by members of this year's concert party in order to give tonight's audience an outstanding evening's entertainment and it is hoped by the Trinity Scout Group who go to considerable trouble to stage this annual concert that parents and friends of Scouts and Gubs and old Mount A students will turn out in large numbers to enjoy an evening of good music and encourage the artists and sponsors.

Will Advise Bantam Champ To Retire

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Trainer Bill McConnell says he will advise world bantamweight boxing champion Jimmy Carruthers to retire after two more fights. He would recommend a non-title fight and title defence against Robert Cohen of France, McConnell said Thursday night. McConnell, who has trained Carruthers throughout his professional career, said Carruthers after the Cohen fight could retire as undefeated world champion with enough money for an assured future.

erse, Tryon-Victoria and vicinity. The relocation of lines for Trans-Canada Highway construction is also receiving immediate attention. A three-mile construction job is provided for from the Western Road to Bloomfield Station.

In Charlottetown the distributing lines on Prince Street have been entirely replaced by a mopping up will only require a few days. Additional circuits are being built in the city and the program of tree trimming, under supervision approved of by Mayor Stewart, will be continued.

The marked improvement in city service as a result of the tree trimming programme is a source of great satisfaction to Mr. Milligan. "In previous years, Elm Avenue averaged fifteen power interruptions per season, which was directly caused by tree contact during the high winds and storms. This winter, there were no power interruptions," Mr. Milligan said. "The same improvement is recorded with regard to Upper Prince Street where four or five line failures were caused each year by storm blown branches; this season there were none."

"Many areas directly interconnected to a network of power lines may still have power interruptions due to tree contacts on streets not yet cleared," Mr. Milligan said, "however, with the continuation of this program as outlined by the City Tree Committee, each winter, there is no doubt but that the City will in time be free of electrical power interruptions during the winter storms."

In connection with the overall program undertaken by the Maritime Electric Company, a dispersing depot will shortly be erected on Longworth Ave. as a line store-room for material and equipment with adequate provision for the line gangs as operating headquarters.

Little Theatre Guild Presentation Of "Arsenic And Old Lace" Enjoyed At Spring Park

The Little Theatre Guild of Charlottetown in presenting "Arsenic and Old Lace" in the Empire Theatre last night, brought to the theatre-going people of the city and nearby points, one of the most amusing and delightful shows of all time, in a highly commendable manner.

Most theatre-goers are familiar with the story which centres in each of the three acts, in the living room of the Brewster home in Brooklyn, N. Y., in the early 40s. Jean Giddings as Abby Brewster with Eva MacMillan as her sister Martha combined to keep the audience convulsed in laughter as scene after scene of the most impossible situations pointed up each act. Teddy Brewster, as played by J. T. Place, left nothing to be desired in the way of action, adding zest and more deep down laughs as his boisterous entrances and exits were designed to produce.

Doris MacMillan as Elaine Taylor and Bert Foster as Mortimer Brewster provided the romance, not unmixing with near tragedy from time to time. Dick Turpin as Jonathan Brewster, the black sheep of the family, and his infamous associate Dr. Einstein, played by Peter Shama, both played difficult parts with understanding and distinction. Other members of the cast gave intelligent and effective support throughout and acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. These were Lloyd Yeo, as Rev. Dr. Harper, Albert Wetherby as Officer Brophy, Wally Scantlebury as Officer Klein, Charles Willett as Mr. Gibbs, James Coyle as Officer O'Hara, Wilfred Driscoll as Lieut. Rooney and Jos. Robinson as Mr. Witherspoon.

The show was directed by George Anderson with the following members of the Guild taking part as described: Stage Manager, Beverly Place; make-up, Betty Hull, Miriam Matthews, Barry Bugden, Ruby Smallman; stage, Harry Morris, Bert Patterson, Jack Kinnon, Charles Willett; properties, Lillian Duchemin, Mary McQuaid, Sally Robinson; lights, Joe Robinson, Peter Shama, Charles McInnis, Mervin Phillips; music, Barbara Rogers.

The production will be repeated again this evening.

Quotes Directive Of Cardinal Against Parish Lotteries

OTTAWA (CP)—A spokesman for the United Church of Canada Thursday quoted from a Roman Catholic Church directive against parish lotteries and bingo to support his church's anti-gambling stand.

Rev. A. Lloyd Smith of Dominion-Douglas United Church in Montreal quoted from a directive Paul-Emile Cardinal Leger of Montreal sent to all Catholic religious orders and parishes in his archdiocese in 1951.

Rev. Mr. Smith, translating from the French-language circular, said he received permission from the Montreal Archbishop's house to quote it before the Commons-Senate committee on capital and corporal punishment and lotteries. BINGO PROHIBITED

He said Cardinal Leger prohibited religious orders and parishes to organize, hold, patronize or even attend church bazaars, bingo, and games of chance even if held for religious and charitable purposes.

Mr. Smith said that as a minister of a Protestant church he fully appreciates the stand taken by Montreal's Roman Catholic church leaders.

Mr. Smith is chairman of his church's board of evangelism and social service which presented a 24-page report to the committee. The brief outlined the church's position on capital and corporal punishment.

Corporal punishment was considered most degrading to human dignity, and its gradual elimination and eventual abolition should be undertaken.

NO DEFENCE VIEWS

The United Church held no definite views on capital punishment, now under study by the board of evangelism which may bring a report next September when the church's general council meets in Saskatoon, N.B.

Rev. J. R. Mutchmor of Toronto, secretary of the board, said that so far its members have not reached a common mind on the question of capital punishment. More than half the board's membership favored retention of capital punishment, the rest supported abolition.

Senator Nancy Hodges (L—British Columbia) said she has read newspaper reports that bingos are still being held in Roman Catholic churches, and asked if Cardinal Leger still holds the views he expressed in his directive issued Jan. 29, 1951.

Senator P. H. Bouffard (L—Quebec) said: "Definitely."

Two Votes

The cabinet itself had been sharply divided on many issues in recent weeks and Thursday night's vote reflected the many differences of opinion. Several parties of the government, majority split their votes, with many deputies who had supported Laniel in the past voting against him.

Laniel caustically denounced some of his critics in these words: "It is considered good form in the United States which aids us rather than about the Vietnam which kills our soldiers. I give myself the right not to listen to them."

To bar the invasion route to Laos, Laniel said, the fortress was set up at Dien Bien Phu, which he called the crossroads for two main routes from Red China. The fortress served its purpose, he said, since two-thirds of the Vietnam force was tied down by the operation at Dien Bien Phu. At the same time, an attack on the royal Laotian capital at Luangprabang was called off.

In defining minimum conditions necessary for an armistice in Indo-China, Laniel called for international control over troops of both sides, guarantees for protection of the civilian population and free elections.

Laniel's government is France's 19th since the liberation of Paris in 1944. He is the 13th premier during this period. His cabinet has lasted well above the average for the 10-year period. The average is five months, 26 days.

CLUB MEMBERS PAY TRIBUTE TO REV. MR. DAVISON AND MR. GAMBLE

Two members who are leaving the club were honored last night at the final meeting of the season of the Alpha Y's Men's Club held at the Y.M.C.A. They were Rev. J. D. Davison, pastor of the Baptist Church, and Mr. Fred Gamble, secretary of the Y here.

Each of the members who are leaving the club was presented with an address and a well filled purse. The chairman for the evening was Dr. W. R. Carson who also made the presentation to Mr. Gamble. The presentation to Rev. Mr. Davison was made by Mr. Fred Matheson, past president of the club.

One guest was present at the meeting, Mr. John Spook. The lively sing song was led by Messrs. O. K. Presby and Harvey MacPherson.

The address to Rev. Mr. Davison was as follows: "Dear Y's Jim: 'Your fellow Y's Men of the Alpha Y's Men's Club have recently learned with regret of your impending departure from our city and Province—and we most deeply regret that this means that we shall no longer be privileged to have you associated with us from week to week as an active member of this club."

"The loss is ours, and we can ill afford to lose a Y's Man such as you have proved yourself to be. 'During your stay with us you have done much for us and for the club in many ways. Not only have you been a most respected and effective Club Chaplain and Spiritual Advisor to us, but you have also in many other ways enriched our club life. By your enthusiasm, your idealism and your loyalty you have exemplified to us by word and deed what kind of a person a Y's Man should strive to be."

"But it is as a personal friend that you have made our greatest contribution to us. We value and cherish your friendship most highly—and we hope that in some measure you yourself have benefited from your associations and fellowship with the Y's Men—as we have from ours with you. You will always find friends and a hearty western Pacific." What the U. S. has in mind, however, may go beyond article 51 of the charter. She appears to be seeking, not so much a commitment against such aggression as a way of preventing states from going Communist. In the British view, such tactics may not appeal to many Asian nations whose emphasis is on nationalism and anti-colonialism slow.

welcome in the Alpha Y's Men's Club. "As a token of our respect and esteem we would now ask you, Y's Jim, to please accept this purse, raised not from club funds, but by personal contributions as a tribute to you from each and every member of the club—and with it may I express our fervent hope that God's richest blessing will accompany you and Mrs. Davison and your family always."

Dick Matheson, Past President, Alpha Y's Men's Club. To Mr. Gamble

The address to Mr. Gamble was as follows: "My Dear Y's Fred: 'The thoughts of your leaving the Alpha Y's Men's Club has filled us with many deep feelings of regret as well as real sadness with respect to your departure from the Y. M. C. A., from Charlottetown and from this fair Isle Province to whom so greatly we contribute both spiritually and materially."

"As a fellow Y's Man you have been ever friendly, ever faithful, ever sure. Your counsel and advice in the ever merging work of this club with that of the Y. M. C. A. has been timely and good so much so, that perfect harmony prevailed, and the fruits of your labors as you gathered into your very excellent 'Y' program hundreds of boys and girls many of whom did you honor as they demonstrated their physical prowess in the recent highly successful 'GYM' circus."

"Now that we are about to separate, you to fold your tent yet to pitch it again in a 'foreign' land we bid you and your splendid partner Y's Menette, Edith, God's speed as we wish you both years of success and happiness in your chosen labor of love."

"On behalf of the Alpha Y's Men's Club and also on behalf of the Centennial Y's Men's Club, now ask you to accept this small token of our friendship, our esteem, and our brotherly love."

The Alpha Y's Men's Club W. R. Carson, president.
