SUMMERSIDE NEWS.

The Rev. Ephraim Read and Mrs. Read came to the Island last evening.

YESTERDAY was one of the days that the watering cart should have been got to work.

Past Grand Joseph Wilson of St. John arrived in S'ide last evening. He represents the Daily Telegraph.

The Rev. Mr. Goddwill preached in Summerside Sunday morning and in Cape Traverse in the afternoon.

Quite a number passed through Summerside on the special to attend the Tunnel Tea. A goodly number also went from this town.

THERE were 39 passengers to Point du Chene yesterday morning. In the evening 36 came to the Island, including the Hon. John Richards of Bidford and Mr. P. Lanigan of this town.

A GREAT many farmers in the Cape Traverse section have ploughed down their potatoes and are sowing late turnips. Some potato patches in this district are as bare as before the tubers were planted.

Mr. Duncan Cameron, an old and respected resident of Charlottetown is very ill and little hope is entertained for his recovery. Injuries to the spine received while stumping in the spring is the chief trouble.

No body will have to enquire where Mr. W. G. Schurman, S'ide's job printer can be found now. Anybody that could see the side of a house will be able to see his new swinging sign which was put up yesterday.

ABOUT twenty encampment members of the I. O. O. F. came by the Northern land last evening. They will organize the grand encampment of the Maritime Provinces, and the delegates to the Grand Lodge will arrive this evening.

THREE persons were fined $5 and costs in the police court yesterday morning for disturbing the peace Saturday night. Two very small boys were charged with committing an assault on a four-year-old child and were remanded until this morning.

We would call the attention of our readers to the "Ad" of T. J. & M. L. Walsh, of the Electric Book Store in another column. They keep everything in the book line and make a specialty of stamping, which they do "while you wait." Give them a call.

Miss Mary E. Bolanger, of Port Townsend, has been awarded $10,000 damages in the United States Circuit Court at Seattle, Wash., in a breach of promise suit against Mr. R. B. Orswell, a millionaire Prince Edward Islander. She claimed that her heart had been lacerated to the extent of $100,000, but the above sum was all the Judge thought it was worth. We glean the above facts from the Seattle Telegraph, which paper gave a very full report of the trial, which extended over five days. Mr. Orswell was formerly a much respected resident of Bloomfield, in this county.

THERE is a good deal of guarantee business the store keeping of to-day; it is too costly; or too much reluctant; Half the time it means nothing. Words—only words.

This offer to refund the money, or to pay a reward, is made under the hope that you won't want your money back, and that you won't claim the reward. Of course

So, whoever is honest in making it, and works—not on his own reputation alone, but through the local dealer, whom you know must have something he has faith in back of the guarantee. The business would stand a year without it. What is lacking is confidence. Back of that, what is lacking is that clear honesty which is above the "average practice."

Dr. Pierce's medicines are guaranteed to accomplish what they are intended to do, and their makers give the money back if the result isn't apparent.

Do-n't it strike you that a medicine, which the makers have so much confidence in, is the medicine for you?
