

Report Says Liberals Padded List In Toronto St. Paul's

OTTAWA (CP) — Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of the Ontario High Court of Justice has held the Liberal organization in the constituency of Toronto St. Paul's responsible for padding of voters' lists in the election June 10, 1957. His report to chief electoral officers Nelson Castonguay, tabled in the Commons, shows that "of the total of 474 fictitious names added to the list, all were shown to have been added by agents of Mr. (Liberal candidate) James H. Rooney."

Five persons identified as agents for Mr. Rooney were charged with forging and uttering signatures on documents to add names to voters lists. Four were convicted and sentenced to terms ranging up to six months in jail.

ABSOLVE PC AGENTS

The report of Chief Justice McRuer said that none of the fictitious names on voters lists was shown to have been added by agents for Roland Michener, winning Progressive Conservative candidate and Speaker of the Commons.

However, the report said one of Mr. Michener's agents attempted to add one name, which a person unknown to him had forged, but which in fact had been entered earlier by another of Mr. Michener's agents and which was that of a person entitled to vote.

The chief justice, appointed by Mr. Castonguay as a commissioner to investigate the irregularities, said "there was a well-planned method of adding the names of fictitious persons or persons with fictitious addresses to the list of electors adopted by certain of Mr. Rooney's agents."

Chief Justice McRuer said "I think it is incredible that any plan to have 474 or more fictitious names added to the list of electors, and to have persons at the polls to vote in those names, could be laid out or carried into execution without Mr. Rooney's knowledge."

My nerves grated from lack of sleep. Indigestion bothered me. I felt jittery, depressed, drained of all ambition and energy.

Some people suffer unpleasantness because their systems are aggravated by elements in everyday beverages. This is particularly true of those with "nervous" temperaments.

While some people can drink tea, coffee, cocoa and some soft drinks without harm, others cannot.
