Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow anyone to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.
The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

THE RAILWAY.
Upon the iron highway, wreathed in smoke,
Or east or west the clanking engine reels,
The weary dust spins onward at the stroke
Of half a hundred wheels.
It comes, the breathless driver staring straight
Through misty eye-holes, with the sudden gleam
Of tarnished dome, and cranks of ponderous weight
And clouds of hissing steam.
Old countrymen that trudge from new plowed lands
And on high bridges stay their weary feet
See faces flashed beneath them, waving hands
That may not stay to greet.
Or slow, with hollow blast and wealthy din,
By wide armed signals creeps the laden train,
High vans with shuddering jolt and clinking pin
And hiss of clattering chain.
Wide eyed, affrighted cattle, meek and still,
Along the dim embankment, hung in air,
Shoots the red streamer, linked with cheerful light,
The wide flung furnace glare.
But, best of all, when, in the sullen night,
Along the dim embankment, hung in air,
Shoots the red streamer, linked with cheerful light,
The wide flung furnace glare.
Lights the dim hedges and the rolling steam,
Then passes and, in narrowing distance, dies,
Tracked by the watchful lanterns' lessening gleam.
Two red, resentful eyes.
—"Lord Vyet and Other Poems" by Arthur Christopher Benson.

His Mark.
"How do you sign your name?" asked the tax collector of the Pumpkinville citizen who had come in to register for the election.
"How did the kernul thar sign hissen?" asked the citizen, indicating the young lawyer who had just registered and was passing out the door.
"Why, he signed his 'O. Tolliver Johnson, Esquire.'"
"Waal, jest put mine down Hello Tom Phillips, Esquah."—Atlanta Journal.
Anthropologists have ascertained that the Andaman islanders, the smallest race of people in the world, average less than five feet in height, while 107 of them weigh more than 75 pounds.
Charlotte corruption of the old English word charlyt, which means a dish of chocolate and chocolate russe is Russian chocolate.

Magazines for May.
LADIES' HOME JOURNAL
Among the notable features of the May Ladies' Home Journal are an illustrated article on Joseph Jefferson at home, "After Dinner Stories," a page of brightly told anecdotes of prominent personages, and Rudyard Kipling's famous Jubilee hymn, "Recessional," set to music by Reginald de Koven. "A Cabinet Member's Wife" gives further interesting glimpses of Washington social-official life, and another view "Inside of a Hundred Homes" is afforded. The second instalment of Julia Magruder's novelette, "A Heaven-Kissing Hill," and "His Children" gives an interesting variety of fiction. Robert J. Burdette's "My Kindergarten of Fifty Years" is the first of a series of three articles by this popular humorist. Edward W. Bok writes of the athletic woman and her attire, and also notes the decrease of intemperance; Mrs. S. E. Rorer treats of "Strawberries in Thirty Ways," and tells how to entertain unexpected company. "The Life of a Trained Nurse" is pictured and detailed, while four special pages, "Vacation Days on a House-Boat," "Ten Weeks in Europe for $260," "Comfort in Tent and Cabin," and "Summer Pleasures for Suburban Outings," turn one's thoughts to summer outings. There are articles on woman's attire and various household topics. By The Curtis Publishing Company. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.

The pain that sometimes strikes a man at the most inopportune moment is due to indigestion. It may come in the midst of a dinner and make the feast a mockery. It is a reminder that he may not eat what he chooses, nor when he chooses. He is a slave to the weakness of his stomach. A man's health and strength depend upon what he gets out of his food. This depends on his digestion. Remove the obstruction by taking Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are a positive cure for constipation and its attendant ills—headaches, sour stomach, flatulence, dizziness, biliousness and "heartburn." The "Pellets" are very gentle in their action. They simply assist nature. They do not cause a violent wrench to the system, nor do they cause no pain, nor griping.
Send 31 cents stamps to cover cost of mailing. We will send you free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
