LONDON, Nov. 13.

A despatch says that Boycott announces his intention of giving up his lease in Ireland and returning to England.

Mr. Forster is stated to be urging Gladstone to call a winter session of Parliament to discuss Irish affairs.

There have been two Cabinet meetings the present week, and others will be held shortly. It is generally supposed that the Irish land question was the subject of Cabinet deliberation, and it will be the leading subject of legislation at the next session of Parliament. In this connection the Times says: "If only true remedy is to be found in some equitable method of turning the tenantry into a proprietary we see no reason why such a method should not be carefully and dispassionately considered."

Lord Cloncurry has taken a house at Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire, England, for the winter. The effect of his leaving Ireland will be to deprive labor of employment to the extent of £4,000 a year.

A despatch to the News from Ballincabe states that though few men were seen on the line of march it is said that scouts were on every hill, and pains were being taken to identify the Orangemen. The expedition is encamped in tents in front of Boycott's house. The Times says that prominent members of the Land League followed the Orangemen on car, but left at Boycott's gate. Several shots were fired at the barracks in Ballincabe where the Orangemen slept, Thursday night, but nobody was hurt. Military were ordered to repel any attack at the point of the bayonet. Land Leaguers, however, advised the people to be quiet so long as the Orangemen remain.

At Lough Mask the garrison will be 100 infantry, 50 cavalry, and 50 police. The resident magistrate will constantly attend.

The Freeman's Journal says that Boycott is very unpopular on account of his harshness to the laborers.

A land meeting is to be held at the gates of Boycott's house on Sunday, and twelve other meetings will be held the same day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

The World's cable says: "It is said that if the Boycott relief expedition performs its mission in safety, the habeas corpus act will not be suspended, but Parliament will be called together very early and an Irish land measure proposed, which, if rejected, will cause the dissolution of Parliament and an appeal to the country. On the other hand dissensions are reported in the Cabinet over the Irish question, and it is said Lord Selborne and Earls of Cork and Ormsby are about to resign. It is suggested that the Government is considering the question of making the peasant class of Ireland the proprietors of the soil. The artisans of Portadown, in the County of Armagh, have ostracised Land Leaguers and Home Rulers there."

Lord Kinmare, though a Roman Catholic, has received many intimidating letters from tenantry, notwithstanding which he has returned to his estate in Ireland.

LONDON, Nov. 14.

The Observer has reason to believe that the Ministry do not contemplate any immediate exceptional measures for preservation of peace in Ireland, but intend to defer action until meeting of Parliament, which may be expected early in January.

The St. James Gazette's leading editorial yesterday evening expressed fear that Ministry are driving or being driven towards legislation, creating a peasant proprietary throughout Ireland, probably with a view to extending operation to rest of United Kingdom. Later on ultimate means will probably be purchase of land by State and its attribution to peasantry, to be paid for in a certain term of years. Nothing short, this will be accepted by Irish agitators. Radical members of Government and their supporters will not consent to coercion. Ministry will yield to Radicals rather than suffer Cabinet to break up. An attempt may be made to clothe plan in some disguise, but substantially, and in its full effect this is what extreme men in the Cabinet are hoping and striving for. Should the measure fail to pass the House of Commons or having passed Commons be rejected by the Lords as it would certainly be. The demagogues would go to their constituencies with a good cry for the imagination of the masses is readily kindled by schemes for transferring property from the rich man to the poor man, and they know they would never be taxed for carrying out such a scheme it would be the affair of the income tax-payer.

In the Prussian Parliament yesterday Richter violently attacked the budget on account of the increased taxation it proposes.

The Madrid police yesterday seized the presses and arrested the printer of a revolutionary paper. Gen. Repail, a revolutionary officer, was also arrested.

MISS SIGERSON, a respectable young woman, resident in New York, was shot and instantly killed a few days ago by a young lawyer, Andrew J. Gillen, who wished her to marry him. The lady was 30 and he was 22. He had just had an apparently unfavorable answer from her, when he got it he proceeded to her mother's house and committed the deed.

WE have much pleasure in congratulating the 2nd Methodist Church of this City in the recent purchase from Mr. Fletcher, of a very powerful and handsome Organ, manufactured by Messrs. H. Bell, & Co. Now, we hope ere long to see a Pipe organ in the Brick Church, whose volume of tone will fill it as well as the new one now does the upper church.—Pat.

DIPHTHERIA.—Dr. Revillont, in a paper presented to the French Academy of Medicine, asserts that lemon-juice is one of the most efficacious medicines that can be applied to diphtheria, and relates that when he was a dresser in the hospital, his own life was saved by this timely application. He got a quantity of lemons, and gargled his throat with the juice, swallowing a little at a time, in order to act on the more deep-seated parts. Dr. Revillont has noted eleven cases of complete success obtained by this method of treatment.

PRODUCE SHIPMENTS.—The sch Traveller cleared on the 15th inst., for Salem, Mass., with 2177 bushels, 26 bags and 3 barrels potatoes, shipped by Alex. C. Shaw. The brig D. W. Hennessy on the same date, cleared for Philadelphia with a cargo consisting of 6,450 bushels potatoes, shipped by J. M. Auld. The sch Alma cleared for Halifax with 2044 bush potatoes, 546 bush oats, and 100 bush turnips. On the 13th inst., the sch T. W. Smith, cleared from St. Peters for Halifax, with 503 bush potatoes; 314 do turnips; 234 bush barley and 232 bush oats, by John A. McLean.

ASSAULT.—Joseph McKenna appeared at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, charged with assaulting Francis Keenan. A fight, it appears, occurred on Pownall Street yesterday between two boys named McCarron and McLeod. McKenna, who interfered on McCarron's behalf, had knocked McLeod down and was kicking him violently, when the complainant endeavored to prevent him. McKenna seized a heavy stick and assaulted Keenan, striking him several blows on the head, inflicting a severe wound on the scalp. Keenan's sister, seeing him abused, ran to his rescue. McKenna, cowardly, dealt her several blows with the heavy stick, one of which rendered her senseless for the time. The City Marshal, who was near the scene, arrested McKenna and got him to the Station, in time to save him from the violence of a threatening crowd which assembled. McKenna was fined $5 and costs, or one month's imprisonment.

A FISH STORY.—A few evenings ago one of our city watermen, while supplying his various customers, left at the house of a well-known typist on Dorchester Street, three buckets of the "best gift to man"—water. It was after dark at the time, and shortly after the man who gives drink to the thirsty departed, one of the buckets became the scene of much turmoil. The women of the house, as is usually the case in such emergencies, became panic stricken. A cat, a mink, a lizard, or what! None could tell. No one would venture to investigate. For a time the household remained, as it were, in jeopardy. At length one more courageous than the others, proceeded to the scene of disturbance and fished out a beautiful specimen of the finny tribe—a trout, seven inches long. Now, how this fish got there is a question yet to be solved. It is the opinion of some that he passed from the spring to the cask, thence to the bucket through the tap.
