

C. G. I. T. News

C.G.I.T. is an interdenominational movement began in 1918 to show teen-age girls a christian way of life, through a wide program of activity which includes religious and mission study, social work, sports, camps, hobbies, crafts and recreation.

At present, there are 32,000 girls enrolled in C.G.I.T. across Canada and there are 3,000 leaders. It is the intention of the Public Relations Committee of the Girls' Work Board that this column of C.G.I.T. news be continued as leaders and girls contribute items of interest.

This week we have three groups reporting.

"Aelia" C.G.I.T. Montague United Church

At a recent meeting held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Arnold Wightman, instead of repeating the Purpose, as usual, each girl wrote it on paper and was asked to explain in her own words what it meant to her.

As a community project they have done errands for elderly ladies and assisted at the Town Library, by dusting and arranging books. They also presented the King's County Hospital with children's used books and three films for the hospital viewmaster.

Mrs. J. M. Fraser, assistant leader, has conducted a Bible study entitled "The Disciples."

The officers are: p.r.s., Kay MacLean.

Vice President, Marcia MacDonald.

Sec'y, Eileen Annear.

Treasurer, Nora Hutcheson.

These energetic girls are weaving belts as well as making a Mission Study Scrapbook.

Summerside Baptist C.G.I.T.

This group reports being pleasantly entertained by the Trinity United Church group when they enjoyed a delicious lunch as they sat in front of the open fireplace.

They are busy with their Mission Study on Bolivia, "Let There Be Light" and are making a patchwork quilt which they plan to donate to an Orphanage.

Mrs. W. A. Harper and Mrs. Ernest Brandon are the leaders, and the officers are:

President, Edythe Poole.

Vice President, Hope Jenkins.
Secretary, Barbara Vaughn.
Treasurer, Elizabeth Strong.

Kennington United Church C.G.I.T.

On the first of April, this group began reading the Devotional Booklet, "Power" for their private devotions.

They are completing their Mission Study from the book, "Out Of This World."

As an aid in raising their "Special Objects" money, they take a special offering at each meeting during the project and tabulate the amount beneath the picture of a scholarship student on a poster which they prepared. At present, they are piecing a "bunny" crib quilt for a Korean Hospital and have donated articles for a "Towel Kit" for Overseas Relief.

The Leaders are: Mrs. Robert Carruthers and Miss Dorothy MacKenzie. The officers are:

Senior Group
Acting Pres., Elizabeth Brooks.
Secretary, Gladys Davison.
Treasurer, Myrna Cousins.

Intermediate Group
President, Mona Mayhew.
Vice President, Jean Murray.
Secretary, Libby Shuman.
Treasurer, Elaine Spicer.

father. He holds down two jobs, has been a wonderful husband and brings home all his pay—in the original envelope—and is always home on time. But this is what puzzles me. Lately I've seen lipstick on his handkerchief and I think he's having an affair. He denies it, but I'm making a nervous wreck of myself with worry. Amabel

ANSWER: Where a man with two jobs could find the time for extramarital activities, or where he'd get the money to spend on another woman, is a mystery greater than how he gets lipstick on his handkerchief. Until you have more definite proof than that, I think you'd better let up on the nagging before he has a real excuse to seek outside solace.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM O'SHEA

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital in the early hours of March 4th, of Mrs. William O'Shea of Iona in her 68th year.

The late Mrs. O'Shea had been in ill health for the past ten years although on several occasions during that time she had enjoyed very good health and was able to be up and around.

About a month previous to her death she suffered a stroke from which she partially recovered. However, another serious ailment intervened with the result that an operation was performed. Death came three days later.

During her lingering illness she was faithfully visited by Rev. C. J. McCarthy, former pastor, and by Rev. Leonard McKenna, present pastor, who administered to her the last rites of the Catholic Church.

The deceased was the former Helen Byrne and lived all her life in Iona where she was born.

Besides her husband she is survived by the following sons and daughters: Maurice, employed by Maritime Central Airways, Charlottetown; Mary, with the Catholic Welfare Bureau, Toronto; Henry, Canadian Oil Wells Ltd., Calgary; Frank, Baroid of Canada, Alaska; Anne (Mrs. Arthur Connolly) Iona; Leo, with the Dept. of Public Works, Charlottetown, and Arthur with the Dept. of Education, Charlottetown.

EASTER

Long, long ago the Saviour died,
From sin to set us free;
On Calvary He was Crucified,
And died for you and me.

So silently He bore the Cross
To save us all from sin;
He bore the awful agony,
That we might be with Him.

The sealed tomb could not hold our Lord,
Death could not keep Him there;
He rose to save us all from death
And banish all our care.

Today He lives and reigns on high
This Easter joy to bring,
Salvation-free He gives to all,
Hosanna to our King!

—Mrs. Alexander Blue,
Little Sanda.

late residence March 6th to St. Michael's Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Leonard McKenna, who also conducted the service at the grave. Rev. William Simpson was present in the Sanctuary.

Pall bearers were Messrs. Frank Murphy, Kenneth Byrne, Michael O'Brien, John Hughes, James Connolly and Harold McQuigan.

Card Of Thanks

William O'Shea and family wish to thank everyone who helped in any way during the illness and death of Mrs. O'Shea.
