

Kinsmen Club Regular Meeting

A resolution calling on all members of the Kinsmen Club to attend the next Blood Donor Clinic in a body was unanimously agreed to at the regular meeting of the club held at the Charlottetown Hotel on Thursday night. Ike Sinclair was chairman of the meeting and Larry Slight co-chairman.

The club also decided to continue to donate their annual prizes to the city schools and to add Queen Charlotte High and the Model School to the list. The traditional baby spoon was presented to Larry Slight by Ed Martin and congratulations were extended to Rowland Taylor on his election as president of West Kent Home and School Association. The sick committee reported Kinsman Kenneth Arsenault of Summerside a patient in the Sun.

Clive Cadmore reported on the presentation of the Kinsmen variety concert in Montague and a discussion indicated progress on peanut duty and other projects in the offing. Dr. Frank Burge, chairman of the entertainment committee announced that a ladies' night and also a stag would be held before the end of the club year.

Entertainment was provided in the showing of the R.C.M.P. picture "Musical Ride" and also "Fishing on the Grand Banks."

ROUGH METHOD
