Employment Condition Very Satisfactory Locally

Officials of the Charlottetown National Employment Service are well pleased with current employment conditions. Qualified tradesmen such as carpenters, plumbers, bricklayers, are not available at the present time, and some construction contractors are hard-pushed to obtain the men needed. This is particularly true of bricklayers. The healthy building program in Charlottetown has enlisted the services of every good bricklayer in the area and more could be used if they were to be found. Even good labourers have become scarce in the past two or three weeks, since many of the college boys and high school students have returned to their studies. Many students work during the summer months to help pay their tuition fees. When the college term commences they are obliged to quit their jobs. This leaves a considerable number of vacancies not only in Charlottetown but throughout the rural areas. LOCAL OFFICE RECORDS Some idea of general employment conditions in Kings and Queens counties, both of which come under the administration of the Charlottetown Office, can be had from the local office (Continued on Page Five)

National 4-H Club Officer Judges Summerville Showing

SUMMERVILLE — James D. Moore of Ottawa, National Secretary-Manager of the Council on 4-H clubs for Canada, judged all classes at the Summerville 4-H Club Achievement Day held yesterday. Mr. Moore visits all Provinces annually, and this is his 10th trip here, following a visit to Newfoundland. He will next visit Nova Scotia. This annual visit to 4-H club units is to inform them of national policies and to pick up ideas to be incorporated into this same policy. Mr. Moore capably placed both dairy and beef animals, explaining in detail his reasons for doing so. IMPRESSED In his remarks following the judging, he stated that he was impressed with the quality of the animals and how well fitted they were. He was also surprised at the ability and showmanship of the club members. Mr. Moore said he felt this showing of the members was assisted in no small way by the interest and enthusiasm shown by parents and friends as was evident by the some 200 in attendance. He was pleased to be able to visit an area which would have two members representing them at the national 4-H week at Ottawa and Toronto. The two members are Jean LeLacheur, Georgetown Royalty and Elmer Hynes of Summerville. In conclusion Mr. Moore stated there were 73,000 enrolled 4-H members, 2,000 from P. E. I. and members in over 50 countries. OTHER SPEAKERS Other speakers were Rev. John Cash of Souris, who was one of the stalwarts in the organizing of the Summerville Club and Rev. Clifford Murphy of Vernon River who made the presentation. Others in attendance were David Peacock, director of field work for P. E. I., Dave MacLean, Kings County Agricultural Representative. It is interesting to note that the Summerville Club, although only three years old, is the largest club on P. E. I. having 30 members, and one of the classes judged was competition between two charter members showing their first, second and third year animals. Club leaders are Joe Cronin and Andy Doyle. Following are the results. Ayrshires: 1. Gerry Doyle, 2. Betty Lou Doyle, 3. Leah Valley. Holsteins: 1. Ingrid Rudisch, 2. Merrill Cronin, 3. Margaret Kay Murphy. Judging Competition: 1. Mary Kay Murphy, 2. Gerry Doyle, 3. Michael Maglinis. Showmanship: 1. Gerry Doyle, 2. Peter Curran, 3. Merrill Cronin. Two Year Olds: 1. Gerry Doyle, 2. Peter Curran, 3. Jim Cain. Herd: 1. Gerry Doyle, 2. Peter Curran. Shorthorn Heifer, Beef: Francis Donnelly, 2. Leonard Hughes, 3. George Power. Yearling Ayrshire: 1. Gerry Doyle, 2. Betty Lou Doyle, 3. Earl Cronin. Shorthorn Deal Purpose: 1. Francis Donnelly, 2. Merrill Cronin, 3. Joseph Gill.

Themis Advises Zeus

In Bible times the Greeks and Romans believed that there was a special goddess of justice named Themis who sat beside the throne of the supreme God Zeus and gave him good advice. As we read ancient mythology we can see that Zeus needed all the good advice he could get, for he certainly did not practice justice! The God we worship does not need any special officer of justice for the Bible teaches us that He is perfect justice tempered by mercy and love. It was through the inspiration of such an ideal that the Bible Society was founded more than a century-and-a-half ago—that all men regardless of race, color or creed might experience the justice and boundless love and mercy of God as revealed in Jesus Christ. But although the Scriptures have been distributed in more than eleven hundred languages, there are many millions of people who are still in spiritual bondage and darkness. Our help is needed to fill this great need and very shortly, we on Prince Edward Island will have a special opportunity as the Society makes its annual appeal through its more than eighty branches. We also help when we make a purchase at The Bible House, the profits of which are used to extend the work.

FURRIER LEAVES ON BUYING TRIP

Due to the unprecedented success of early Fall sales of furs, Mr. A. G. Hogan finds it necessary to once again visit upper Canadian fur manufacturers and designers to replenish his stocks of coats, jackets, stoles, etc. He is accompanied by Mr. L. C. Hogan, President of Maritime Furriers Limited, Halifax, and Mr. G. Hogan, President of Brunswick Furriers Limited, Moncton. The early purchasing of furs by local customers gives every indication of 1958 being the greatest fur year yet—these three progressive Maritime firms plan to be ready for this large increase in business. Through past experience the Hogan brothers have learned that by combining the huge purchasing powers of three stores, and by paying cash, that they can buy quality furs at tremendous savings. The Hogans consider themselves very fortunate to be so closely associated in the fur business, as this "combining to buy" give them and their customers many advantages in a highly specialized business.
