ELLEN'S DIARY

Millstream's Flow Grows From Winter's Thawings

An electrical storm, a rare happening in March, visited us last night. The wind was a surprise, with accompanying heavy rain, toward the close of this gently mild day. The dark, with a lovely peace, at the windows. And then suddenly the yards were filled with rumbling away on the hills.

It is rather strange but odd times we see it. It is in the summery season we most expect it, after a spell of heat.

It is not surprising that it has taken over the teaching at Lakeville School due to the hospitalization of the teacher Mrs. Charles MacMahon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Stephen Connolly, Charlotteville, spent the weekend with the later's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard MacNeil, Bolton.

Women in the clique meet for bridge during the day, but little bridge is played. I hear. Gossip is the main activity. They are social climbing, competitive in their clothes, better clothes, etc., and lack real friendship for each other.

Two of these women cause me much grief. One who lived here first is particularly malicious. The other, who came later, was prejudiced against me by her untrue stories. This second woman has said she doesn't really know me and might like me if she did, but won't jeopardize her "friendship" with my critic by calling me a friend.

There are some nice people in this area, but they are troubled by the incineration and carrying a few. We can't complain to the police as we have natural colors on towels, carpets, scarfs. Pattern 7034; transfer 2 each of 2 designs $12x12 1/2. The Chief's Meat-Tops.

We are church people, trying to live like Christians. But how much should we have a Christian attitude? How can America pray to lead the world in peace, when here at home the very cream of our society is immoral and wicked?

As claimants to Christian character, surely you are consistent with having your lips to gooly behavior spelled out by the gospel writers in their scolding accounts of Jesus Christ's teaching on the subject.

In the gospel according to St. Luke 6:27-37, for example, we are told to love those who hate you, to love those who curse you, to love those who despise you, to love those who hate you.

And that man that smiteth thee on one cheek offer also the other. And him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid him not to take thy coat also.

And thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. And of him that taketh away thy goods ask them back, and of him that taketh away thy coat, ask them back also.

And thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. And of him that taketh away thy goods ask them back, and of him that taketh away thy coat, ask them back also.

IDA BALLEEN Pancakes With Extras That Make You Flip

ONE of the most useful assets in the test kitchen is a square aluminum grid. It is used for grilling, broiling, or for cooking, or when making French toast or French omelets. It is also used for rolling jammed pancakes, or for a variety of unusual pancakes.

These pancakes are substantial enough for a main dish at brunch or luncheon because we add eggs to the buttermilk pancake mix always.

Here is our latest recipe for making CHEDDAR CHEESE PANCAKES (Makes 12, 4" in diameter).

1 1/2 cups vegetable oil 1/2 c. milk 1/2 c. buttermilk pancake mix 1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 tsp. 12" square silk cloth

Oil for frying. Combine all ingredients except last two, beat with electric mixer until smooth and thick as heavy cream.

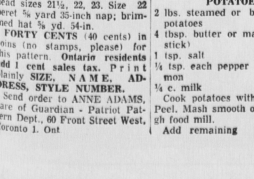

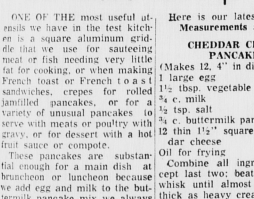

Try pan; brush with oil. Drop 1 tsp. cold water on griddle. If bubbles form at once, it is ready for frying.

Pour or spoon out pancake batter leaving 1" between pancakes for spreading. As soon as bubbles begin to form in tops, lightly press down each one square of cheddar cheese.

Continue to fry until cakes are brown on bottom, then turn and fry about 1/2 min. or until lightly browned and cheese bubbles in mesh. Serve hot, covered, with maple syrup, hot fruit compote, or hot applesauce.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because of their poorly adapted dentures. They are tired of the wrong time. Do not let this be your case.

Frankly, bread can't do a darned thing for babies... real milk-drinking, shoulder-burping babies!

But, once they become active - start burning up energy - get their first wean lick of grown-up foods... then bread can do plenty!

Ben's Buttermilk Bread: soft, white, sliced - carefully made - can play an important part in diets designed to replace youngsters' burned up energy.

It has fine flavor too! Of course, we don't have to tell you grown-ups that!

The best bread each morning...and all day too!
