AUSSIES STILL IN RUNNING FOR DAVIS CUP

Schmeling And Braddock To Meet In September For World's Heavy Title

(By Eddie Briets)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, July 27—The on again, off again world's heavyweight championship fight between Jim Braddock and Max Schmeling was definitely on tonight.

It will be held in September in Madison Square Garden's Long Island Bowl, with the Garden and the 20th Century Sporting Club as joint promoters.

After weeks of wrangling, the two clubs got together today. Everything was satisfactorily settled except the date. It will be between September 24 and September 30.

The Garden and 20th Century will divide the profits 50-50 after all expenses have been paid. Mrs. W. R. Hearst's Milk Fund, which has been closely associated with the past shows of the 20th Century, will not be a participant.

Although officially listed as a joint promotion, the fight actually will be a Garden show. Besides attending to the stadium set-up, the Garden will sell the tickets, handle the publicity and be in entire charge of all promotion.

Except to share in the profits, if any, Mike Jacobs, head of the 20th Century Club, will not be actively identified with the promotion save in an advisory capacity.

Neither club will have an option on the champion after the September fight.

Jacobs, who controlled Schmeling, stands to make some money without having to experience the headaches that go with the promotion of a big fight. The Garden, which had Braddock under contract for his first title defence, not only figures to make money, but will have the satisfaction of actually promoting the bout.

Excelsiors Defeat Scouts

Excelsiors won a sparkling victory from Scouts in a regular scheduled game of Holy Redeemer House Softball League last evening. The score was 15-8.

Hawks play Draegermen this evening at 6:15.

Plays "Just For Fun" Nowadays

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 27—Back at old St. Andrews, one of his big happy hunting grounds of golf, Bobby Jones shot and marched like the emperor of old again today, scoring a 32-40—72 before a gallery of 3,000.

Before the famous Atlanta American began his friendly threesome with Willie Auchterlonie, Royal and Ancient professional, and Gordon Lockhart, Gleneagles professional, he was besieged by so many autograph seekers the match was held up for 15 minutes.

As he strode back to the clubhouse, the gallery of 3,000 milled around him and demanded autographs. Bobby wrote his name until his fingers grew tired and then retreated to the clubhouse.

"Golf for me is just fun nowadays," said Bobby as he scribbled his name on score cards. "I'll never enter competitive golf again."

15 Clubs In Quest For Cup

YARMOUTH, N. S., July 27—Thirty junior yachtsmen representing 15 clubs in the United States and Canada were here tonight to compete on Lake Milo for the Prince of Wales Trophy, emblematic of the junior yacht racing championship of America.

Crews representing all the winning clubs since the series was inaugurated in 1931 were on hand but the favorites were out for the Vineyard Haven Yacht Club pair who could capture the trophy permanently for their club by winning this year. Vineyard Haven won the cup in 1934 and 1935.

The International championship has never been won by a Canadian crew. Pleon Yacht Club of Marblehead, Mass., were the 1931 champions; Beverly Yacht Club, Marion, Mass., captured the trophy in 1932; and Corinthian Yacht Club, Marblehead, in 1933.

FAVORITES WIN FIRST ROUND MATCHES

A score of men and lady racquet wielders emerged victorious and a score fell by the wayside as first rounds of the singles competition in both divisions of Prince Edward Island closed tennis tournament was completed during the first day's play yesterday.

There were no upsets in the men's and ladies' singles first round encounters with favorites coming through in every case.

Two doubles matches—one in the mens' division and one in the ladies' —were run off.

Death Of President Int'l League

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

BALTIMORE, July 27—Charles N. Knapp, President of the International Baseball League, died in a hospital here tonight. He had been ill for months with heart trouble.

Knapp, who was 62, had headed the league since the death of John Conway in 1929. Prior to that time he also had been president of Baltimore Orioles.

His entry into baseball came in 1909 when the late Jack Dunn bought the Orioles and Knapp was Dunn's attorney. Later he became a director of the club and its secretary.

Dunn died in 1928, making Knapp his executor. Mrs. Dunn asked him to assume the presidency of the club until a deal could be arranged for its sale. That deal never was arranged, however, and Knapp held the presidency until his death.

He had been ill for some months and spent last winter in Florida for his health. He was forced to enter a hospital here, however, when he returned in April.

Canadians Given Great Reception At Berlin; Rain Halts Workouts

(By Elmer Dulmage)
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)
(C.P. Cable By Guardian's Special Wire)

BERLIN, July 27—Train-cramped muscles and heavy rain kept the Canadian athletes here for the Olympic Games mostly in the shelter of the Olympic Village today.

The rain, which became a torrent in the afternon, caused postponement of scheduled track workouts. Coaches were glad in view of the weariness of the Dominion squad. The team reached Berlin Sunday after a strenuous 17 hour train trip in day coaches.

The swimmers worked out lightly under head coach Percy Norman of Vancouver and assistant Alex Duff of Toronto. Norman is confident Phyllis Dewar of Vancouver will make a fine showing in the 400 metres and Bob Pirie of Toronto will perform well in the 1500 metres.

Rowing manager Tim Alison of Toronto looked over the Hamilton Leander Eight and Charles "Chuck" Campbell of Toronto, entered in the singles sculls, for the first time at Gruenau. Alison said the powerful Leanders and the Toronto youth who won the Canadian and United States singles sculling titles last year were nearing their best form.

The Canadian team occupy three cottages only 50 yards from the training track in the Olympic Village. Each cottage houses 26.

P. J. Mulqueen, chairman of the Canadian Olympic Committee, said: "Berlin gave the Canadians the greatest reception we ever had yesterday. We thought it was impossible to improve on the Los Angeles village (where the 1932 games were held) but Germany has done it. The food suits our athletes perfectly."

Yankees Beaten By Rowe

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, July 27 — With Scholboy Rowe hurling five hit ball at Detroit for his 11th victory of the season, Tigers today defeated New York Yankees 9-1 in the opening of the four game series. The defeat reduced the Yanks' lead over the id'e second place Cleveland Indians to nine games.

Rowe had a shutout in his grasp until the eighth inning when Frankie Crosetti hit over the left field fence for his 11th home run of the season.

The world champions' ace hurler previously had hit a homer himself, also scoring Ray Hayworth for the first two runs of the game.

After Rowe had hit his homer, the Tigers added another tally and then were held by check by Lefty Gomez, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh. Walter Brown followed the southpaw on the mound but was unable to survive the frame as the Tigers went on a rampage and scored six runs.

Paced by Hal Finney, Philadelphia Athletics pounded out 25 hits, snapped Vernon Kennedy's winning streak at nine pitching victories, and defeated White Sox at Chicago 15-8. It was the fourth straight setback for the Sox, who previously had won 17 out of 21 games.

Finney connected with a triple and four singles and scored four times himself in a slugging match that saw every member of the Athletics get at least one hit and the Sox pound out 15. Zeke Bonura was the big gun in Chicago's offensive with a double and three singles.

At St. Louis, Jim Bottomley batted out a pair of doubles and a single in four times up today and furnished a punch that gave the cellar-riding Browns their second win in two days, a 7-6 decision over Boston.

Werber hit a homer for Boston and Solters contributed one for the Browns as the two teams opened a four-game series.

Maples Win From Hawks

Holy Redeemer Parish's Midget Softball League last evening brought together Maples and Haws. Maples were the winners, the score being 10-5.

Hawks and Maples play this morning at 10 o'clock.

Exhibition Game Wednesday

Wednesday night has been the date selected for the exhibition fixture between the Scouts of the senior league and an all-star aggregation from the midgets. The game will start at 6:15.

The following midgets have been selected to see action against the Scouts: Strain, Larter, Smith, Howatt, McSwain, Hennessey, Duffy, Shepherd, Loughran, Whelan, Trainor.

Bakery Team Win From Rovers 7-3

Stewart's Bakery team, leaders in the City Softball League chalked up victory number ten last night when they deefated Ev McNeil's Rovers 7 to 3 in another hotly-contested tussle.

Tied with Battery and Superiors for second place, the Rovers put up a stirring battle last night. For five innings they held the Bakers to a 2-all score, while outhitting them 7 to 3, but in the sixth and seventh the winners hit hard and often to send five runners across the plate and sew up the old ball game.

Ray Stull was on the mound for the winners and the Bakers' speedball ace had it plenty tough at times. His offerings were pounded for 11 hits, compared to nine his mates garnered off Curley, but Stull was too good in the pinches and as a result, 12 Rover runners were left stranded on the sacks during the encounter when a safety could easily have meant the difference between defeat and victory.

Garnhum, fleet left fielder of the Rovers gave a brilliant display last night, corralling five drives with nice running catches, while Reg McLennan of the Bakers made a spectacular shoe-string catch in the first off Jay's short fly over first base.

Success Of Mid-summer Race Meet Assured

A final word on Summerside's inaugural midsummer race meet scheduled for tomorrow afternoon might prove interesting. Everything possible to insure a successful day's racing has been done and some fast time and exciting finishes would appear inevitable. The track has been put into as nearly perfect condition as is humanly possible and probably has never been better. Besides the horses already present at the track, Mathieu's stable of Ross K., Bonnie Mac and Peter Onward arrived Monday evening and the remainder are expected today.

The first class to be called will be the 2.15 trot which has six entries and six sure starters, Capt. Cope having entered Monday evening. Lusty Frisco and High Toby seem to be the favorites, but each of the other four entries, Calumet B., Hackfast, Helen D., and Capt. Cope are known to have the goods. As a trot is always very pretty to watch this class should prove a very popular one.

Next on the programme will be the 2.17 pace. There are ten entries and eight certain starters in this class, and with such performers as Hanover Courier, McElwyn the Great, Trixie Volo, Peter Onward, Star G., Soviet, we will not even attempt to pick a winner. Some of the Maritime's best drivers will be seen, with such aristocracy of the turf as Johnny Conroy, Peter Conroy, Billy Cummings and others in the sulky seats.

The stupendous entry list for the 2.29 mixed will make it necessary to run elimination heats in this class. There are no less than nineteen entries and each and every one is expected for the word. The popular three year old class has eight entries with none expected to be scratched. Guy Anne has only been defeated once in her three starts, having followed Hi Sox to the wire in two heats at the Exhibition meet last fall. This time Charlottetown enthusiasts have the cry going that Jackie Volo can take her measure but at any rate we are certain that each heat will be a fight to the finish.

On the strength of the large number of entries reviewed above it may readily be seen that Dr. Charles Dougan is going to have his hands full on Wednesday and everyone is wishing him the greatest success in his difficult initial appearance as a starter

British Doubles Team Drop Bitterly Fought 4-set Match To Challengers

WIMBLEDON, England, July 27—(CP)—The Australian Davis Cup team remained in running for the international tennis trophy it last won in 1919 when Jack Crawford and Adrian Quist emerged victorious after a bitterly-fought doubles victory over the British combination of Pat Hughes and Charles Tuckey today. The scores were 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 10-8.

Although the Britons were defeated they remained strong favorite to retain the trophy they have held for three years as they need only one victory in the two remaining singles matches tomorrow. Fred Perry, Britain's ace and world's No. 1 ranking player, will meet Crawford in one of the matches and H. W. "Bunny" Austin takes on Quist in the other.

Perry and Crawford have met 13 times with the Briton holding nine victories. In Austin Quist will meet a player at the top of his game as evidenced by the stylish Briton's conquest of Crawford Saturday.

Today's play was spotty throughout but brightened in the final set when Crawford's drives and Quist's well-aimed cross-court volleys overcame Hughes and Tuckey.

Hawks Win Playoff Opener 5-3

Hawks sprang a surprise on the favored Cubs last night when in the first game of a best out of seven series for the championship of the Eastern Twilight baseball they downed their opponents 5 to 3 in a thrilling see-saw battle. Hawks overcame the Cubs' first inning run with a two run burst in the second to take the lead but the Cubs, fighting grimly, replied with a two run rally of their own in the fourth to again take command. Again it was short-lived as the Hawks tied it up in the fifth and then climaxed their brilliant performance in the seventh by pushing across the winning runs on two hits, a walk and an error. Cubs threatened in the ninth as they put a runner on third but the Hawks' pitcher bore down hard to get the next two batters on strikes.

The game, witnessed by a big crowd of fans, was well played throughout and was mainly a hurling duel all the way. It was the best league game played to date and full of sparkling plays throughout.

The next game of what promises to be a bitterly fought series takes place Friady night at 6.15.

Lineups:

Hawks—Gillis, rf., Tierney, lf., Kenslow, c., Michael, p., Shama, 1b., Doyle, 2b, Callaghan, cf., Mullins, 3b., Flanagan, ss.

Cubs—C. Donovan, 3b., Mahar, ss., Pius Bolger, 1b., "Pump" Bolger, cf., Murphy, c., Donovan, rf., Conway, 2b., Bryenton, lf.

Umpires—H. McLeod, plate, F. Tierney and D. Gillis on bases.

Island Golf Championships Start Wednesday

The first round of the Prince Edward Island golf championship which was rained out on Saturday will be played on Wednesday afternoon with the men playing at Charlottetown and the ladies at Summerside. On Saturday of this week the ladies will play at Charlottetown and the men at Summerside, as originally scheduled.

The tea hostesses at the Belvedere Golf Club Wednesday afternoon are Mrs. (Dr.) F. E. Smallwood, Mrs. Percy Gullison, Mrs. W. E. Massey, Mrs. H. M. Simpson and Miss Marjorie Chandler.

Important Softball Tilt Tonight

8th Battery tackle Superiors tonight in an important City League softball game. Both teams are tied with the Rovers for second place but Rovers' defeat last night at the hands of Stewarts will give tonight's winner undisputed second place in the standing.

Battery and Superiors have split in two meetings so far this season and both squads will be out to cop the deciding game of the series.

Game starts at 6.15 and will be handled by Nels Whitlock.

Dodgers To Play At Summerside

On Wednesday evening, after the races at the Trotting Park, Summerside will again hook up with the Charlottetown Dodgers. Thus far in the season the Dodgers have defeated teams from the Western Capital on three occasions, have tied one game, and all this, while suffering only one defeat. The All Stars held a workout on Friday evening, were rained out on Saturday evening, but will have another heavy practice on Tuesday, when it is hoped a full turnout will be on hand. There has been a considerable layoff since the last game, and the position of the local line-up may be somewhat of a problem. The starting battery in all probability will be Wilson and Phillips, with Dodds and Durant in reserve. The rest of the lineup with possible rearrangement is as follows: 1st base, Willard Durant; 2nd base, C. Ward; 3rd base, P. MacCabe; short stop, Dodds or Phillips, and an outfield of Millman, H. Clow, E. Ward.—D.

Bees Defeat Giants 7-5 In H.R. League

The powerful and smooth-working Bees handed the Giants their first defeat in the second section of Holy Redeemer Parishs' Baseball House League last evening. The game was a hard-fought affair, 7-5 was the score.

Good sound baseball has marked this league so far this season. Bees won the first section.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27 — Helen Wills Moody, many times winner of the English and United States tennis championships, announced today she had decided to pass up the 1936 American tournament and indicated she was through with major competition.

The San Francisco matron listed two reasons why she had decided not to pay in the east this summer—first because "I do not want to be away from home for so long", and second "I am very interested in getting a good start in the designing work I am doing."
