

Homemaker's Dream Is A Gay Kitchen and Dining Area

By EROL JANE WELTON
WOMEN'S EDITOR

A homemaker's dream of an efficient kitchen is one with color, gaiety and lots of livability. These qualities make your hours shorter. Your outlook on rushing around and preparing meals is changed. Efficiency seems to be the key word these days when dealing with kitchens. It is the place where you prepare meals for your family, menus are formed, new recipes are tested - and maybe it is the place where mother entertains at morning coffee or sister brings the "gang" in for hot chocolate after skating these brisk days.

Kitchens once looked like well-planned laboratories - stark white walls and gleaming appliances along the impersonal wall. In the revolt against these over-impersonalized kitchens, ideas have been let loose and now there is no stopping. This is the most human of rooms.

EXCITING COLORS

The latest designs have shown appliances in everything from a soft copper color to tones of pink and blue, as well as traditional white. Just this year there has appeared a new wide selection in varied hues of decorator colors.

YEARS GONE BY

Back in grandmother's day, kitchen was "home." There the kettles would be kept boiling constantly, the rocking chairs would be set beside the fire and a general homey atmosphere prevailed.

MORNING SMILE

"I had bad luck with both my wives."
"How is that?"
"The first eloped."
"And the second?"
"Didda!"

Following their recent marriage at Trinity United Church, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilfred Biso cut their wedding cake at their reception. The bride, the former Miss Margaret Ann Gill, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill, Union

LET'S EAT

A Way With Seasoning Turned Cook Into Chef

By Ida Bailey Allen

"What an opportunity cooking is for one with an artistic touch!" exclaimed the Chef. "One can harmonize in taste—sharp, sweet, hot, cold—and make beautiful food pictures! I am speaking, Madame, of the ladies of the nation fortunate enough to be nation donnas of the kitchen."

TRICK OF THE CHEF
