TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market slipped narrowly Wednesday amid moderately-active trading.

Base metals and western oils had index losses of ¾ and ½ points, respectively. Golds had little change.

Profit-taking, which began earlier this week following a strong advance last week, continued in some sections although there signs of fresh buying.

Western oils and base metals moved down. Gains among senior issues were small while losses ranged to a point. Among lower-priced stocks losses ran as high as 25 cents but most were less than 15 cents. A few 10-cent gains dotted the lists.

Index changes: Golds up .03 to 83.55; base metal off .77 to 178.48; western oils off .44 to 137.18.
