

Leafs Defeat Rangers 5-3; Leafs Snap Losing Streak

THE CANADIAN PRESS
 Montreal Canadiens at least temporarily snuffed out New York Rangers' bid to vacate the National Hockey League cellar Friday night and added, as a bit of padding to their first cushion with a 5-3 victory. The loss spelled doom for a New York winning streak which had stretched to three games.

Two streaks were broken in Montreal as the Maple Leafs, losers of their previous five games, won a 4-2 decision over Detroit Wings. The victory pushed the Leafs a little closer to second-place Wings and snapped a six-game Detroit winning streak.

The big man for Montreal was goalie Gerry James. He made one out of action for 10 days.

Stewart suffered a bruised right ankle early in the game after being checked. He's figured to be back next Saturday night.

George Armstrong, Bobby Babin, Gerry Ehman and Allan Stanley scored for Toronto. Les Lundie and Murray Oliver were the Detroit marksmen.

But for some terrific saves by Terry Sawchuk and his own erratic shooting, Leafs could well have run up a higher score. Wings' outshot Leafs 35-26 but Sawchuk had the tougher saves to make.

Ed Chadwick was in the nets for Toronto for the first time this season as regular goaltender Johnny Bower was given a rest. Chadwick's work was for the most part routine although he gave a steady performance as the Wings pressed in the third period.

Bathgate made it 2-1 on a screened shot.

But Canadiens took over, rapping in four goals before the period ended. Backstrom scored at 6:13 and Harvey at 1:35, each after trapping the puck in the New York end. Backstrom got his second at 14:42 on Billy Hicke's pass and Marshall flipped in Henri Richard's goalmouth setup at 17:38.

Bartlett's goal at 9:12 of the third period was an anti-climax as he put a low shot into the corner past Jacques Plante.

At Toronto, Leafs made hay on some inept defensive play by the Wings. But their victory was a costly one: Centre Larry Regan and right winger Ron Stewart were both lost through injuries.

Regan suffered a badly broken nose late in the game when struck by a puck fired by teammate Gerry James. He made one out of action for 10 days.

Greaves Scores All Goals

NEW YORK'S GOALS came one to each period, scored by Camille Perry, Andy Bathgate and Jim Ulfert.

Rangers took a 1-0 first-period lead as Henry hit paydirt on an Cullen's passout at 2:41. Perry, capitalizing on a Jeanneau rebound, evened it up in the second period before

Chelsea Topples League Leaders

LONDON (CP) — Jimmy Greaves, 19-year-old star of Chelsea, almost solely toppled Preston North End from the top of the English Soccer League's First Division Saturday, scoring five goals in his team's 5-4 victory at Preston.

Greaves' goal-snatching performance opened the way for Tottenham Hotspurs to climb back into the league lead.

Tottenham, helped by goals from halfbacks Danny Blanchflower and Alf Norman, beat Newcastle United 4-0. The Spurs have 30 points from 22 matches, while Preston has 29 points. Wolverhampton Wanderers are third in the standing with 28 points. They scored a 2-0 victory over Birmingham City. The Wanderers are the defending champions.

ARSENAL SWAMPED

Sheffield Wednesday swamped Arsenal 5-1. The teams were tied 1-1 at half-time until Arsenal lost its forward, Vic Groves, with a leg injury and Sheffield rammed in four more goals.

Aston Villa defeated Brighton 2-1 and stayed on the top of the Second Division with 35 points. Rotherham, in second place with 33 points, was held to a 2-2 tie by Charlton.

In the Third Division, Southampton took over the lead by beating Norwich 2-1. Bury slipped to second place by losing 3-0 at Chesterfield.

Walsall continued to clean up in the Fourth Division by lashing Crewe Alexandra 5-1. Walsall ended with a six-point lead over second-place Torquay, which won 3-1 at Doncaster.

In the Scottish League, Hearts maintained the lead in the First Division by three points by defeating Raith Rovers 4-1. Rangers, in second place, downed Airdrieonians 5-0.

Aces, Royals Play Tonight

TONIGHT AT Civic Stadium the Aces and Royals go at it again. These two teams never fail to draw the cash customers when they're battling for victory, and you can be assured of stirring times again tonight.

The Aces' desperate attempts to stop Angie Carol in his sensational, headlong rushes is a show worth the price of admission.

Most of the games this year have been nip and tuck affairs, but until the final siren, fans are advised to make the most of tonight a part of their Christmas season entertainment.

Giants & Colts Clash for Grid Title Sunday

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore Colts and New York Giants are set to rematch their football game that could recreate Baltimore's dramatic comeback behind 23-17 victory in the overtime for the National Football League championship year. That game was labelled the greatest ever played.

The sports world has been wondering since if the Colts could do it again.

The 55,557 seats in Memorial Stadium will be filled and millions more will be watching on television to see if the Colts can, both Baltimore and New York line up to the championship in high spirit after mid-season slumps.

The Colts dropped successive divisions to Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins. Many fans off the Colts at that stage, but they had dropped three of ten games and were trailing the San Francisco 49ers by two in the western conference.

EARL BACK
 The Colts roared through their last five games, including victories by the impressive scores of 45-14 and 34-14 over San Francisco.

The Giants also lost their second game of the season, and in their seventh and eighth games their offence was weak. Two weeks in-a-row, three field goals by Pat Summerall were all the New Yorkers were able to score. They were enough to beat Chicago Cardinals 9-3, but Pittsburgh Steelers took them with two touchdowns.

However, the scoring punch returned in a 30-20 triumph over Cardinals, 45-14 and 24-10 over Washington, and 48-7 against Cleveland to give the Giants the eastern conference title again.

The Colts offence never was faulty, its lowest output being 21 points.

ALL-TIME RECORDS
 Quarterback Johnny Unitas threw 32 passes for touchdowns, an all-time league record. He hasn't been blanked in 37 straight games, also an all-time record.

Fault has been found at times with the Colt defence except in one department — pass interceptions. The Baltimore secondary stole 40 enemy aerials.

The New York defence is its trademark, although the passing of veteran Charley Conerly at quarterback along with the running is no slouch on the attack. Conerly from a statistic viewpoint wound up the league's leading passer with an 8.79-yard average.

Olmedo Loses in Pro Debut

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Alex Olmedo, the swarthy Peruvian star of the U.S. Davis Cup team, lost to Australia's Lew Hoad Sunday in his professional debut. But promoter Jack Kramer was delighted.

"It was a terrific debut," Kramer commented happily after Olmedo's new pro lost 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 to veteran Aussie before 5,000 fans at outdoor White City Stadium.

"Alex hasn't played a tough match for a long time and I thought he really did well for his first match with us," Kramer added.

"I would have played better," Olmedo said, "but it was the first big game I've played for three months. I needed the competition."

Later, Olmedo showed the Hoad match did some good as he teamed smoothly with Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles to whip Hoad and Australia's Ken Rosewall in doubles, 6-4, 6-4. Gonzales won the second singles match, defeating Rosewall, 6-2, 6-4.

TRICK WIND
 Olmedo, who turned pro last month for a $35,000 first-year guarantee from Kramer, was erratic in the singles match. The temperature was in the high 80s and a trick cross-wind appeared to bother both players, Olmedo particularly.

Alex, who went into a slump after winning the Wimbledon title this year, cracked Hoad's service in the ninth game to set up his victory in the first set. He double-faulted to lose service in the crucial 11th game of the second set and made a series of errors to drop four straight games after holding Hoad to 2-2 in the first four of the third set.

Kramer billed the matches as an international test between the U.S. and Australia. The winning U.S. pair (Gonzales and Olmedo) received $3,360 while Hoad and Rosewall split $1,120.
