SECOND EDITION

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 30, 1880.

AUSTRIA desires an alliance with Roumania.

It is expected that Prince Leopold will leave England on the 29th of April for Canada.

THE ex-Empress Eugenie embarked at Southampton on Thursday, with a small suite, for South Africa.

A ROME despatch affirms that the Duke of Geneva will be married to the Princess Beatrice in May.

LARGE quantities of potatoes are coming into market; eighteen cents is the price. R. T. Holman and David Rogers, Esquires, are buying them.—S. Progress.

GLADSTONE'S recent speech against Austria is ridiculed by the German press. His calling Russia the friend of liberty is declared so utterly unintelligible as to baffle all explanation.

A BOMBAY despatch says a proclamation has been issued declaring that the British have now taken control over the whole political administration of North and East Afghanistan.

THE Society for Irish Church Missions to Roman Catholics has raised $3,225,045 within the last twenty-six years for its work in Ireland. It has been the means of erecting 19 churches, 33 school houses, and a few parsonages and orphanages, and it employs 386 agents. It works largely by controversial methods, and distributes its documents profusely.

We understand the tenants on Lot 19 intend holding a mass meeting, and will again petition the Government for a reduction of price on the Government Lands in that Township. They doubtless have an equitable claim, not only for a reduction in price but also for a refund to those who have paid up. We trust the Government may see its way clear to meet the views of the tenants in this connexion. Mr. Bentley stated the case very well last winter, and no doubt will return to the subject this session.—S. Progress.

A LOTTERY for prizes amounting to $250 took place in Large's Hall, on Monday evening. The following are the successful ticket-holders:—

No. 26, Side Spring Wagon.—

" 60, Piano—Thos. Robins.

" 71, Bells—P. M. Bourke, Lot 49.

" 77, 1 Mare, 5 years old—John Davis.

" 99, Light Road Wagon—Neil Matheson, North River.

" 101, Sett Harness—Thos. Lowther.

" 160, Driving Sleigh—P. S. Brown.

" 222, Buffalo Robe—P. S. Brown.

" 223, Tuffalo Sleigh—P. S. Brown.

THE Boston "Advertiser" states that a despatch has been received in that city from Washington, stating that positive information has been received there that General Grant will withdraw as a candidate before the Chicago Convention. It is further stated that the friends of Secretary Sherman have been expecting the withdrawal of General Grant, and have been forming a skeleton organization throughout the country with the hope of bringing to the support of their candidate the Grant strength, in the event of his retirement. This is a very pretty story, but there are not many people even in Washington simple enough to believe that Grant will withdraw.

JOHN QUINN, who hanged himself in a Buffalo police cell, last Sunday, was a bad specimen of the Fenian army which invaded Canada in 1866. It seems that he was leader of the force which crossed into Canadian territory at Fort Erie, but got gloriously drunk and was captured by our troops. He was taken to Toronto, tried, found guilty and condemned to die. His sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life, but after being confined for six years he was liberated. After obtaining his freedom he continued his career of dissipation and was frequently in the police station for beating his feeble relatives. It was for one of these exploits that he was put in the cell on Sunday, in which, an hour later, he was found dead. He had hanged himself to the door of his cell with his pocket handkerchief.

THE Californian law lately passed prohibiting corporations from employing Chinese workmen has just been declared void by a United States Circuit Court in San Francisco. The Sand Lots crowd are immensely exasperated at the decision, and threaten with death the man who was the means of evoking the judgment. The decision, it is thought, will be appealed from to the United States Supreme Court, which however, is expected to confirm the judgment of the lower Court. But meanwhile anxiety prevails in San Francisco. A day or two ago, the thirty days notice given by the San Francisco Board of Health for the abatement of the Chinese nuisance in that city expired. Said nuisance was simply the existence of Chinese quarters in San Francisco. Sand Lot ruffians may ere this have undertaken the task of abatement—and abatement at their hands would mean arson, massacre and pillage.

Parliamentary Returns.

(Ottawa Citizen, March 23rd.)

A return brought down to-day shows the quantity of wheat, flour, oatmeal, corn-meal, barley, Indian corn, and oats imported into each of the Provinces, exclusive of British Columbia, since March 14th, 1879, up to February 1st, 1880, and the duty collected thereon. It shows as follows:

	Value.	For Home Consumption.	Duty.
Ontario,	$ 757,665	$ 378,126	$ 66,676
Quebec,	9,354,922	88,970	14,542

The Banquet to Sir A. T. Galt.

A BRILLIANT TRIBUTE TO CANADA'S ENVOY.

MONTREAL, March 24.—Sir A. T. Galt was entertained by the citizens of Montreal, without distinction of party, to a grand farewell banquet this evening, previous to his departure for London, as Resident Minister of Canada. The Hon. James Ferrier occupied the chair, with the guest of the evening on his right and Sir Charles Tupper, Minister of Railways, on his left. The Hon. Messrs. Baby and J. H. Pope were also present. The company consisted of all our principal bankers, merchants and professional men, and was a rich affair in every particular.

After the usual toasts were proposed, the Senate and House of Commons drew replies from Senator Fabre and Sir Charles Tupper. They spoke in the highest terms of the talent and abilities of Sir A. T. Galt, and said the greatest compliment that could be paid him was the fact that his services had been sought on behalf of the country for high missions by Governments of opposite politics.

In proposing the principal toast of the evening, the chairman alluded briefly to the past services of Sir A. T. Galt to the country, and angured lasting benefits to the Dominion as the result of his present mission.

On rising to respond, Sir Alexander Galt was received with a perfect ovation of applause and wild enthusiasm. Several minutes elapsed before he was permitted to proceed. On silence being restored he expressed his thanks for the compliment which his fellow-citizens paid him. He was not vain enough to accept it in any other light than as an endorsement of the new departure of the Government in placing a Resident Minister in London to strengthen the ties which bound Canada to the mother country. His duties, he said, would be to conduct the financial affairs of the Dominion, which had grown so large on the English market; secondly to induce immigration to our shores; and thirdly, to take part as a diplomat with Her Majesty's Government in making commercial treaties affecting the trade of Canada. He dwelt at considerable length on each of these subjects, showing the growing importance of the Dominion being properly represented at the present time. In concluding his address, Sir Alexander alluded to the interesting question of the defence of Canada, and advocated the establishment of a naval reserve trained in our waters. He also dwelt at much length on the territorial question, and pointed out the vast importance of the opening up of the North West, which he characterized as the greatest wheat producing country in the world. The commercial part of his mission was all important, now that Canada had full liberty to levy her own taxes in whatever form she liked. Sir Alexander was warmly cheered on concluding his eloquent speech, which lasted over an hour, and was not finished until a few minutes before twelve o'clock.

Dissolution of the Imperial Parliament.

The Queen, in a speech in the House of Lords, on proroguing Parliament, says she is induced, by consideration of public policy and convenience, to select this period of the session for releasing Parliament from its duties, with a view to its immediate dissolution, and the issue of writs for a general election. She tenders her warm acknowledgements to Parliament for the zeal and ability displayed, especially in the manner in which the policy of the Government has been upheld. She said that foreign relations were favorable to the maintenance of peace in Europe, and expressed confidence in the speedy settlement of affairs in Afghanistan. Referring to measures for the relief of the distress in Ireland, she said that she trusted they will be accepted by her Irish subjects as a proof of the ready sympathy of the Imperial Parliament. Concerning the commercial and industrial depression, she rejoiced in the present signs of general improvement. Her Majesty paid a tribute to the high spirit with which agricultural classes contend against disasters, and concluded with invoking the divine guidance in the approaching election. Her speech was read by the Lord High Chancellor. There were present only twenty-five members of the House of Commons; fourteen Peers and eleven ladies.
