

The Sister.

She never knew the music soft and sweet— The patter of a little baby's feet ; She never knew the world of joy and bliss That lingers in a husband's tender kiss ;

She never knew the heartache and the pain Of living loving, and that loving vain ; She never knew the sorrow and the woe Of losing light from eyes whose radiant glow Was all her sun !

—Claskey Cromwell.

Saved by a Mother's Influence

In a railroad car a man about sixty years old came to sit beside me. He had heard me lecturing the evening before on Temperance. "I am master of a ship," said he, "sailing out of New York, and have just returned from my fiftieth voyage across the Atlantic. About thirty years ago I was a sot, shipped while dead drunk, and was carried on board like a log. When I came to the Captain asked me: 'Do you remember your mother?' I told him she died before I could remember. 'Well,' said he, 'I am a Vermont man. When I was young I was crazy to go sea. At last my mother consented I should seek my fortune. My boy' she said, 'I don't know anything about towns, and I never saw the sea, but they tell me they make thousands of drunkards. Now, promise me you'll never drink a drop of liquor.' He said, 'I laid my hand in hers and promised, as I looked in her eyes for the last time. She died soon after. I've been on every sea, seen the worst kind of life and men. They laughed at me as a milkop, and wanted to know if I was a coward. But when they offered me liquor I saw my mother's pleading face, and I never drank a drop. It has been my sheet-anchor. I owe all to that. Would you like to take that pledge?' said he. My companion took it, and he added, 'It has saved me. I have a fine ship, wife and children at home, and I have helped others.' That earnest mother saved two men to virtue and usefulness—how many more! He who sees all alone can tell.—Wendell Phillips.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

It is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been impressed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pains." Sore throat cannot stand before its power. All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more. See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised. R. V. BARKER, St. John, Wholesale Agent W. R. WATSON, Charlottetown, P. E. I. J. A.
