

Outstanding Track and Field Meet Staged By Maritime Athletes At Summerside Lobster Carnival

THE MEN'S open 220 yard dash in yesterday's sports program held in conjunction with the Summerside Lobster Carnival saw a pretty exciting finish between two contestants from Antigonish, N.S. Here Kevin Smith reaches the finish line just seconds before second place winner, Grant Putnam. The sports program was held at Queen Elizabeth Park and most major Maritime centres were represented.

MANY RECORDS were broken at the Summerside Lobster Carnival track and field meet yesterday and the girls 100 yard dash proved to be no exception. Here Anna Ripley, Amherst, N.S., sprinted home to establish a record time of 11.5 seconds. Held at Queen Elizabeth Park, the sports program was highlighted by the attendance of Hal Brown, track and field coach at the University of Toronto. He was Canadian coach at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome and was the referee-in-chief at the sports program yesterday.

Beryl Macmis To Reign As 'Miss P.E.I.' For '962

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN—The coronation of Summerside, lovely 18-year-old, brown-eyed brunette, was chosen "Miss P.E.I. 1962" at the Summerside Lobster Carnival last night before a capacity crowd in Summerside Stadium.

Her two princesses chosen by the name of three judges are four twenty Prince County girls. Miss Betty Jean Callaghan, of Summerside, and Miss Marcella Gallant, of Egmont Bay.

The new "Miss Prince Edward Island" will be officially crowned this afternoon at Summerside stadium by last year's queen, Miss Cheryl O'Connell, of Summerside, and her coronation parade and motorcade commencing at the marine wharf at 1:45 p.m.

Miss Macmis, the newly chosen "Miss P.E.I.", is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Macmis, of Summerside, and was sponsored by the Summerside Lions Club.

Miss Callaghan, one of the two princesses, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Callaghan of Summerside, and was sponsored by the Summerside branch of the Canadian Legion.

The other princess, Miss Gallant, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Gallant, of Egmont Bay, and was sponsored by the SUMMERSIDE—Records broken out the afternoon's program. At 7:30 this evening the new Miss Prince Edward Island will present prizes to the winners of the float parade, to the women's institutes and the winners in the different livestock classes.

At 8:30 the singing Cadeegans will return to perform before the spectators. The highlight of the five-day event will take place at the Canadian Legion home in the form of a coronation ball, which is by reservation only and has been sold out for some time.

At this ball, Miss P.E.I. will reign in the presence of many distinguished visitors.

At the same time a hard time's ball will be held at Civic Stadium where the champion on another Lobster Carnival.

Alberton Aquatic Day Slated Wed.

ALBERTON BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN—The annual Alberton Aquatic Day, sponsored by Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade, will be held at Alberton Harbour on Wednesday, July 25, and a bigger and better day of water sports is in the planning stage.

The three-mile swim, feature event of the afternoon, is being sponsored this year by the first time, by Eastern Bakeries Ltd., Saint John and a beautiful trophy will be awarded the winner along with a cash prize.

Davidson Biggar has won the three-mile race five times in the seven-year history of Aquatic Day at Alberton. He was the first to make an entry last year. The ladies' division was won last year by Helen Carragher of Miramichi.

The three-mile course has been changed to avoid strong currents at the entrance to Alberton Harbor where some swimmers got in difficulty last year. The outdoor race is a crowd pleasing feature in other years, and have been expanded to six classes, up to seven and a half, 16 and under, 25 and under, 40 and under, and 60 H.P. and under, free for all, and a fishing boat race.

In addition there is a half-mile swim, a 200 yard freestyle swim open to non-residents of this province. A special event will be diving acts by a champion diver and displays of skills by local and visiting experts.

The events will be officially opened by B. Graham Rogers, provincial director of transport.

92nd Anniversary Of Church To Be Observed At Freeland

FREELAND — Freeland Presbyterian Church will observe its 92nd anniversary on Sunday, with the Rev. C. Ritchie Bell, D.D. as guest preacher, at 11 a.m.

The original church was built around 1870. This was replaced in the closing years of the 19th Century by the present beautiful edifice. In 1900 an unanimous decision was reached to purchase an organ and in 1919 the first electric lights were installed.

In 1958 a communion table was presented by the Henderson family in memory of R. C. Henderson.

The minister since March, 1956, has been Rev. L. M. MacNaughton.

Members of session are Harry MacKay, Everett Harry, Joshua MacArthur, Harold Millar and Marjorie Outway.

Members of the board of managers are Ira Bunk, Arthur Smith, Ivan Hardy, Roland Millar, Marquis Outway, Harold Millar and Joshua MacArthur.

The organist is Mrs. Harry MacKay, the church treasurer, Mrs. Erving Smith, and the church officer, James Hardy.

One of the Freeland members, Mrs. Ivan Hardy is president of the P.E.I. Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society.

The congregation gave one of its young men to the christian ministry, Rev. J. Lloyd Henderson of Portage La Prairie, Manitoba.

Canada Gets Major Award

BISLEY, England (CP)—Canada was the Mackinnon trophy, a major award for team shooting, at the Biscley national rifle association matches Friday.

A special 12-man team picked from the 18-man Dominion team scored 1,044 out of a possible 1,200 shooting at 200 and 1,000 yards.

Scotland scored 1,639; England 1,621; Ireland 1,620; and Wales 1,600.

As the last Canadians finished their targets, word of their high scores spread and men from the other teams clustered around the Canadian scoreboard waiting for the final result.

Canada's last Mackinnon win was in 1952 with a score of 1,031. England won last year with 1,678.

Top shot of the 12-man team was a Wing Commander, Jim Gordon of Pembold, Ala., with 85 out of a possible 100.
