MRS. EDMUND MAYNARD
 On November 15th, her family, Mrs. Maynard, was saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Edmund Maynard in her 90th year.
 Mrs. Maynard was born Sarah Jane MacArthur on October 15, 1873, daughter of the late Alexander MacArthur and Emily MacLean. She married Edmund Maynard in Charlottetown, P.E.I., they made their home in Northam. Her husband predeceased her in June, 1961, at the age of 97. Mrs. Maynard was a loving wife and mother, a leader in all community work, being a member of St. James W.A. and a charter member of the Northam Women's Club.
 Left to mourn are two sons and six daughters, Arthur, Muriel, Leona, Fred, the late Alexander MacArthur and Emily MacLean. She married Edmund Maynard in Charlottetown, P.E.I., they made their home in Northam. Her husband predeceased her in June, 1961, at the age of 97. Mrs. Maynard was a loving wife and mother, a leader in all community work, being a member of St. James W.A. and a charter member of the Northam Women's Club.
 The large attended funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Newcombe, Tyne Valley. Service was conducted by the Rev. Delwood MacNeil, pastor of St. James Anglican Church cemetery.
 The many floral tributes, messages and cards of sympathy told in silent tribute how much she was loved and how much she was missed.
