ATTENTION FIRST YEAR SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS

A friendly reminder from your Peer Advisors and Shirley Hudson....

The September Fun Event will be occurring on Thurs. Sept. 28 (not 30th as appeared on your letter), from 7-9pm in Robertson Library Room 111.

Come meet other scholarship students, talk about your scholarship and have some fun! See you there!

Society wants to hear from you. Our meetings are held in the basement of the Alumni Gym on Tuesday nights at 7:00. So drop in, even if you are merely curious we would enjoy seeing you. Hope you can make it.

Tall, good-looking, blond, blue-eyed female, interested in meaningful relationship with tall, dark, handsome male in touch with his feelings.... respond to mailbox 14 at the X-Press

PEI,
We had the good times, we had the bad times. I will only remember the good ones for the rest of my life! " And if nothing matters at all then the hurts not so bad when you fall!" Thanks PEI!

Leon,
Where was D. Sanders when M. Irvin caught all those passes? In baseball, where he belongs!

CAMPUS COMMENT

This week's question: "What Does 'Frosh' mean to you?"

Heather Page, 3rd year science: "People who are just the same as the rest of us, but haven't experienced the fun of University life yet."

Firo Muffi, 1st year business: "First year, beginner, 'I feel like such an idiot.'"

Jason Walsh, 1st year science: "Someone who is new to a University."

Michael Dixon, 1st year business: "Orientation, getting to know the campus"

Geraldine Quinn, 4th year arts "Doesn't mean anything to me. It is a stupid word and it pisses me off."

Smantha Ronalds, 1st year Science: " Finding Real Outrageously Sexy Hunks"

Jennifer Matchett, 3rd year Arts "Fresh Right Out of Senior High

Greg Porter, 4th year Arts: "Student who are attending University for the first time."

Ed. Note -- Interesting to see how not one person said "freshman", eh?
