Welland Canal Enlargement.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for the Welland Canal," will be received at this office until the arrival of the Eastern and Western mails on FRIDAY, the 14th DAY OF NOVEMBER next, for the deepening of the Welland Canal, between Ramsay's Bend and Port Colborne, known as Sections Nos. 33 and 34, embracing the greater part of what is called the "Rock Cut."

Plans showing the position of the work and specifications for what remains to be done, can be seen at this office, and at the Resident Engineer's Office, Welland, on and after TUESDAY, the 4th day of NOVEMBER next, where printed forms of tender can be obtained.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and in the case of firms, except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the same; and further, an accepted Bank cheque for the sum of three thousand dollars for Section No. 33, and one for four thousand dollars for Section No. 34 must accompany the respective Tenders, which sum shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for works, at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque or money thus sent in will be returned to the respective contractors whose Tenders are not accepted.

For the due fulfillment of the contract, satisfactory security will be required by the deposit of money to the amount of five per cent. on the bulk sum of the contract; of which the sum sent in with the Tender, will be considered a part.

Ninety per cent only of the progress estimates will be paid until the completion of the work.

To each Tender must be attached the actual signatures of two responsible and solvent persons, residents of the Dominion, willing to become sureties for the carrying out of these conditions, as well as the due performance of the works embraced in the Contract.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any Tender.

F. BRAUN,
Secretary.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN.

MONTREAL, Nov. 8.

Seven vessels are expected to take out cattle for London and Liverpool before the season closes, and the fine weather prevalent give shippers a hope that they will realize large profits.

QUEBEC, Nov. 8.

Intelligence has been received here of the frightful death of a farmer of the county of Portneuf, at St. Casimire. Two hunters, while going their rounds a few days ago in the wild country at the head of the Lake of the Seven Islands in St. Casimire, came upon a portion of the remains of the unfortunate man in a bear trap which held him by the arms, while a good portion of his body had been eaten by bears.

UNITED STATES.

KANSAS, CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.

The extensive cracker and candy manufactory of Carle & Sons, four brick three-story buildings, tumbled down, ignited and were completely consumed yesterday. One hundred and seven persons, mostly boys and girls from 12 to 20 years old, were at work; all escaped save seven. The cause of the accident cannot be fully determined, but as an explosion occurred simultaneously with the fall of the walls, it is supposed to be a repetition of the accident in New York last year, viz., a starch explosion. Parents and friends of the employed flocked to the scene, and as soon as the firemen subdued the flames they set to work digging for the dead, and up to 10 p. m. had taken out three. Those still missing are supposed to be in the ruins. The buildings and contents are a total loss; insured for $20,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.

News is received of the loss of the schr. "Pence," which sailed Oct. 25th for a whaling voyage on the Atlantic Ocean. Fifteen persons were drowned. The whaling schr. Florence is also reported lost in Cumberland Straits. She went ashore during a gale. The crew was landed safely, but suffered greatly from exposure.

A TERRIBLE DEED.

BANGOR, ME., Nov. 8.

James J. Norris, agent of the large saw mill of Cutter & Eddy, Bangor, was found dead by the roadside in Bradley this morning, with his head frightfully mangled and throat cut from ear to ear. Norris left his office near the mill at 9 o'clock last night for his home, a quarter of a mile distant. When about half way home he was attacked from behind by a man who struck him in the back of the head with an axe and crushed in his skull. The murderer then cut the throat of his victim from ear to ear with an axe. The deed was probably committed for money and revenge. A Frenchman named Burdock is suspected. This fellow was yesterday discharged from the mill by Norris for various misdeeds. He was very mad with Norris and expressed a spirit of revenge and a desire to rob the office of the Company. $1,000, which was yesterday placed there, very likely actuated him to the terrible deed. The Frenchman has been arrested for the murder of Norris. The evidence is strong against him. It is believed he had accomplices who have escaped.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.

Paul Leaman, a farmer residing near Paterson, N. J., was shockingly murdered in his barn on Friday night. His son Homer has been committed to jail on suspicion of the crime. Son and father frequently quarreled about property.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

A correspondent at Constantinople reports that the director of the press has ordered all Turkish newspapers to desist from attacking England under penalty of suppression.

Sir Austin Layard has been instructed to enter upon negotiations immediately with regard to the reforms in Asia Minor.

A Vienna despatch says that when Prince Lobanoff returned to Constantinople from Liradia he ordered the Porte to fulfil the wishes of England, regarding Asia Minor.

WHAT RUSSIA WILL DO.

VIENNA, Nov. 8.

A St. Petersburg letter says:—If the new British Parliament sustains Beaconsfield's policy, Russia will occupy Northern Afghanistan.

EQUAL TO THE EMERGENCY.—The Ottawa Free Press says:—"The proprietor of a country newspaper, not more than a thousand miles from Ottawa, whose subscribers are evidently backward in coming forward, hit upon the novel idea of offering a copy of his paper for one year to the farmer who left a peck of the largest potatoes. The result was that he secured about twenty bushels of potatoes at the rate of about five cents a bushel, as the price of the paper is only one dollar for the year, and he only furnishes a copy of it to one party out of the lot. The country editor in question is smart enough to keep a corner grocery."

What a Woman Can Do.

As a wife and mother, woman can make the fortune and happiness of her husband and children; and, if she did nothing else, surely this would be sufficient destiny. By her thrift, prudence and tact she can secure to her partner and to herself a competency in old age, no matter how small their beginning or how adverse a fate may be theirs. By her cheerfulness she can restore her husband's spirit shaken by the anxiety of business. By her tender care she can often restore him to health if disease has over-taken his powers. By her counsel and love she can win him from bad company if temptation in an evil hour has led him astray. By her examples, her precepts, and her sex's insight into character she can mould her children, however adverse their dispositions, into noble men and women. And by leading in all things a true and beautiful life, she can refine, elevate, and spiritualize all who come within reach; so that, with others of her sex emulating and assisting her, she can do more to regenerate the world than all the statesmen or reformers that ever legislated. She can do much, alas! perhaps more, to degrade man if she chooses to do it. Who can estimate the evils that woman has power to do? As a wife she can ruin herself by extravagance, folly or want of affection. She can make a demon or an outcast of a man who might otherwise become a good member of society. She can bring bickerings, strife, and discord into what has been a happy home. She can change the innocent babes into vile men and women. She can lower the moral tone of society itself, and thus pollute legislation at the spring head. She can, in fine, become an instrument of evil instead of an angel of good. Instead of making flowers of truth, purity, beauty, and spirituality spring up in her footsteps, till the earth smiles with a loveliness that is almost celestial, she can transform it to a black and arid desert, covered with the scorn of all evil passions and swept by the bitter blast of everlasting death. This is what the woman can do for the wrong as well as for the right. Is her mission a little one? Has she no worthy work as has become the cry of late? Man may have a harder task to perform, a rougher road to travel, but he has none loftier or more influential than woman's.—London Journal.

AN OBSCURE GIRL'S CAREER.—Bridget Nolan a few years ago was the prettiest girl in St. Louis. The Count de Seville while travelling through the United States saw her and fell desperately in love. His title, his wealth and diamonds made Bridget his mistress. They went to Europe, where the wonderful beauty became the rage. One night in Paris she gathered together all her jewels and a considerable sum of the Count's money and fled with her coachman to New York. There they lived under the name of Rochefoucauld until her love turned cold, and she sped away to Chicago alone. After ruining a well-known banker by her extravagance, she turned her wandering footsteps to St. Louis; next she went to Saratoga and Newport, and everywhere men worshipped at her shrine and paid the penalty. When last heard of, she was at Manitou, Col., with an English lord. The rest of her history is unwritten, we are prophet enough to record it—a miserable ending, with death in the gutter or madhouse.

People who are in the bonds of Hymen seem to be less prone to the commission of crime than those who are not tied with the marital halter. A recent census in France proves conclusively that this theory is true, since the result of the census shows that out of every 100,000 unmarried persons thirty-three are criminals; while out of every 100,000 married persons only eleven are criminals. The fear of the law and the fear of a wife are powerful restraining influences, when brought into combination.

can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparations ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your druggist and get a sample bottle and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cts.
