THE FARQUHARSON MEMORIAL.—It has been proposed that the Farquharson monument be placed on Queen Square.

MUSIC ON THE SQUARE.—The Citizens Band will be on the Square this evening between 8 and 9 o'clock. They have an excellent programme prepared.

L. O. O. F.—Mr. Benj. Bremner left this morning to attend the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge which opens at Topeka, Kansas, on Monday next.

ATTRACTION.—Have you seen the five and ten cent Bargain window at the Diamond Bookstore? The prices at the old established house are marvellously low.

THE COILA.—The steamer Coila arrived from Glace Bay yesterday afternoon with a load of 400 tons nut coal for Farquharson & Son. She will leave this port about Wednesday.

THE BEATRICE.—The Princess Beatrice, having had the slight accident to her shaft repaired, will leave Halifax at 10 o'clock to-night and is expected here on Thursday morning.

POLICE COURT.—Matthew McCourt, disorderly conduct, fined $5 or 20 days, 1 drunk, fined $1 or 4 days, and an assault case dismissed, composed the docket at the Police Court to-day.

LOST.—Sunday night, between Zion Church and Upper Prince Street, four gold chains on a small ring, from a lady's watch chain. The finder will oblige by leaving at this office, or at the store of Norton & Fennell. 3i

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—Miss Arbuckle having accepted a position in the Davies School at Summerside, cannot accept the kind invitation of our City School Board, and a meeting is to be held this evening for the purpose of making another appointment to West Kent Street School.

MEETINGS.—All members of the Regatta Committee are requested to meet at the Club room this evening at 7 o'clock sharp. A meeting of the Club will be held at 8 o'clock, at which the Regatta Committee will report and other business will be transacted. All members requested to be present.

THE HORSE CASE.—Judge Alley to-day gave his decision in the horse case brought by Fenton T. Newbery, of this city, against Daniel McKenzie, of West Royalty. The Judge decided the action in favor of the plaintiff, and ordered judgment to be entered for him for the sum of $37 and costs.

BURGLARY.—On Saturday night last the Ferry Ticket Office at Southport was broken into and seven dollars in cash abstracted therefrom. The thief then went to the refreshment place kept by a poor old man and relieved it of tobacco, confectionery, and about one dollar in cash. There is no clue as to the perpetrators.

EXCHEQUER COURT.—The Exchequer Court of Canada will meet here to-morrow morning, Judge Burbridge presiding. There are two cases to be heard, viz: one to assess the damages sustained by Ronald McMillan, Esq., by reason of the railway extension to the Steam Navigation Co's Wharf, and in the other case to assess the damages of the Sigsworth case at Cardigan.

THE GRAND EXHIBITION CONCERT.—The lovers of music will be glad to learn that the Grand Concert to be held in the New Exhibition Building on Wednesday evening, October 1st, will be under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Lloyd. This concert will embrace the leading musical in the City, both local and instrumental, and will be a new and attractive feature of the Exhibition. On the following evening (Thursday) a Grand Promenade Concert will take place in the spacious hall of the building, which will also be under efficient management.

THE ARTILLERY TEAM.—Our Artillery team left for Quebec this morning to compete again with the artillerymen of the other Provinces of Canada. The senior officer is Lieut. Col. Moore, who is accompanied by Captains H. M. Davison and W. A. O. Morson, and Lieutenants Easton, Moore and Sterns, with Sergeants Offer and Coffin, Corporals McDonald and Quigley, Bombardier Proud, Gunners Gillis, McLaren, Gillespie, Musick, J. McLeod, Scantlebury, Harper, Johnson, A. McLeod, H. Brown, McAre, McCormack, Alley and Woods. Lieut. Col. Moore is accompanied by Mrs. Moore, and after leaving Quebec will spend a well earned holiday in New York and other cities.

EXHIBITION NOTES.—Under the supervision of Mr. Unsworth a Railway siding has been placed at the Lower St. Peter's Road Crossing, by which car loads of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs and poultry can be delivered on the Exhibition grounds with much safety and convenience to exhibitors and attendants. Carriages, farm implements, furniture and other large exhibits can also be taken from the cars to the Industrial Building, and with ordinary care will not be liable to any injury. The water works are being conveyed to the horse and cattle stables where suitable punchons and troughs for the use of animals will be placed.

The Electric Light Co. are preparing to illuminate the buildings and grounds in first class style. Fireworks will be under the efficient direction of A. N. Large, Esq.

The Telephone management will have one or more offices on the Exhibition grounds so that connections can be had with the Police station all hours night and day during the exhibition.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Fast Trotting.

BANGOR, ME., Sept. 7.

At the Eastern Maine Fair Saturday, the stallion Nelson beat the worlds half mile track record of 2.15 1/2. The time by quarters was 3.40 1/2, 1.07, 1.40, 2.15 1/2. Nelson trotted without a running mate as pace maker.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.

A special to the Inter-Ocean from Independence says Jay Wilkes paced half a mile Saturday in the face of a heavy wind in the unprecedented time of 1.01 1/2, the fastest half mile ever trotted or paced by any horse.

A Point of Precedence.

QUEBEC, Sept. 7.

L'Evenement says: "Last evening his Eminence, Cardinal Tacheau has considered it his duty to decline the invitation to the Governor General's State dinner at the Citadel. The refusal, it is explained, was dictated by the fact that there was an unwillingness to take into account at this official dinner the order of precedence accepted and followed in England, by which Cardinals, as princes of the Church, rank immediately after princes of blood royal, and before all ministers and members of the House of Lords."

Gunpowder Horror.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., Sept. 7. 1

Time heightens the horrors wrought by the premature explosion of 200 pounds of gunpowder in a blast in the Northern Pacific freight yards here, last night. Up to 11 p. m. eighteen bodies had been taken from among the rocks. Of these, sixteen were identified. Twenty-five men are yet unaccounted for, and in all probability are buried between a mighty mass of rock. The accident was caused by some one's carelessness.

The Ulunda.

DIGBY, N. S., Sept. 7.

The steamship Ulunda was sold at public auction yesterday to Mr. Brookfield, of the Halifax Dry Dock. An effort will be made to float her, and place her in the Halifax Dry Dock to be repaired.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.

Sir John Macdonald has returned to the Capital, looking quite rejuvenated. Hon. Mr. Dewdney leaves for England to-morrow.

Smuggling Liquor.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.

The Customs authorities have just seized a house at St. Armand, Que., owing to the fact that smuggled liquor was found in the walls.

Damage by Floods.

LONDON, Sept. 7.

The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent says it is estimated that the losses by floods in Central Europe will reach $30,000,000.

Weather Bulletin.
