UNITED STATES.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14.
Small pox seems to be increasing. Wholesale vaccinations are of daily occurrence. To-day the entire Post Office force were vaccinated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.
Scoville, brother-in-law and counsel for Guiteau, lectured to-night on "The Guiteau Case." A large number of tickets were sold, but the audience was small. The speaker expressed satisfaction at the progress of the trial, and highly complimented the presiding Judge. The object of the lecture was to raise funds to conduct the defence.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.
The cordage manufactory of John T. Bailey & Co. was burned to-day. Loss estimated at $200,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.
The report of the Western Union Telegraph Company shows a surplus for the quarter of $1,103,287, after paying a dividend of 1 1/2 per cent.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 14.
A tornado caused great damage in this city last night, blowing down buildings and injuring several persons, one fatally.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.
Rev. Dr. Withrow, pastor of Park Street Church, Boston, was the first witness in the Guiteau trial to-day. Guiteau called on him in 1879 and asked to be allowed to deliver a lecture in witness Church, in answer to Ingersoll, but the request was refused. He observed him during the winter at meetings and social gatherings of the church, but never saw the least indication of unsoundness of mind. Other witnesses testified to business relations with the prisoner, and considered him shrewd and far from insane. On account of the illness of a juror, the court adjourned early.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRLAND.

DUBLIN, Dec. 14.
Kelly, town councillor of Tralee, was arrested yesterday. The charge is intimidating. Kelly had been previously imprisoned for holding a Land League court at his house.

LONDON, Dec. 14.
At a National Conference of Miners, at Birmingham, yesterday, Thomas Burt, (Radical) member of Parliament for Morpeth, was elected President of the Miners' National Association, vice McDonald, deceased.

DUBLIN, Dec. 14.
The treasurer of the Ladies' Land League announces that receipts during the past week for the prisoners' fund amounted to £1,150; for general fund, £264.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Dec. 14.
The crew of the Norwegian barque Varberg, abandoned at sea while on the voyage from St. John to Palma, Majorca, have been landed at Havre.

VIENNA, Dec. 14.
Twenty-three more bodies have been recovered from the Ring theatre. Subscriptions for the fire sufferers reach 114,000 florins.

PARIS, Dec. 14.
Paul Bert, Minister of Public Instruction and Worship, has written to all prelates who attended the recent canonization ceremony in Rome, reminding them of the provision of the concordat requiring them to obtain permission of the Government before leaving their dioceses.

Maccaluso, who threw a revolver at Depretis, the Prime Minister, in Chamber of Deputies, has been sentenced to a year's imprisonment, and a year on the Island of Ischia, with a fine of 200 francs.

ROME, Dec. 14.
During the debate on the Electoral Reform Bill in the Senate yesterday, it was finally declared the measure would be productive of dangerous consequences, as it gives preponderance to section of democracy most discontented. Marquis Alfieri remarked it was indispensable that the ruling classes place themselves at the head of the democracy to direct its course into proper channels.

The Pope has named Cardinal Howard to succeed the late Cardinal Edonardo Borromea as Prefect of the Congregation.

As previously announced, the annual meeting of the North Bedoune Farmers' Club was held on the 5th instant. After the directors and secretary had submitted their reports, a discussion came in respect to the importance of cheese factories, when it was proposed that F. T. Newbery, Esq., from Charlottetown, be invited to address the club on the subject at an early date. The next meeting will be held on the evening of Monday, the 19th instant, when the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. It is hoped all the members will be present on that occasion. —Pioneer.

A CORRESPONDENT from Park Corner writes us that on the evening of the 7th inst., a society was organized at that place, to be called the "New London Literary and Debating Club," officers for the current season being:—J. M. Martin, Pres.; Wm. Ramsay, Vice do; Geo. McLeod, Secy.; Wm. Montgomery, Treas. Meetings every Wednesday evening during winter. The society expects to enliven the proceedings by occasional lectures, literary entertainments, &c. The young men of Park Corner have acted wisely in forming themselves into a society for mutual improvement. —Summerside Pioneer.

Why Some People Fail to Succeed.

They are lazy.
They neglect details.
They have no eye to business.
They are not careful in weighing.
They let their clerks eat and give them away.
They let their help waste and destroy.
They are slovenly in their shops.
They let their shops get filthy and dirty.
They make no changes in goods.
They fail to furnish good tools.
They try how cheap they can do anything.
They make no window changes.
They fail to advertise.
They try not to excel or improve.
They think cheapness recommends articles.
They have too much outside business.
They talk politics too much.
They philosophize on everything but their business.
They fail to invent or have new ideas.
They employ too cheap help.
They try to sell stale goods.
They think inferior will take the place of good.
They imitate their neighbors.
They fail to clean their windows.
They are not polite or accommodating.
They think most things take too much trouble.
They fail to use plenty of light.
They do not furnish good materials.
They are not neat or cleanly in person.
They fail to push business.
They are not awake to the seasons.
They know not the best is the cheapest.
They put goods up in poor style.
They fail to shine up and clean store up daily.
They know not the power of method.
They fail to pile stock up and let the people see it.
They fail to keep signs and fronts bright.
They fail to give loafers the cold shoulder.
They have hangers-on who eat them up.
They go out to often to see a man.
They are illiberal at home enterprises.
They attend to everything but their own business.
They have their heads muddled with beer.
They have their tongues thickened with drinks.
They let their breaths reek with alcohol.
They fail to keep system and good order.
They smoke or chew tobacco in business hours.
They fail to meet the wants of the season.
They try not to better their stores.
They try not the power of printer's ink.
