With many others in many walks of life, the Provincial Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, mourns the sudden passing of Harry E. Miller of Charlottetown—one of God's noblemen and an energetic workman in the distribution and proclamation of the "Word". It is to devoted men such as the late Mr. Miller, that this great Society owes its phenomenal development and growth. May we emulate his example!

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and THEIR WORKS DO FOLLOW THEM."
