Murray River and Vicinity

Rev. James MacInnis of Glen William left Sunday for Indiana, U. S. A., where he will enter a hospital for treatment.

Mr. Lloyd MacInnis, Glen William, was a Sunday visitor to Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacPhee.

Mrs. James MacInnis is at present spending a few days in Charlottetown, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lester MacInnis.

Mrs. Winnifred Acton and daughter, Wilma, were recent visitors to Eidon, where they were the guests of Mrs. Acton's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buchanan.

Mr. Vernon Clow, Cambridge, was a recent visitor to Eidon, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buchanan.

Miss Evelyn Campbell, Caledonia, was a week-end visitor to Alliston, guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Campbell.

Miss Margaret MacInnis, Glen William, is at present spending a few days in Charlottetown, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark.

Mr. Wallace MacInnis, Toronto, Ont., has returned to his home in Glen William.

Miss Myrna MacKay, Murray River, left on Monday for Boston, U. S. A., where she expects to spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Elva MacDonald, teacher of Dover School, was a week-end visitor to her home in Caledonia, where she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald.

Mrs. Angus Matheson, Glen William, was a Sunday visitor to Montague where she was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacPhee.

PARIS, March 13 (AP) - French police said today that an international syndicate has been flooding France with illegally minted gold coins, apparently minted in Italy. The 20-franc coins, named "Louis" for the French Kings who first minted them, are no longer legal tender in France. They are used mostly for hoarding purposes, and are valued at about 4,000 francs ($12) each.

"The friends of Mr. Emery MacNeil, Montague, are sorry to hear that he has entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Arnold MacLure, Montague, is a patient in the King's County Hospital. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Bristol and Vicinity

Miss Mary McInnis and Miss Teresa Rossiter spent the weekend in the city.

Mrs. John Lapierre, who was suffering from a severe relapse of the flu is around again.

Mr. Buddy Kelly was a visitor to the city on Thursday where his step mother is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital.

Mr. Valentine MacDonald spent the past week at his home here. Mr. MacDonald is employed as a carpenter in the city.

Mrs. Frank Kelly is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital where she has undergone a serious operation. She had been ill at her home for some time.

Mr. Maurice Martell, who has been at the Beach Grove men's home for some time owing to poor health and unable to walk, has returned home again, but no doubt will re-enter the home again later.

Mr. Anselm Lapierre was a business visitor to the city on Friday and Saturday. Mr. Lapierre says he is to report for his duties on the tug at Sydney, N.S. early in April as cook.

Mr. William MacDonald, who has a flock of blue jays that reside around his home during the winter months and are fed by the family, reports the birds have come through their sixth winter successfully. These birds never go away.

Relatives and friends in this vicinity learned with regret over the week-end of the death at her home in Attleboro, Mass. of Mrs. George Audet. Old friends here remember her as Agnes Trainor, daughter of the late Thomas Trainor and Mrs. Trainor, Morell Rear. She left here as a girl to reside in the U.S.A. and her passing is much regretted by her friends here.

Mr. Peter Dunphy has received word of the very serious illness of his brother-in-law, Daniel G. Mooney in Pratt Diagnostic Hospital, Boston, Mass. Mr. Mooney is well known in this vicinity where he always spent his vacations every year. His wife is the former Margaret Dunphy of this vicinity. Another sister here is Mrs. Jenny McCarthy.

Mr. Lloyd Cox, merchant and lobster packer here has been a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital for some time. But we hope to see him out shortly with the busy season near at hand. Some of the help are still not booked up. One factory here reports they are still without cooks. Mrs. Annabella Doucette and her sister, Ella Lapierre, will do the cooking for Mr. Cox but it is understood he is still without an operator for the boiler room.

His many friends here learned with regret last week of the death of Mr. William Rose at his home in St. Andrews. Mr. Rose was well known where he bought blueberries for many years and was the man who got the price up from nothing to around a good figure some years ago on the Co-operative scale. His funeral was held from his late residence to the west St. Peters Lake cemetery on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended.

Mrs. Kenneth Perry and young son Kenneth Jr. are at present visiting Mrs. Perry's father, Mr. William Kelly at her old home in Morell. She was Mary Kelly before her marriage and graduated from the school of nursing in the St. John Hospital. She has resided in St. John ever since her marriage there. Friends are very glad to see Mary around again as she was very popular with the younger crowd when she was here.

Mr. P. R. Sinnott, local contractor or has completed a re-modelling job on the inside of Miss Lottie Hughes' summer home here. Miss Hughes, a former Bristol girl, has been on the staff of the Boston City Hospital for more than twenty years. In fact she has resided in Boston for thirty-five years but comes to her home here for a few weeks every summer. Her home is closed during her absence and she even keeps her car here and has it ready for her when she arrives for a vacation.

Mr. Spencer Llewellyn, Montague, was a business visitor to Charlottetown on business.

Pte. Albert MacKinnon, who is stationed in Manitoba, is spending his leave in Brooklyns, guest of his mother, Mrs. Sadie MacKinnon.

Funeral Yesterday Of Mr. John Mellish
