

Local Camera Club Meeting

Last night at the regular meeting of the Charlottetown Camera Club, the photographs on the subject "Christmas", were judged by Vic Runtz. Vic Runtz was not able to be there in person and his interesting comments were read by Roland Taylor. Mr. Runtz emphasized that composition and human interest were the most important considerations in pictures about Christmas. The photograph by George Lewis, entitled "Christmas Belles", was judged the best. It showed the photographers' two young children, on Christmas morning, in front of the tree, intently examining their Christmas gifts. Two photographs by Larry MacInnis, titled "Oh, Santa Claus!" and "Now, What's That?", were tied for second place. Roland Taylor's photograph, "After Santa's Visit", was judged to be third. The next illustrated lecture in the series currently being shown, was "How to Make a Contact Print", with a lecture and demonstration given by Bob Donnelly. General discussion brought out many varied methods used by Camera Club members, which provided the beginners with many valuable hints on the making of good snap shots. Club president, Mr. Chuck Walker, announced that prints for the Salon will have to be ready by Feb. 12, for the showing in March. The next competition will be "Table Top" photography, and at the next meeting, Mr. Lewis will give a demonstration on this topic.

The Executive of the Prince Edward Island Division is happy to announce that Brigadier W. W. Reid will again be the Provincial chairman for the 1954 Red Cross Campaign which will get underway on March 1st. Brigadier Reid is presently lining up chairmen and canvassers for the counties, and districts so that all will be in readiness for the opening date, March 1st.

Death Under Sad Circumstances

Hendrik Bakker, a 59 year old Dutch immigrant who was residing in North Rustico, was found hanging in the barn on his farm at 145 p.m. yesterday. R. G. M. P. officers from the Charlottetown Detachment, with Coroner left for the scene of the tragedy and after viewing the remains decided the man had come to his death by his own hand and that an inquest would be unnecessary.

The late Mr. Bakker who had been in Canada for a little over three years is survived by his wife four boys and one girl in this country, and three girls in Holland. He had not been in good health for some time, according to members of the Police who conducted the investigation.

Trinity W. A.

The combined monthly and annual meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of Trinity United Church met in the social hall on Thursday afternoon.

The meeting opened by singing "Standing in the Portal of the Opening Year." The president Mrs. Y. W. Saunders led the devotional period, her theme being: "For a New Year."

In her New Year message, Mrs. Saunders said: "We are striving to build a better world in which to live and we are counselled to listen to the voices of the past, to study carefully the present, and to peer seriously into the future. Now is the time to make a new beginning and to start the drama of life anew." The prayer hymn, "For the Mercy and Thy Grace" was read in unison, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

The secretary reviewed the activities of the past year. This showed sustained interest by the members, in all phases of the work of the society.

The treasurer reported that the allocation had been exceeded $1,533.50 having been sent to the Presbyterian treasury by the Afternoon Auxiliary and younger groups. The election of officers for 1954 resulted as follows: past president, Mrs. Gordon Avar; president, Mrs. L. W. Saunders; 1st vice-president, Mrs. A. F. MacLean; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Harold Newson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. E. Mutch; recording secretary, Mrs. A. D. MacLennan; treasurer, Miss Jessie Gillis; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Blois Andrew; press secretary, Mrs. A. B. Bagnall; Christian stewardship secretary, Miss Mabel Newsome; literature and Missionary Monthly secretary, Mrs. D. J. Morrison; assistant, Mrs. Edgar Gillespie; temperance and Christian citizenship secretary, Mrs. Laura Bustin; Associate Helper's secretary, Mrs. Hiram Howatt; community friendship secretary, Mrs. J. M. Burgess; supply secretaries, Mrs. W. W. Mutch and Mrs. John MacNair; Mission Band superintendent, Miss Mary Morrison; Baby Band, Mrs. Gordon Avar; assistant, Mrs. Vernon Munn; superintendent dinner, Mrs. R. E. Mutch; pianist, Mrs. K. A. Parker. Hymn "Sing to the Great Jehovah's Praise", brought the meeting to a close.

Island Odds And Ends

Also to be numbered among the unemployed are the many smelting shacks, which usually dot our rivers at this time of year. So far there has not been enough ice to carry them. Perhaps the current cold snap will provide the foundation for which they have been waiting.

The number of people in Charlottetown and Royalton now drawing Unemployment Insurance, now totals seven hundred and twenty-five, according to figures compiled yesterday. This is about two hundred higher than at the same date last year. The total for King's and Queen's counties, not counting Charlottetown is thirteen hundred and seventy-six, or a grand total of eighteen hundred and one. This is a record high for this time of year. Practically every National Unemployment Office in the Maritimes is reporting the same large increase in the number of benefit claimants, and in fact, the Island is better off than some of the other centres in the Atlantic region.

Not many concerns in Charlottetown are now on the five day week but more of them have adopted it than most folks realize. Included in the number are five banks, two trust companies, eight insurance offices, one meat packing plant, the Canadian National Railway, the Canadian National Express, the Canadian National Telegraphs. In addition one business concern which employs about seventy, observes a forty hour week although its workers may work on the sixth day. Overtime is paid beyond the forty hours.

All told those on the shortened week plan, or its equivalent, in the city, runs well into the hundreds. The meatpacking plant alone normally carries more than a hundred and sixty on its payroll, and the local banks between them account for more than a hundred more.

Now that the Dominion Department of Fisheries has commenced reports that fish from Southern waters are being caught off the Atlantic coast of Canada, far north of their customary feeding grounds, there is no telling what some of our fly fishermen will tie into this coming summer at Fortune, or some other salt water fishing spot along our coast line.

Week Of Prayer Meeting At St. Paul's

The final service in connection with the local "Week of Prayer" observance was held last evening in St. Paul's Anglican Church. The rector, Canon J. T. Ibbott conducted the service, assisted by Rev. James Davison and Captain L. T'oombe who read the lessons. Rev. T. H. B. Somers read the Prayer.

The choir, under Mr. Paul Cudmore sang the anthem "Bless the Lord O My Soul" The sermon was delivered by Rev. A. Frank MacLean who spoke on the Acts of Prayer. "The purpose of the Week of Prayer," said Mr. MacLean, "was to replenish our spiritual faith." He divided his topic into Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving and Supplication. "The sins of the mind are worse than physical sins, and the forgiveness of sin is one of the greatest boons in the world. Thanksgiving is a prayer to God, petitions are prayers for oneself, and intercessory prayers are those made for others." This final service taxed the capacity of the church, and the service of the entire week, despite inclement weather, demonstrated the loyalty of the people of Charlottetown to their churches and to their faith.

The offerings of the week are dispensed to local charities and such bodies as the Canadian Council of Churches with the Wednesday evening collection being an offering to the local Bible Society. In other years, an outside preacher has been secured for the entire week, but the support of the 1954 services has shown an equal appreciation of our own city clergy, and all addresses given were of a very high order. According to the Ministerial Association, no city supports the Week of Prayer services to a greater degree than does the City of Charlottetown.
