Mr. Ralph Davison of Albany employed on the Charlottetown as electrician had the misfortune to Jean Peters as the lovely lady he falls in love with and for whom he must prove his innocence. 'Love That Brute' has a winning star team. Cesar Romero is back in a suitable role, as the rival gang leader who, unlike Douglas, isn't kidding one bit when he dispatches his boys to take Douglas on that last ride.

The principal flavor of 'Love That Brute' however, is one of laughs. When the Douglas-Romero rivalry is temporarily off screen, there's an abundance of comedy on hand from the starry supporting players.

Newly Formed Kensington Livestock Company, Ltd.

The above named company was formed at a meeting of farmers and dealers held in Kensington on Dec. 15. The meeting was called by a committee previously appointed to secure a scales for installation in close proximity to the new C.N.R. cattle pen.

Mr. Don Baker presided and called on Mr. Murdoch McLeod to explain what had been done. Mr. McLeod told the meeting that a scales and building to cover it had been purchased from the County Construction Company at a cost of $2,500. Scales and building would be installed immediately.

The C.N.R. will supply adjustable gangways for convenience in loading and unloading livestock. It was decided to form a company and the following provisional directors were appointed: Don Baker, Kensington, Lorne Crozier, Kensington, Wm. Johnson, Long River, Hugh Campbell, Graham's Road, Herbert McEwen, Stanley, Elmer Stewart, Norboro, Charles Lockhart, Malpeque. It was decided that shares would be $5.00 each and capital stock would be $3,000.

A nominal weighing charge to cover cost of operation will be charged to shareholders and non-shareholders will pay an additional charge.

It is the intention of the Directors to ask the officers of the District Federation of Agriculture to Shipping at Albany Station is very quiet these days. On Tuesday of this week there were only two cars on the track loading produce. There have often been twenty cars on the tracks here loading and the produce dealers calling for more refrigerator cars. Some change prices paid for potatoes at the cars forty-five cents per seventy-five pound bag. Turnips are thirty-five cents for fifty pound bag.

NORTH TRYON Y. P. S. MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the North Tryon Y. P. Society was held in the Presbyterian Manse on Monday evening. The devotional service was led by Dean Johnston, and opened with the call to worship followed by the singing of 'The Star of Christmas.'

The scripture lesson was read by Grace Howatt, Ida, Eula and Marjorie Wood led in prayer. An address on the topic 'The Christian Life' was given by Miss Mary A. MacKenzie; this was followed by a discussion on same. The offering was received and dedicated.

The devotional service closed with the mizpah benediction. The business period was presided over by the President, Ruth Thomson. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Anabelle MacDonald. Arrangements were made for candle light service to be held in the North Tryon Presbyterian. The roll call was responded by twenty-two members each repeating a verse of scripture. The meeting adjourned with the singing of 'Heavenly Sunshine.'

then as brambles clutched him and scratched him. 'Didn't I tell you we can use that dog?' asked Reddy a little later as they finished the Rabbit breakfast. Mrs. Reddy had caught. At the same time the hunter was shaking his head wonderingly. 'I can't understand why the dog lost the scent all of a sudden and couldn't find it again. It happened just so the other day.' He hadn't seen Reddy and Mrs. Reddy.

'LOVE THAT BRUTE' AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE
-Neatly combining a fast, fresh and funny screenplay and a nostalgically pleasant harpoon to the roaring twenties. 'Love That Brute' set itself solidly with audiences at the Capitol Theatre opening yesterday. In a farcical take-off on the Chicago gangster reputation of that period, 'Love
