CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER
South dealer. Neither side vulnerable.
NORTH: KQ74, AS, Q55, KJ62
WEST: 93, 210975, 9862, 53
EAST: AJ108, K62, J74, Q104
SOUTH: 652, Q84, AK10, A987
The bidding: South West North East 1 Pass 1 Pass 1NT Pass 3NT
Opening lead—jack of hearts. Most bridge players tend to be creatures of habit. The stereotyped hand begs a stereotyped reaction. The mark of a really fine player is that he does not react automatically to everyday situations, but surveys each deal as though it were a new experience. Take this hand, where South is in three notrump and West leads a heart. Declarer plays low from dummy, East taking the king and returning a heart to the ace. South enters his hand with the club and finesse the jack on the return. East stills another heart and plays still another heart. Declarer wins with the queen

KEEP LEGS COVERED HINT IS GREETED WITH SCORN

By JORIE LUELOFF
NEW YORK (AP) — No doubt the bachelor professor from England was only trying to be helpful when he warned women of the danger of exposing bare limbs to the elements. But his advice was received with undiluted scorn on this side of the Atlantic. Professor Alexander Boyd, 59, head of Manchester University's department of surgery, has advised women to wear thick stockings, boots, even bloomers—anything to keep their legs warm. Girls who dress scantily in the cold weather," said Boyd, "run the risk of getting fat calves and blotchy skins by the time they're 30." The result of exposure to cold is a condition called erythrocytosis crurum pularium frigidum. "Hideous legs can ruin a girl's life," he said. "The only answer is to keep them warm."

LBJ Admits Possible Error In Funeral Representative

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said "I may have made a mistake" by not sending Vice-President Hubert Humphrey to Sir Winston Churchill's funeral. He said the U.S. delegation was a high-ranking and a well-rounded delegation. Telling a press conference how he picked the delegation, the president said "I had no particular reason for not asking the vice-president." He noted Humphrey was addressing delegates from 50 states on his new responsibilities in the field of civil rights on the day the delegation was to leave. Having been vice-president himself for three years, Johnson said, "It has never occurred to me, and I have never had it brought to my attention so vividly, it was the duty and function of the vice-president to be present at all official funerals."

Insurance Paid On Missing Gold

LONDON (AP)—A cheque for £100,000 ($300,000) in insurance was paid here to the owners of 20 gold bars missing from the liner Capetown Castle when she docked at Southampton last Friday. Police still are searching the liner for the gold, part of an $8,000,000 ($24,000,000) consignment from South Africa. All they have come up with so far are caches of contraband cigarettes, watches and marijuanas. The search, also being carried out at South African ports and Las Palmas, last port of call of the liner, spread to the northern English port of Liverpool Monday. Police there searched the 11,651-ton liner Appas, which called at Las Palmas at the same time as the Capetown Castle. Police theorized a switch of the gold on one vessel to the other was a possibility. Insurance companies declined to disclose who got the money for the missing gold.

Mineral Needs Seen Big Chance For Canadians

OTTAWA (CP)—A projected world-wide mineral shortage in the 1970s could mean a huge market for northern underdeveloped wealth. Communist leader B. G. Sverdrup said here in his opening address to the winter session of the Northwest Territories Council. To take advantage of this opportunity, Canadians must in the next 10 years or so find ways to reduce the high cost of producing and marketing northern minerals. This could be done only through research. "Without scientific research, the resources of the north will remain little-known and little-exploited and any development will be accompanied or prevented by high costs," Mr. Sverdrup told the nine-member council.

of astronaut trainees Sept. 17, 1962. The four were assigned to the third manned Gemini flight probably to be made this fall at a press briefing at the Manned Spacecraft Centre. Cooper, 37, flew his Faith-7 Mercury capsule 22 times around the globe May 15-16, 1963, for a total time of 34 hours and 30 minutes.

3 Plead Guilty To Gem Theft

NEW YORK (AP) — Florida beachboy Jack Roland Murphy and two companions have pleaded guilty to the theft of a priceless gem collection from the American Museum of Natural History last Oct. 29. However, authorities said that some of the items still are missing, including the world-famous De Long ruby. Murphy and the others, Allen Dale Kuhn and Roger Frederick Clark, entered formal pleas of guilty to charges of grand larceny, burglary and possession of burglars' tools. They were ordered held in jail pending sentencing March 19. The Star of India sapphire and some other of the stolen gems were returned.

Pair Selected For Seven-Day Gemini Flight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — U.S. Air Force Maj. L. Gordon Cooper, the most seasoned American space traveller, and Navy Lt.-Cmdr. C. Les Conrad Jr., have been selected to fly a seven-day Gemini space flight. Chosen as the backup crew were two civilians — Neil A. Armstrong and Elliott M. See Jr. Both are former navy pilots. Cooper was a member of the original seven-man Mercury astronaut crew. See, Armstrong and Conrad were among the nine men selected in a second group
